The basket social and dance which had been so anxiously looked forward to came off last night in Oddfellows' hall and was very largely attended, and was in every respect a most pleasing event, and was kept up with much enjoyment until midnight. The pleasure of the occasion was greatly enhanced by the presence of the fine minstrels who had been doing Sussex during the day, and who furnished most excellent music. To Jas. Lamb, E. J. Sharp and E. A. Casey, the committee, and Mrs. Lamb and Mrs. Hatlett, as chaperones, much praise is due for their excellent management of the very pleasant evening entertainment.

The following is taken from the Nanaimo Free Press of Aug. 17th: The 37th drawing of the Nanaimo Building Society, which took place in the Y. M. C. A. last evening was attended with more than usual interest, for in accordance with a unanimous vote of the directors, a presentation was made to Bedford H. Smith, collector of customs, treasurer of the society. Dr. R. E. McKeechie, president, occupied the chair, and in felicitous terms expressed the society's thorough appreciation of Bedford H. Smith's faithful services in the capacity of honorary treasurer during the past five years. In presenting Mr. Smith with a gold watch, the society did not consider that it was liquidating in full its indebtedness to the recipient, but trusted that he would accept the gift as a token of the esteem in which he was held by every member of the institution. Mr. Smith, in acknowledging the present, said such an action on the part of the society was a great surprise to him. He had seen in the Free Press that business of importance was to be transacted, but had no idea of its nature. Referring to his past services, Mr. Smith said that he had ever had the best interests of the society at heart. He was the first president, and during the past five years that he had been treasurer he had ever striven to fulfill his duties satisfactorily to all concerned. The handsome watch that he had just received would remain among his most treasured possessions. (Applause.) The watch is of hand-crafted design and bears the following inscription: Presented to Bedford H. Smith by the Nanaimo Building Society, Aug. 19th, 1895.

(Bedford H. Smith is a native of Blissville, Sunbury county. He went to British Columbia some eighteen years ago.)

Moncton, Sept. 6.—Christian Colpitts, an aged well-to-do farmer, belonging to Dover, in Moncton parish, came to town on an early train this morning, and as he was unable to reach his home where he was expected, he had to get a room. This morning about 9 o'clock one of the servants on duty entered his room found the door locked, and noticing a strong smell of gas the door was broken open and Mr. Colpitts discovered in an unconscious state. The room was filled with gas, and it is evident that the occupant had either blown it out on retiring, or interfered with the burner in some way after turning it off. Medical aid was summoned. Colpitts was so unconscious at a late hour tonight but the doctors have some hopes of his ultimate recovery. But for his powerful lungs and heart they say Mr. Colpitts must have been dead when discovered, as he had been breathing gas for fully nine hours in a close room. When found he was in a kneeling attitude beside the bed, indicating that he had made an effort to escape.

YORK CO.

Fredericton, Feb. 6.—The report that A. G. Beckwith, engineer of the board of works department, has been summarily dismissed by the local government is not strictly correct. Mr. Beckwith has received a request from the government to hand in his resignation, to take effect at the end of the fiscal year, October 31st. He has not complied with the request, and it is said, does not intend to do so. No charge has been preferred against Mr. Beckwith and no reason given him for the request for his resignation. He has served the department efficiently for nearly twenty-five years. It is understood that Wm. Harrison, C. E., formerly of the C. P. R. staff, and who has been working at the board of works for some time, is to succeed Mr. Beckwith. Mr. Harrison is a son of Wm. Harrison of Sheffield, and a nephew of Chancellor Harrison of the university, and a very capable young man.

The tower of St. Paul's church still engenders much controversy among trustees. The stone work threatens to fall, and the question is, How can it be repaired? It was first examined by J. C. Dumaresq, the original architect, who submitted a plan for repairs. This was satisfactory to some, but not to others. Some of the trustees also differed from Mr. Dumaresq. Then the foreman of M. Hogan, who was at work here on the railway bridge, made an examination and gave his opinion. Next came Mr. Palmer, and then Mr. Mott of St. John, and they differed with each other. Still the trustees were undecided, and R. C. John Dunn and Charles Tilley of St. John have been here this week and made another examination. They made a report, and now the trustees are waiting to hear the opinion of W. W. Mott, inspector of buildings of St. John, before they finally decide what plan to adopt.

Attached to this watch was a gold chain and gold charm emblematic of a horse's head, and intailed "F. C. B." There was also a small silver watch, a large gold ring, a small amethyst ring, and several gold necktie pins. The largest and most valuable of these, L. L. C. across the top large raised letters, while inside next the finger is the word "Mother" and the year "1895." In one of the gold necktie pins there is a moonstone surmounted by a glittering stone resembling a diamond.

Jordan, Alex. Burchill and Dr. J. W. Bridges of Fredericton lodge and escorted to the Foresters' hall, which was placed at the disposal of the visitors during the day. The Houlton band was with the party and played some good music during the day.

Two moves were made in the celebrated Consolidated Electric Light decree here today. The first was before T. Carleton Allen, clerk in equity for settlement of the minutes of decree. Messrs. Blair, Pugsley, Palmer, G. C. Coster and L. P. D. Tilley appeared for their respective clients. All these solicitors claimed to agree that the minutes were mistaken respecting the funds out of which Dr. Pugsley's and A. C. Smith & Co.'s liens were directed to be paid; that they should come out of the separate fund of the St. John Street railway and not out of the Consolidated Electric funds. In consequence of this mistake the minutes were not finally settled. The second move was made before Judge Vanwart, when Hon. Mr. Blair presented the petition of John T. Donovan, president of the Lowell Trust Co., and George W. Field, president of the Appleton National Bank, holders of the Consolidated Electric bonds, praying that the court should authorize Mr. Blair to distribute the money drawn by him from the receiver general several months ago, amongst several parties entitled thereto; that Mr. Blair should be allowed $3,000 for his own services as solicitor and counsel in the case, the petitioners stating that they consider Judge Hanington's allowance of $1,400 altogether inadequate; that Nathan D. Pratt, who brought suit in behalf of himself and other bondholders, should be allowed out of the general fund $1,200 for expenses incurred in connection therewith; that such sum as the court considered sufficient should be reserved to defray the costs of Mr. Pugsley, who had taken steps to appeal from Judge Hanington's decision allowing him $1,400, and who claimed $5,000; and that $400 be directed to be paid to Urquhart, who brought suit against the Electric Light Co., but failed to get judgment and was now appealing. Donovan holds bonds to the amount of $17,500, and Fifield $74,500. Mr. Blair read petitions of the American Loan and Trust Co. holders of $184,000 of bonds; John T. Willett, $33,500; Press National Bank, $5,000; Wm. Pugsley, $1,000; W. Watson Allen, $3,000; Carl Schmidt, $1,000; Joseph F. Merritt, $2,000; C. F. Hobbs, $500; Clement P. Clark, $500; and Geo. W. Jones, $3,500, concurring in the requests of Donovan and the other petitioners representing in all $339,000 out of the total issue of $450,000.

Mr. Pugsley was present representing his client, Mr. Smith, and L. P. D. Tilley appeared for the Imperial Trust Co., C. A. Palmer for T. McAvity & Co., and G. C. Coster for other bond holders.

Mr. Blair said that notwithstanding so large a proportion of the bondholders desired the funds to be distributed by him he did not feel that he should accept the trust and personally would prefer that the Imperial Trust Co. should disburse the money.

Mr. Palmer strongly opposed Mr. Blair's application, claiming that no order should be made until the decree was finally settled. He claimed there was no more reason why Mr. Pugsley should have had five thousand dollars reserved to meet his costs than he (Palmer) had to have two or three thousand reserved to meet his, for he was as much dissatisfied with Judge Hanington's allowance of $1,000 to him as Mr. Pugsley was with his allowance of $1,400, and he (Palmer) proposed to appeal the same as Mr. Pugsley was doing.

Judge Vanwart said he did not think he could order the payment of $1,200 to Mr. Pratt out of the general fund, nor $400 for the settlement of the Urquhart claim unless every bondholder consented. He suggested that Messrs. Pratt and Urquhart should be paid and that the allowance of the counsel were not adequate, there was nothing to prevent them from paying what they liked out of their own proportion of the fund, but his honor did not consent. He suggested that the other bondholders should be asked to bear any proportion of these payments; furthermore, he did not think he should make any order until the decree was finally settled. He would not dismiss the application now, but would adjourn the hearing until such time as the mistake in the minutes of the decree could be rectified and decree finally settled.

Some time ago an unregistered letter, mailed at Cross Creek, to the Bank of Nova Scotia, failed to reach the bank. An investigation was held and the postal authorities concluded the conclusion it must have reached here. Now it is ascertained that two other valuable unregistered letters, mailed at Montreal and St. John on Saturday for the Bank of British North America, have not arrived. The letter from St. John is said to have contained about $4,000 in coupons and bonds payable to bearer. These are all numbered and payment of them has been stopped. For some time it has been known here that the post office letter boxes are in a deplorable condition. Complaints have frequently been made to the department at Ottawa, but as yet the old boxes remain and are getting worse all the time. The conclusion of the post office officials is that these letters must have been taken from the boxes by some sneak thief.

The mail arriving here Saturday night for the bank was not taken out until Tuesday morning, Monday being a holiday. A number of box holders have notified the postmaster not to put any more mail matter in boxes, but to deliver it at the general delivery.

COUNTRY MARKET.

There is no important change to note in the price of meats, butter or poultry. Some vegetables are cheaper. The vegetable crops are apparently very large this season all over the province. With regard to the butter market, the general opinion is that the supply of choice butter will not be nearly as large as a year ago and therefore the price should hold up better.

Prices are unchanged. It is to be noted that cream of tartar has advanced to 80s in the primary market, an advance of about 20s within a few months; the outlook is said to favor a further advance. Regarding sugar the New York Journal of Commerce of Sept 5th has this to say: Sugars—Importers are fully entitled to the advantage they have secured through stubbornly resisting attempts to break down line of value, and finally forcing buyers to come up a peg or two with their bids before they could get even the small old lots within reach. It revives in a measure the old bullish feeling, and with refined again higher and big meltings ahead it is not believed that even with what they are taking from store or expect to arrive refiners can get along without remaining upon the market as buyers. It is rumored the Trust bought freely of beet yesterday in Europe. They have also been quite well inclined to talk business here today, and after a little preliminary skimming dipped in freely and took about all the stock holders were willing to let them have.
