Arrangements Being Made by Tourist

The members of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association are due to arrive in Victoria by the Princess Victoria on Monday afternoon. With them will be principals and representatives of the largest industrial firms in the Dominion. Among the many organizations which have visited the capital city not one is so influential or has a live interest of such importance as that over which Harry Cockshutt presides, and every loyal Victorian will feel it to be his duty to make the occasion one of the greatest possible in-James Lawson, jr., the energetic secretary of the reception committee of the Victoria Development and Tourist Association, will meet the visitors in Vancouver. On arrival at Victoria a deputation of the various committees of the society will be on hand at the wharf to offer a hearty greeting. By the forethought of Mr. Lawson arrangements have been made for all the public illuminations, including the splendid decorations of the parliament buildings, to be lighted up on Monday evening, when a public reception will be held at the buildings from nine until eleven o'clock. The details of the reception are in the hands of an influential ladies' committee consisting of Mrs. Chas. Rhodes, Mrs. H. Kent, Mrs Burton, Mrs. and Miss Savory, Mrs. Dr. Robertson, Mrs. Chas. Spratt, Mrs. Stuart Robertson, Mrs. T. W. Powell, Mrs. J. W. Church, Mrs. Newman, Mrs.
