and interest, for the benefit of Harry; so that a week, and not unfrequently a fortnight, elapses before the real and bona fide contractor can be culled out from among these men of straw. Bonds and agreements are successively drawn up and destroyed; and the Commissioners from day to day tormented with the palaver of some scores of individuals not one sixth of whom have the smallest intention of becoming Contractors at all. It is evident therefore that to prevent all this hurly-burly, annoyance and interruption, some specific clause should be introduced. It has been suggested that if it were made imperative that the signatures of responsible Bondsmen should be attached to the Tenders, as well as the signatures of the persons offering for the work, it would put an effectual stop to the system complained of, and as far as I can discover I think it would.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

LOOK SHARP.Harbor Grace,

THE following detail of a Scheme of a LOTTERY to be drawn in December next, warrants us in declaring it to be unparalleled in the history of Lotteries. Prizes to the amount have never before been offered to the public. It is true, there are many blanks, but on the other hand, the extremely low charge of 20 Dollars per Ticket—the value and number of the Capitals, and the revival of the good old custom of warranting that every Prize shall be drawn and sold, will, we are sure, give universal satisfaction, and especially to the Six Hundred Prize Holders.

To those disposed to adventure we recommend early application being, made to us for Tickets—where the Prizes are all sold, blanks only remain—the first buyers have the best chance—We therefore, emphatically say—delay not! but at once remit and transmit to us your orders, which shall always receive our immediate attention. Letters to be addressed, and application made to
