

Right Clothes.

You know how it is; there's a lot of comfort in knowing your clothes are right, and bein; sure of it.

You can't always be studying fashion plates, you might not know if you did. But you can be sure of clothes correctness, just the same.

If you come to us we'll fit you in a 20th Century fine tailored Suit or Overcoat; and every time you see that little label-small thing to look for, big thing to find-you'll be sure you're right. It's the easiest and surest way of being sure.

Overcoats and Suits, $10 to $22,50. Dress Suits, silk lined, $25. Trousers, $3 to $6.

A. GILMOUR, Fine Tailoring and Clothing, 68 KING STREET. Liberal-Conservative Gandidates in New Brunswick.

The executive committee of the St. John Christian Endeavor Union met in the Y. M. C. A. parlors last evening to make definite arrangements for the adjourned annual meeting to be held in December. An unusually large number of representatives were present. The officers for the year were-nomin- ated and a committee appointed to ar- range for the annual, meeting and also to draw up a schedule for the visita- tions to be made by each society dur- ing the winter months. On the suggestion of the secretary of the United Society of Christian En- deavor, who recently visited this city, a P/stors' Advisory Board in connec- tion with the union" was appointed as follows: Rev. C. W. Hamilton, Rev. Mr. [~loyd, Rev. G. O. Gates, D. D., and Rev. C. F. Fotheringham, D. D. An in- vitation will be extended to this board to be present at all meetings of the union. Before adjourning, a vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Ferguson of Rex- ton, who so kindly donated a postal note to cover the financial deficiency of the union. SEAMEN'S MISSION. Last evening a meeting of the ladies' auriliary and the board of managers of the Seamen's Mission was held in Chipman Hall. A despatch was re- ceived by the president a few days ago saying that the minister of marine and fisherles had sanctioned the granting of $200 to the society to be used in their work. BOY KILLED. At Back Bay yesterday morning, Iv- ory Cook, twelve years old, met instant death by the discharge of a gun in his own hands. Cook and two other lads were preparing to shoot gulls from be- hind blinds. Cook was making ready behind his blind to shoot when the hammer of his gun was accidentally snapped, discharging the gun's con- tents into his neck. Dr. Taylor, of St. George, was hastily sent for, but the boy was past medical assistance. A GOOD CONCERT. Miss Adelaide Barrett Jump, the tal- ented elocutionist, gave a delightful recital last evening at the Main Street Baptist church. Miss Jump was as- sisted by local talent and the pro- programme was a most enjoyable one. All of Miss Jump's numbers were heartily enoored.
