

JONES WAS INDISCREET

In Introducing His Amendment in the Home Parliament on the Venezuelan Question.

And the House Was Very Nearly Committing Itself to the Indiscretion

But for the Fortunate Intervention of Mr. Balfour—To-Day's Press Opinions.

The Crisis in French Political Circles Shows no Signs of Abating.

London, Feb. 18.—The arbitration debate in the house of commons yesterday, and the proposal of the Times correspondent in the United States, Mr. G. Jones, that Great Britain should appoint a commission of its own, consisting of four members, which should work in conjunction with two American as a Venezuela boundary commission, not to fix the boundary, but to ascertain the facts and report to the arbitration board, are the leading subjects for editorial comment this afternoon, especially Mr. Snialley's proposal for a joint commission, which is supposed to have emanated from the cabinet at Washington.

The Pall Mall Gazette says: "Mr. Althery Jones' amendment, deploring the absence of a pronouncement in the Queen's speech in favor of arbitrating the Venezuelan dispute) could not do any good and might do a great deal of harm. Mr. Jones is old enough to know that the intervention of a commission in matters under diplomatic treatment must be intolerable. An amendment implying censure of the government would undoubtedly have been negatived by a large majority; would thus have defeated its own ends and conveyed to the United States entirely fallacious impression of hostility. This, on the morning of the appearance of the new proposals, is a suggestion of Mr. Snialley, might have been a very serious calamity. The house saw it had been on the verge of an indiscretion and wisely began to talk about something else."

The Westminster Gazette announces that it entirely sympathizes with the intervention of Mr. Jones' amendment, adding, however: "But, it is clearly desirable, after Mr. Balfour's appeal and Sir William Harcourt's speech, that it should not be persevered in. Its certain rejection would have been interesting in America, as demonstrating that the house of commons did not favor arbitration. This would have been a thousand pities, with the delicate negotiations at present proceeding and when every hope that a modus vivendi will be found."

The St. James' Gazette agrees that Mr. Balfour's intervention in the debate yesterday, in order to end it, was justifiable, and adds: "But Sir William Harcourt's utterances on the subject of arbitration goes a great deal further than is justified by the feeling here. The Chronicle and Sir Harcourt most mischievously declare that the country is unanimous for arbitration, without specifying what arbitration. Nothing, but harm can come of this justification. The Globe says that it is not surprised to learn that the scheme commends itself to President Cleveland and his cabinet, continuing: "They have taken an untenable ground and virtually ask our assistance to enable them to retire gracefully. It is often good policy to build a golden bridge for our adversaries, but it must not be too costly, and the cost in the present instance is too great. It has the fatal effect that it places the interests of British subjects and the territory claimed by Venezuela absolutely in the hands of an unknown foreigner. This sacrifice of the interests of our subjects to the corresponding interest at stake as an equivalent, and we cannot consent to leave the position and property of forty thousand British subjects at the mercy of a Swiss, Belgian or Scandinavian arbitrator."

The members of the Irish Parliament party held another sitting in the house of commons to-day for the purpose of electing a new chairman in succession to Justice McCarthy. Among those present were Messrs. McCarthy, Healy and Dillon. The latter was elected chairman by a vote of 87 to 21.

Paris, Feb. 18.—The political crisis continues. The friends of the government say the moderates desire a settlement of the dispute, and the Radical deputies will not raise a debate on the subject when the chamber meets to-day; but it is added that the moderates will do so, and the members of the extreme left intend to stamp the country protesting against the attitude of the senate.

London, Feb. 18.—The Paris correspondence of the Pall Mall Gazette telegraphs that the political situation in France is daily growing more serious. It adds: "Those best informed consider the cabinet has a card up its sleeve which will cause considerable surprise. It is certain that the ministry means to stop where it is and there is a possibility of a coup d'etat. The government may declare its intention to govern without a senate. A prominent statesman tells me the principal obstacle is General Sausier, governor of Paris and generalissimo in case of war. Sausier is old, opposed to change and prepared to march against the revolutionary movement with the utmost vigor. A few days ago he said to one of the moderate ministers in power: "Keep me as long as you possibly can; you will need me, and one regiment will be master of the Parisian populace." Henry Rochefort remarked to me yesterday: "Seven years ago two lines in the Intransigent, Rochefort's newspaper, headed 'Down with the senate,' would have sufficed for 200,000 men immediately to march upon Luxembourg." A radical leader said today: "If the pretender is willing to risk his life, he would now have a chance of winning the game." The radicals profess that they regard the situation as revolutionary, and consider that this is an echo of the great revolution. The latest information is that the senate hopes on Friday to pass a vote of censure against the government by even a more crushing majority than on Saturday.

M. Bourgeois, the premier, has informed a member of the left that the government does not desire to again raise the question of confidence in the chamber of deputies Thursday next, preferring to wait further action upon the part of the senate.

J. A. STRATHY SHOT

Barrie's Popular Banker Murdered in Cold Blood by a Farm Laborer.

Murderer Walked Coolly to Police Station and Surrendered Himself.

Barrie, Ont., Feb. 18.—J. A. Strathy, manager of the Bank of Commerce in this town for the last fifteen years, was this morning fatally shot by an unknown man, who called at his house, and upon Mr. Strathy's appearance drew a revolver and shot him. Mr. Strathy was one of the most popular bankers in the province, and no effort will be spared to capture the murderer.

Later, from authentic sources it is learned that Mr. J. A. Strathy met his death at the hands of Michael Brennan, a farm laborer. Brennan came to the residence and requested to see Mr. Strathy. Upon his appearance in the parlor, Brennan, without a moment's warning, drew a revolver and fired. The report alarmed the household, and, though medical aid was summoned at once, Mr. Strathy lived only half an hour. The murderer walked coolly down the street and gave himself up to the police. Asked as to what his motive was, he said: "It was me who did it." He was taken into custody, but to surrender the weapon, which was a 44-calibre British bull dog.

DEATH CAME UNEXPECTEDLY.

Mr. Whitaker, of Cleveland, Had no Time to Think To-day.

Cleveland, Feb. 18.—A shocking accident occurred at Bedford, a suburb of this city this morning. Mr. Alfred Whitaker, and his two stepsons, Dana and Don Cannon, were driving in the village, when the Cleveland, Canton & Southern fast mail struck the cutter, throwing Mr. Whitaker a distance of fifty feet, killing him instantly, and seriously injuring the driver, John Rich. The driver failed to stop the rapidly approaching train. The engine struck the cutter with terrible force. Mr. Whitaker was hurled against the fence, his brains dashed out and almost every bone in his body broken. Mr. Whitaker was the proprietor and manager of the Brooks Oil Company of this city.

AN IMPORTANT MINING DEAL.

A Three Million Dollar Transaction Floated in New York.

Deadwood, S. D., Feb. 18.—The biggest deal in mining property in the history of the Black Hills has just been concluded. For several months past a New York syndicate had a bond on a large block of producing mines here, and after paying Messrs. Haug and Daggert $3000 to inspect it, were satisfied with the property, but could not raise the amount of the bond, which was $3,000,000. A compromise has been made whereby New York parties have paid $1,000,000 for one-third of the capital and have projected a stock company.

London, Feb. 18.—Andrew Boyd, of Montreal, was charged at the Bow street police court this morning with having committed forgery and arson in Canada, and was remanded pending the arrival of a Canadian police officer with the documents necessary to bring about extradition.

SIR CHARLES IS BETTER.

And Will at Once Assume the Government Leadership in the Commons.

Mr. Davin Pleads for Fully Responsible Local Government in the Northwest.

The Government Will Ask for Three Millions of Dollars for Defences.

A Great Conservative Pow-Wow to Be Held at Winnipeg Very Shortly.

St. Louis, of Curran Bridge Fame, Gets Judgment Against the Government.

Ottawa, Feb. 18.—Sir Charles Tupper is expected to be in the house this afternoon. He was able to be out today but is still very weak.

(Press Dispatch.)—Mr. Davin's motion to the effect that the time had come when the Northwest Territories should be treated on a different footing than heretofore, came up for discussion in the commons yesterday, when he spoke for over an hour. He said the whole future of Canada depended upon the development of the Northwest, and that region should be made attractive to settlers by furnishing the fullest possible facilities for reaching markets, by systems of irrigation and by granting full functions of local government. He said the present attitude of administration of the affairs of the Territories was not so effective as it would be by a responsible ministry. The old cry that the East had bought and opened up the country, no longer held good. Canada owed more to the Northwest than the Northwest owed to Canada. The money spent in the west had been paid back with interest of 50 per cent. He advocated the purchase of the C. P. R. lands at 25 per cent. above the market value of the same, so that settlement could be more compact.

Hon. Mr. Davin moved the adjournment of the debate. The Nelson & Fort Sheppard Railway bill permitting the company to do a commercial telegraphic business passed its third reading.

The sum which the Dominion government will ask for the purposes of national defence will be $3,000,000. The new rifle with which the militia will be provided will be the Lee-Enfield, a combination of the Enfield barrel and the Lee magazine. The total number of rifles to be purchased is 40,000. For garrison defence, the imperial authorities will supply thirty-one rifled guns, charging Canada the bare cost of manufacture. They are alloted as follows: St. Johns and Three Rivers, Que., two each; Ottawa and Quebec, three each; Toronto, eight; Montreal, eight; Hamilton, five. These guns will be of heavy calibre and will be worked by garrison batteries of the militia. Artillery will be sent out to drill the men, who will be recruited from the various city field batteries. The field artillery will be supplied with the new breech-loading guns of the same type as those used by the British artillery.

In the case of St. Louis vs. the Queen in the Supreme court this afternoon, judgment was unanimously given in favor of St. Louis.

The case, it will be remembered, arose out of the Curran Bridge. St. Louis took action in the Exchequer court for $63,000 for the unpaid amount of his claim. The Exchequer court decided against him. To-day the Supreme court gave judgment unanimously in his favor for the amount, $63,000, except an item of $1,800. Mr. Emsard, partner of Hon. Mr. Oulmet, was St. Louis' lawyer, and O'Connor & Hogg, for the Crown.

Chicago, Feb. 18.—A dispatch from Winnipeg, Man., says: In the face of the remedial bill just introduced at Ottawa, to restore Roman Catholic separate schools in this province, the Dominion government, under Sir Charles Tupper, will make a big effort to retain the support of Manitoba's members in the Dominion house. It has been arranged to hold a big Conservative convention here within a fortnight, and Sir Charles Tupper wires that he will attend and fully explain the government's position on the school question. Sir Donald A. Smith, the millionaire of Montreal, who laid the foundation of his fortune in Manitoba and has large interests here, will be invited to be the candidate for Winnipeg. Sir Donald will arrive here during the day. Premier Greenway and his government decline to take action on the school question until they officially receive a copy of the remedial bill. Then they will no doubt give notice of vigorous resistance.

COREY HAS ANOTHER CHANCE.

Convicted Murderer in New York Gets a New Trial.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 18.—The court of appeals to-day ordered a new trial to be granted to Michael Corey, sentenced to be electrocuted at Auburn prison for the murder of James George, a half-breed Indian, on September 27th, 1894. The conviction was reversed and the new trial granted on the grounds that testimony was admitted that should not have been.

MISS BARTON BEGINS WORK.

Distributing Relief in Armenia—Serious Charge Against a Missionary.

Constantinople, Feb. 18.—Miss Clara Barton, president of the American Red Cross society, has arrived here, and is organizing a system for the distribution of relief to the suffering Armenians. It has been decided that Rev. Geo. P. Knapp, American missionary of Bitlis, accompanied by his family, is to come to this city in order to be examined by U. S. Minister Terrell in regard to the charge of sedition brought against him by the authorities of that place.

A MYSTERIOUS MURDER.

Brutal Killing of a Defenseless and Innocent Young Girl.

Sheldon, Iowa, Feb. 18.—This part of the state is in a fever of excitement over developments which led fair to unravel the mystery surrounding the death of Maud Strawn, a pretty 18 year old school girl, whose lifeless body was found in her room at her married sister's home here on Saturday. It was supposed that the girl had been dead three or four days when found, as decomposition had set in. The girl had not been seen since Wednesday forenoon. It was at first thought to be a case of suicide, but later developments entirely exploded that theory. A. L. Bell and G. Morello were seen to have entered the house on Wednesday, the day Miss Strawn is supposed to have met her death.

EVENTS IN ALBERNI.

Settlers Preparing for Spring—Progress in the Mines.

(From our own correspondent.) Nootka, Feb. 17.—The steamer Maude arrived on Saturday after a rough passage from Victoria. It is reported that during the winter months one at least did not spend his time sleeping, for he contemplates joining the benedictines in the near future.

Our man of letters was unable to capture that wild boar and has turned his attention to other hunting. Time will tell whether he will be successful or not. Work is progressing favorably at the mines and a large number of men are employed on the hydraulic claims which are expected to have ready for sluicing in May.

A contract has been let for the erection of a new hotel on the old mill site which will be the nucleus of a new town. A new road to the mines is to be the hotel. This road will be much shorter than the present one.

GRAIN INSPECTION.

Eastern Dealers and the Proposed Board Changes.

Ottawa, Feb. 19.—The budget debate was continued yesterday, when Mr. Davin concluded his speech, and was followed by Messrs. Bain and Henderson. The house adjourned at midnight until Thursday, to-day being Ash Wednesday. The finance minister stated that the supplementary estimates would probably be brought down next week. Representatives from the Montreal and Toronto boards of trade had an interview with Hon. Col. Prior yesterday regarding the proposed amendments to the grain inspection act. They protested against the alleged intention of the government to favor eastern buyers and millers representation on the board in future. Their claim to such representation was supported by an argument that seems to be popular, viz.: That the east had opened up and developed the Northwest, and, therefore, had a direct concern in everything pertaining to that country. This was the only claim they seemed able to advance. The Northwest members will submit a written statement setting forth their request, together with the reasons therefor, with regard to standards. Col. Prior promised that before the department took any action, all parties concerned would receive notification. He said there was no authority for the statement that the eastern dealers were to be no longer represented on the standards board, but did not deny that the proposed changes would be of a more radical nature than at first contemplated. Major Bell did not at first agree with Western members, but is now co-operating with them.

BRANDED AS BACON, ETC.

McGarvey Beached and Burned His Boat, and so Fooled the Spaniards.

The Cubans, He Says, Have the Spaniards Whipped and at Their Mercy.

Digging All Night to Rescue a Band of Entombed Miners at New-castle, Colo.

Sub-Committee on the Formation of Greater New York Ready to Report.

Houston, Tex., Feb. 10.—Captain McGarvey, a Texas veteran, has just returned from Cuba. On October 10th last he was left Key West for Cuba in charge of the Viesta, with a crew of eight men, loaded with arms and ammunition branded as lard, bacon, etc. He was instructed to turn the cargo over to any insurgent commander. Reaching the Cuban coast he was chased by a Spanish man-of-war, and compelled to beach his boat, which he did, and then burned it in order to keep the Spaniards from getting it. He and the crew struck out from their landing place near Matanzas for the interior and joined the insurgents. Captain McGarvey says the Cubans have at least 45,000 men under arms. They are supplied with guns and ammunition and also receive supplies of money regularly from the United States. He remained with the troops until a fortnight ago, and says he traversed nearly the whole western portion of the island. The Cubans, the captain says, have the Spaniards completely whipped and at their mercy. He cannot understand why they don't take Havana and so bring hostilities to a close.

Albany, Feb. 19.—The reports of the sub-committee of Greater New York are almost ready for presentation to the committee. Senator Lexow worked all the morning on the majority report, while Senator Brush completed to-day the report of the minority. The majority report, after reciting the facts in the case, says the majority construes them, will declare in favor of the passage of the Greene Greater New York commission bill. The commission will be authorized to begin at once the creation of a charter for the cities of New York and Brooklyn, and are to raise $25,000 for expenses. The Greater New York commission is not enlarged, as was anticipated by the addition of the mayors of New York and Brooklyn. All the Republicans but Dr. Brush will sign the majority report. The Democrats are not as yet decided as to signing either of them.

Newcastle, Col., Feb. 10.—All night a throng of weeping women and children stood about the mouth of the Vulcan shaft, while a band of rescuers were working earnestly and systematically in the hope of soon being able to reach 60 or 70 entombed miners, all of whom, it is conceded, must now be dead. The rescuers succeeded in entering the shaft about 200 feet, but were driven out by the black damp and gas. John Evans, who went 300 feet down the main slope, reported the timbers in good shape. The mine is only wrecked at the mouth of the slope, where the gas had an opportunity to expand. The work of putting a new fan in place, so as to supply fresh air, and make it possible for the rescuers to enter the mine to the levels where the men were working when the explosion occurred, was prosecuted throughout the night with all possible speed, and the fan was in operation early this morning.

Opinions differ as to the cause of the explosion. Some say it was caused by a windy shot, others believe that it was an explosion of coal dust, and others believe the company has been negligent in not having the rooms sprinkled as often as the law required. It is impossible yet to give a full and accurate list of the killed, as the list of those on duty at the time of the explosion is supposed to be in the pocket of James Harrison, the pit boss, who lies at the bottom of the slope, probably dead.

JACKSON WAS AN AGENT.

He Murdered Pearl Bryan to Accommodate a Friend, Says Miss Smith.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Feb. 19.—Two morning papers to-day publish a startling statement, made by Miss May Smith, of Louisville, who is acquainted with the accused murderers of Pearl Bryan, Walling and Jackson. She says she was in Cincinnati January 14th, and took supper with Jackson at Heiderer's restaurant. Jackson told her his friend, Will Wood, at Greencastle, Ind., had got a girl into a bad condition, and would send her and put her out of the way. Miss Smith says she cautioned Jackson against the danger of the discovery of such an enterprise, but he said he was too smart to be discovered. She said that after the murder, February 1st, Jackson wrote her saying he had disposed of the girl, meaning Pearl Bryan, by "L—" a long dash in the letter being left for Miss Smith to fill in from her memory of the conversation at Heiderer's.

DISGRACED CIVILIZATION.

Inhuman and Brutal Treatment of Young Men in a Florida Jail.

Ocala, Fla., Feb. 19.—After 10 days' torture at a convict camp, whether they had been sent as tramps, eleven young men have been released on writs of habeas corpus, issued by Circuit Judge Hickey. The young men, who, two weeks ago reached Ocala, were well dressed. They said they were walking so as to see the country better, and hunt and fish as well. They had a lot of novelties for sale, and did not ask for habeas corpus, issued by Circuit Judge Hickey. The young men, who, two weeks ago reached Ocala, were well dressed.
