THE COMMERCIAL EXCHANGE.

A Rendezvous for Business Men—The Objects of the Exchange—Formal Opening this Afternoon.

The St. John Commercial Exchange was opened this afternoon, at 3.30 o'clock. It is a most interesting enterprise. For a long time past there has been felt among the business men of the city the need of an exchange, where merchants and others could meet and transact business. In other cities where the population is larger than in St. John this want has been supplied by exchanges devoted to specific objects such as the Produce Exchange, Corn Exchange, and Stock Exchange. But St. John is not large enough to have an exchange devoted to these various purposes. It has been felt however that if a room could be obtained in a central locality, wherein the gentlemen in the various lines of business could meet, it would be a great advantage to the community generally. Such a room has now been furnished in the new Pugsley building, on the corner of Princess and Canterbury streets. The room is 45 by 60 feet in size, with lofty ceilings, and is well lighted and easy of access. It will be furnished with tables and chairs where members can do such writing as they may desire, and each member will also be supplied with a private drawer where papers may be kept. A telephone has been placed in the room for the use of members, and it is hoped that arrangements may be made to furnish quotations from the stock and produce exchanges of New York and Chicago. But as this will involve considerable expense it may not be possible to carry out this intention at once. There is also talk of establishing a reading or news room in connection with the exchange. If this is done the large room opening into it, and situated immediately on the corner of Canterbury and Princess streets will be used for that purpose.

At the opening ceremonies this afternoon a short address was delivered by Mr. G. R. Pugsley who stated the objects for which the exchange has been established, and suggested that a committe should be appointed to frame rules for the government of the exchange, and to assist him in the selection of the furniture and the competion of such arrangements as would be most for the convenience and comfort of the members. The exchange starts with a membership of upwards of 200. The members of the exchange and some of their friends present were invited to partake of refreshments, which were furnished by the owners of the building Messrs Gilbert R. Pugsley and Hon. William Pugsley. A number of toasts were proposed and were happily responded to.

FIRE AT TITUSVILLE.—A serious fire broke out this morning at Titusville, Kings county, the store, shoe shop, and barn of Mr. John Titus with all their contents being destroyed. These included a horse, three cows and two calves. There is only a partial insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown.

MR. G. H. MCKAY, the well known Charlotte street dry goods merchant, has published finely executed life size portraits of Hon. J. J. C. Abbott and Hon. Wilfred Laurier on separate sheets both of which will be valued by those of their political friends who may be able to secure them. Mr. McKay knows not only how to draw attention to his business but how to please his customers as well.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LIBRARY.—An effort is being made to improve the library of St. Luke's church Sunday school. To raise funds for this object a number of lectures and entertainments are to be held. The first of these will be on Tuesday evening, Nov. 17th, when Rev. Mr. Lloyd, rector of Rothesay, will deliver an illustrated lecture in the school-room, on the Northwest Rebellion.

JAMES CONROY was arrested at the railway station last evening for drunkenness and locked up in one of the cells in the building. He set fire to the walls with some paper and matches that he had in his pockets in the hope of regaining his liberty. Officer Collins discovered the fire shortly afterwards and Conroy was then taken to the police station.

THIRTEEN HUNDRED DOLLARS RAISED.—A meeting of the congragation of Centenary church was held in the school room of the church last evening. Rev. G. M. Young occupied the chair. Mr. Joshua Clawson explained that the meeting was called for the purpose of raising money to pay off the floating debt of the church amounting to $4000. There were a large number present and the sum of $1300 was subscribed. It is thought the balance will be raised from members of the congragation not present at last night's meeting.

YOUNG MEN'S LIB. CON. CLUB.—The annual meeting of the Young Men's Liberal Conservative club was held last evening, when the following officers were elected: S. S. DeForest, president; Dr. J. E. March, 1st. vice-president; Robert Maxwell, second vice-president; C. B. Lockhart, third vice-president; Thomas Bell, treasurer; J. T. Twining Hartt, secretary; J. Fen. Fraser, R. J. Wilkins, Geo. W. Jones, Jas. Lewis, W. S. Barker, A. Hunter and W. O. Purdy, executive committee; R. Ewing, W. C. Pitfield, and E. A. Powers, finance committee; Robert Ewing, James Lewis, Thomas Bell and R. J. Wilkins committee on membership.

THERE WAS A LARGE ATTENDANCE last evening at the reception given under the auspices of the St. John School of Music at their rooms on Princess street. The first part of the evening was taken up with the following programme which was heartily appreciated by the audience: Piano solo, Miss Sprague; vocal solo, Miss Pidgeon; reading, Miss Alexander; vocal solo, Miss Hitchens; violin solo, Miss Ogden. All the pieces on the programme were greeted with well deserved applause and the violin solo of Miss Ogden, who plays with uncommon sweetness and taste, was favored with an encore. The guests were then invited upstairs where refreshments were served and a very enjoyable time spent in conversation, etc.

THE DEATH occurred last evening of Mr. Thomas Morely, the eminent musician. He was born in England and came to this city in 1887, since which time he has given his time exclusively to musical matters, being the conductor of the Oratorio society and organist of the Mission church up to a few months previous to his death. As a Gregorian accompanist, deceased was considered the equal of any musician in the world, while as a composer of church music he took high rank. As an organist and musician he was in all probability the best ever in this city. Mr. Morley was twice married, and his second wife survives him. By his first wife he leaves a grown up family, and by his second wife two small children. Mrs. Myrley and family will have the sympathy of the entire community.

SPIRIT OF THE TIMES.

Foot Ball.

The St. John foot ball team go to Fredericton tomorrow morning, where they play the university club in the afternoon.

A football match will be played tomorrow afternoon on the Shamrock grounds between the Shamrocks and Carleton clubs. Additional attractions will be a quarter-mile run open to all amateurs except C. E. O Reilly and W. Vincent, and a mile walk. A silver medal will be given the winner of each event.

TORONTO, Nov. 10.—A telegram from London says the Canadian-American foot ballers scored the ninth victory of their tour defeating the Walsaltown Swifts by the score of three goals to two.

The Ring.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 9.—Peter Jackson has challenged Frank P. Slavin to fight to a finish in three or four months for a purse of $10,000, which Jackson expects the California Athletic Club to put up. Jackson will also wager $2500 that Slavin does not defeat him.

Athletic.

The entries for the Y. M. C. A. sports closed last night. There are a large number of events well filled. The sports will be held to-morrow evening.

The Turf.

To-morrow, Thanksgiving day, on the trotting Park at Moncton Mr. J. R. Lamy's yearling colt, Buchanan, will attempt to beat the Dominion record for that class, 1.31 half mile, for a purse of $150.

There will also be a 2.50 and a 2,40 race both of which have been well filled.

Maine Vagaries.

One of the little towns in Cumberland county is alifired mad because a young and inexperienced missionary reports them in a destitute and altogether heathenish condition. It is sometimes well to personally investigate these matters rather than blazing away indiscriminately with your charities.

The spelling-school is a great leveller of social distinctions. At one down in Lincoln county the other day, the teacher was one of the first brought down, while the honors were carried off by a nine year old pupil of his.

Some of the ministers in Maine are preaching good sermons on practical, every-day matters, but none, so far, have gone further into details than a Biddeford clergyman who, in a sermon on matrimony, is reported as having advised young men not to marry for beauty, but to "learn to distinguish between paint and real beauty."

There is a willow tree on Cape Elizabeth, which was set out nearly 100 years ago by a Mr. Marr. This Mr. Marr was a neighbourly sort of a person and kindly kept his grindestone out under the tree for the accommodation of the townspeople, grindestones being comparatively few in those days. The neighbors would come and grind their axes and then try them on the willow to see if they were sharp. This practice threatened the destruction of the tree, and Mr, Marr protested against it but in vain. So he decided to stop it once for all. He drove a number of large spikes into the tree, first removing a small piece of bark and replacing it afterwards to cover the head of each spike. The next man who came to sharpen his axe, stepped up to the tree to try the edge, but one of those spikes got in its work and there was very little edge left. Probably those spikes are buried today deep in the trunk of that willow, which has them to thank for its present flourishing condition.

The Cammercial Exchange.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE GAZETTE:—

SIR:—I would like to ask your opinion as to the position of the new "Commercial Exchange," whether it is, as has been suggested, supposed to occupy the same position as the Board of Trade. The general idea is that there cannot be more than one Board of Trade incorporated for each community, and that as these boards are looked upon as the proper channels through which the commercial community express their views, and which are incorporated and recognized by the government, I would like to know what the object of this new association is. As a member of the Board of Trade, I understand that one of the main features of the organization is supposed to be for the purpose of assembly of members at the rooms each day, for the purpose of exchanging commodities or any other business transactions between the members, which are usually carried on at the boards in other places. There is one thing that has always attracted my attention in this community, and that is the extraordinary antagonism which is always being shown to the board by certain newspapers. In all other communities the board has the general support and goodwill of the whole community, and rarely, if ever, hear of their efforts being depreciated as they appear to be here. Of course it is quite natural that they are not in an executive position and able to force through any measures which they may originate,—they naturally appear to be rather the "movers of resolutions." And it seems strange that these croakers will endeavor to depreciate any efforts which may be made to advance the interests of the community, and with the board as in most cases with all other things, it is unfortunately done in the interest of either of the political parties and at the expense of the interests of the city.

A SUBSCRIBER TO THE BOARD OF TRADE.
St. John, N. B., Nov, 11th.

At the Opera House.

The second performance of Camille was given at the opera house last night. The audience was apparently well pleased with the acting, for curtain calls were given several times.

At the conclusion of the first act the new drop curtain was lowered and the house rang with applause as the beautiful view of Naples unrolled. When the curtain was rung up Mr. Chidley the artist was called upon the stage by Mr. A. O. Skinner, the president of the opera house company, who, on behalf of the directors presented him with a handsome gold headed ebony cane as a token of their appreciation of his admirable work. Mr. Chidley, heartily thanked the directors. They had shown great enterprize in erecting such a fine temple of the arts and he had tried to do his best as he felt that everything should be done that was possible to help in making the enterprise a success.

The World of Fashion will be presented for the first time in this city this evening. This is a brilliant comedy which will probably take well here. It will be repeated tomorrow night, and on Friday night a grand farewell benefit to Miss Coombs will be given.

Matinees will be held Thanksgiving and Saturday afternoons.

THE PORTLAND dancing assembly will meet on Friday evening at Miss Mabel Smith's, Douglas avenue.

When grandpa went a-wooing,
He wore a satin vest,
A trail of running roses
Embroidered on the breast.
The pattern of his trousers,
His linen, white and fine,
Were all the latest fashion
In eighteen twenty-nine.

Grandpa was a fine-looking young fellow then, so the old ladies say, and he is a fine-looking old gentleman now. For the past score of years he has been a firm believer in the merits of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. "It renewed my youth," he frequently says. It is the only bloodpurifier and liver invigorator guaranteed to benefit or cure, or money promptly refunded. It cures liver disease, dyspepsia, scrofulous sores, skin eruptions, and all diseases of the blood. For lingering coughs and consumption (which is lung-scrofula in its early stages) it is an unparalleled remedy.

A STRONG SUPPORT.

Furniture that is not pleasing to the eye is fit for nothing but a barn. Elegance is one thing and strength is another, but there is not the least reason in the world why the two should not go together in furniture. To say that a thing is cheap does not necessarily make it cheap. To say that our furniture is cheap scarcely does it justice. Take our $26.50 Bedroom Outfit as an illustration, which is about one third less than you would have to pay for the same articles elsewhere. An equally forcible illustration of cheapness is our $40 Plush Parlor Suite.
