RECENT DEATHS

Oscar D. Wetmore, at one time a resident of St. John, and particularly active in the cause of temperance, died at his home in Chicago on June 1. A daughter lives in California. S. Merritt Wetmore, West St. John, is a first cousin. Mr. Wetmore was eighty-five years old.

The death of Edward A. Graham occurred yesterday at his residence 22 Charles street, Fairville, in the twenty-ninth year of his age. Mr. Graham, who was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Graham, of West St. John, leaves to mourn besides his parents, his wife and child, six sisters, Mrs. E. J. Flannigan, of West St. John; Mrs. E. B. Walsh, of Boston; Mrs. E. Morrisey, of Montreal, and the Misses Mary, Louise and Margaret, of West St. John, and two brothers, John, of Montreal, and Louis, of West St. John. The funeral will take place on Wednesday from his late residence.

The death of Mrs. Joseph Jimmo occurred in Chatham on Saturday afternoon at the age of fifty-nine. Mrs. Daniel Sutton of this city is a daughter.

The death of Mrs. W. A. McDougall of Moncton occurred yesterday afternoon following an operation for appendicitis. She was a sister of A. E. Trites of Salisbury and of H. H. Trites of the C. N. R. police staff, Moncton. She is survived by her husband, two sons and two daughters.

The death occurred at Charlottetown of W. F. H. Carvell, a son of the late Hon. J. S. Carvell, a former lieutenant-governor of P. E. Island.

THEY WERE PIONEERS.

A golden wedding of much interest was celebrated at Benton, Carleton Co. on May 10th, when Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Lewin completed their fifty years of wedded life. It was on May 10th, 1870, when Charles A. Lewin, then one of the pioneer settlers of Glenville, Parish of Aberdeen, chose for his bride Miss Mary Doucet, youngest daughter of Rev. Cyril Doucet and Mrs. Doucet. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents by the Rev. George T. Hartley of Woodstock, Free Christian Baptist minister. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Donald McLeod Vince, Mrs. Vince being a sister of the bride. The death of Mrs. Vince took place two years later. About five years after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Lewin moved to the farm in Benton, where they still live. A family of eight children were born to the couple, seven of whom are living today, and were all present for the first time in twenty years at the celebration.

The four sons are Willard T., one of Houlton's prominent attorneys; A. Edwin of St. Stephen, Chas. E. of Forest City, William A. of Benton. Three daughters are Mrs. Frank Kirkpatrick of Portage, Maine; Miss Mabel E. and Miss Alice A., both graduates of the

Manchester Robertson Allison Limited
KING STREET GERMAN STREET MARKET SQUARE

Newton, Mass., training school for nurses. The aged couple were each presented with a purse of gold coins from their children, also presents of gold and other gifts from a legion of friends and acquaintances.

The house was prettily decorated with green vines and flowers for the occasion, which was doubly a happy event, as the eldest grandson, Harry Esie Lewin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard T. Lewin of Houlton, became the bridegroom of Miss Colla Hackett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Hackett of Houlton, Me. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Methodist church at Woodstock. The young couple were attended by the grandparents, the half century bride received a new wedding ring to replace the worn one of fifty years ago.

The young bride is one of Houlton's charming young ladies, a graduate of Houlton High School and Annotook Normal School. The groom completes his course at Colby College in June, and during his college course has been most popular, serving on many of the college committees, and most prominent in the musical circles of the college. He will study law at the completion of his college course.
