Happy New Year

Old Year, farewell! 1906 will see its last day today. It's sands are full run. It has slipped into the vista s of the past, bearing with it our joys, hopes and fears, pleasures and profit, loss and gain—burying them all in the sepulchre of Time. Farewell, Old Year, Farewell. But—Hark!

"Ring out the old, Ring in the new-Ring out the false, ring in the true."

And so we say to our many, many friends

A Happy, Happy New Year

And here's hoping, 1907 may have naught but happiness in store for you.

mencing Today.

CINCINNATI, O., Dec, 30—At least thirty persons were injured, one of whom, Daniel Kernan, a passenger, has since died, in the wreck today of a runaway electric car on Warsaw Avenue Hill.

The motorman discovered at the top of the hill that he had lost control of the car and tried to use the emergency brakes, but they failed. The car ran away for five blocks, struck a telegraph pole and turned over. The passengers were thrown out Hiram Leister, a passenger, by operating the brake on the rear platform, reduced the speed of the car materially before it left the track. Several of the injured may die, including the conductor.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Dec, 30—Belleving his wife, whom he shot three times, was dead, Robert Ford, forty years old, of Homestead, a suburb of this city, fired a bullet into his own brain tonight, dying instantly. His wife was not fatally injured. Ford who was extremely jealous, accused his wife of infidelity at their home tonight and shot her.

MILFORD, Mass., Dec. 30—Three firemen were injured today, one seriously, as the result of the burning of a business block owned by Enrico.

SPARTANBURG, S. C., Dec. 30—The sheriff's posse which went to Mount Zion, the block telegraph station on the Southern Railway, six miles from here, in response to the appeal for help sent out by Operator Porter, at that station, returned to Spartanburg today and members of the party expressed the opinion that no negroes had attacked the station. Porter declared that the shots were fired into the block tower and that at the time he sent the message he was penned up sent the message he was penned up in the station by a mob of drunken negroes. Members of the sheriff's party attributed the excitement to fright of H. L. FRANCIS, 170 King street.

GET HOSPITAL TREATMENT

BOSTON, Dec. 29.—The authorities in Winthrop and Revere in which town a mad dog bit a number of people last Wednesday, will send six of the victims to the State Hospital at Tewkersbury tomorrow for special treatment. The action followed the dog's brain which confirmed the suspicion that the animal was suffering from rables. As yet none of the boys who were bitten have shown signs of being innoculated with hydrophobia.
