He Has Won Two Sets Against One Taken by English Player

Newport, R. I., Aug. 27 .- One of the rgest crowds that ever witnessed a tennis match gathered about the championship court at the Casino to-day to see W. A. Larned, of Summit, N. J. defend his title of American champion gainst the English challenger, R. F. Doherty. The comparative ease with which Doherty defeated Whitman in the finals yesterday caused much anxiety for the safety of the title.

Doherty won the first set, 64; Larned won the second set, 6-2, and also the third set, 6-4. The score is two to one in favor of the American. The English man seemed badly heated and winded.
