

THE GRANITE TOWN GREETINGS

To Evangelize Entire World

The Greater New York convention of the national campaign of the Laymen's Missionary Movement was closed with a men's meeting at the Hippodrome. More than 5,000 men, representing various Protestant denominations, pledged themselves to aid in evangelizing the world in this generation.

William Jay Sheffield, chairman of the local co-operating committee of the movement, introduced the speakers. He said the evangelizing of the world does not mean the conversion of anyone, but that every being should have the opportunity to become a Christian.

George Sherwood Eddy, a Yale graduate, who has spent thirteen years in India as a missionary at his own expense, spoke on "Missions as an investment."

"In an ideal investment we seek good security and large returns," he said. "In these two respects missions present a gilt-edged security. Nothing is so sure and nothing yields larger returns."

"Years ago a young Japanese named Neesima landed in Japan. Joseph Hardy sent him to China. Our trade with that country totals nearly $50,000,000 and is rapidly growing."

"A hundred years ago we sent the first missionaries to China. Our trade with that country totals nearly $50,000,000 and is rapidly growing."

"Missions are a paying proposition. Where can we find an investment that will yield a hundred fold in this life and in the world to come eternal life?"

BY THE WAY

Most people like a little patting on the back. No one is so wise but has a little folly to spare. Two social events took place last week. Keep the good times up.

After a lull comes a storm. Lookout for February--the worst is yet to come. LOST STOLEN OR STRAYED Large-sized water wagon. Last seen Jan. 3, going rapidly south--Boston Way.

A woman can throw more out of the Back Door with a teaspoon than a Man can put in at the Front Door with a shovel. Spirochortosis is a new disease. When microchortis attacks a hen dealer, he will lie about a chicken and pawn off an old rooster on a buyer.

Already a number of subscribers have called on us and given the new management the "glad hand." This is both pleasant and encouraging. Come in and see us. "Yes," said Mr. Jones, "it's funny enough to make a donkey laugh, I laughed till I cried." And he did laugh until he saw the smile on the circle of faces around him and then he went away mad.

If the business and industrial side of St. George was as prominent as the social side during the past week what a hustling town we would have. Never mind, all things point to a prosperous year. Let us hope so. Now that we have the rink where are the hockey players? A good hockey match with an outside team listens well. Let us get together and find a team. There is good material among the boys, if a few local matches could be arranged it would soon bring out the material.

Sir Henry Irving was at one time a witness in a street robbery. He had seen a sneak make off with a girl's pocketbook, and he consented to appear as a witness for the girl. The thief's lawyer was of the type that roars and rants at witnesses and attempts to break them down. He tried this method on the distinguished actor. "And at what hour," sir, did this happen?" asked the lawyer. "I think--" began Sir Henry, when the lawyer interrupted with: "It isn't what you think, Sir: it's what you know we want!" "Don't you want to know what I think, mildly asked the actor. "I do not," the lawyer snapped out. "I might as well leave the witness box. I can't talk without thinking. I'm not a lawyer."
