Tuesday evening the Once-in-a-While Club met at the home of Mrs. Freeman-Lake, to discuss "War Poetry and Poets." The programme was arranged as follows by Mrs. S. W. Hunt:

1—Introductory review—Mrs. Hunt; Selections of verse read by Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. Wheelock.

2—Kipling—Mrs. A. H. McCready.

3—Rupert Brooke—Mrs. Liddy.

4—Alan Seeger—Mrs. H. M. Wood; Verse selections, Mrs. Bicklow.

5—John Oxenham—Miss Sprague.

6—Robert Service—Mrs. B. C. Borden.

7—Reading "Christ in Flanders"—Mrs. C. F. Wiggins.

8—Solo "The Recessional"—Mrs. Hammond.

Accompanied, Mrs. Josiah Wood.

The presentation of so much of the best verse produced by the war could not fail to create an atmosphere of solemn thought, relieved but slightly by some of the lines of Robert Service.

Mrs. Hammond's solo was a fitting finale to the story of "Christ in Flanders," where men found time to think of Christ, while in the home land they had been most busy even on Sundays, to give Him a place in their thoughts.

Kipling's vivid and beautiful description of the memorial service held in St. Paul's Cathedral, for our Cathedral dean who fell in the second battle of Ypres, will ever strike a responsive chord in Canadian hearts. The lesson of personal responsibility was voiced in Kipling's warning:

There is but one task for all. For each one life to give. Who stands if freedom falls, Who dies if England live?

No easy hopes or lies Shall bring us to our goal But iron sacrifice Of body, will and soul.

ROTHESAY

Rothesay, Feb. 16—The idea of "chain" entertainments, in aid of Red Cross funds, has been taken up by the people of Rothesay, with deserved enthusiasm, and many parties have already been given. The scheme was launched last week under the leadership of Miss Sophie Robertson, who chose sixteen ladies, each of whom paid twenty-five cents and agreed to each entertain a party of eight, who pay 25 cents and entertain four guests.

On Saturday, Mrs. Bell and Miss Allison were joint-hostesses at Mrs. Bell's camp, at Gondola Point. They drove to the Point during the morning and were ready to receive their guests, numbering sixteen, who left Rothesay at twelve o'clock in two large sleighs. After a delicious luncheon the afternoon was pleasantly spent in the cosy living room. Tea was served and the return home trip made at about five o'clock. Those invited were Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, Mrs. H. W. Schofield, Mrs. Fred Crosby, Mrs. John McIntyre, Misses Muriel and Nan Fairweather, Mrs. W. A. Allison, Miss Hilda Hibbard, Miss Hanington, Mrs. Percy Fairweather, Miss Alice Davidson, Miss Daniel and Mrs. J. M. Robinson.

Two "chain" parties were given on Monday. One a bridge of two tables by Miss Sophie Robertson, Mrs. W. Z. Earle, Mrs. H. P. Puddington, Miss Mabel Thomson, Miss Florence Gilbert, Miss Mary Robertson, Miss Lee, and Miss Muriel Fairweather. The prize was won by Miss Lee. At the tea hour Miss Rowland was an additional guest.

Also on Monday Mrs. Miller entertained at a very pleasant sewing party. Miss Allison, Mrs. Harold Brock, Mrs. P. E. R. Harris, Miss Edith Gilbert, Mrs. O. R. Peters, Mrs. Harry Gilbert, Miss Margaret Fairweather, and Miss Donville.

On Monday came the glad news that the steamer on which Miss Mary Donville, and Miss Marjory Burpee had sailed for England, had safely arrived at Liverpool. Miss Donville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donville, was returning to her work as Red Cross nursing sister in France and Miss Burpee is to be one of the principals in a happy event in England, where Dr. Claude Treherne of the Imperial Army will be the happy man. The bride-to-be whose home is in Vancouver, spent a few days here with her aunt, Mrs. D. A. Pusley and Mr. Harry Gilbert before going overseas.

In these anxious times the cable message was specially welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Dobbin of Rothesay, announce the engagement of their youngest daughter Beatrice Elizabeth, to Mr. John Gibson Walker of Winnipeg, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Walker of Toronto.

Mr. A. H. Hanington, who has been enjoying a trip to Bermuda, is expected home this week.

Members of the R. R. Bridge Club were on Friday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Polley, Riverside.

In consequence of a fall, when on her way to church last Sunday morning Mrs. S. A. Doce is quite laid up with an injured hip. Expressions of regret and sympathy are everywhere heard, also the hope of a speedy and complete recovery.

Mrs. Henry C. Rankine and Mrs. William Vassie of St. John, were on Wednesday guests of Mrs. K. E. and Miss Annie Puddington.

Among those on the "chain" who are of the first sixteen and expected to entertain eight guests, the following are doing their part this week: Mrs. McKee is giving a sewing.

On Tuesday evening Miss Hanington gave two tables of bridge, the players being Mr. and Mrs. McFadden, Miss Evans, Miss Thurber, Miss McIntrye, Miss Donville, Mr. Cooper and Mrs. Hanington. This hostess entertains more than once this week.

Mrs. George Gallagher on Wednesday afternoon had a party of eight at her home.

Among those on the "chain" who are of the first sixteen and expected to entertain eight guests, the following are doing their part this week: Mrs. Isaac Dobbin, Mrs. Thomas Rathburn, Mrs. Fred Carvell, Mrs. Gallagher, Dorryburn; Miss Agnes Renshaw, Mrs. W. E. Fivell, Mrs. Hugh McCrea and Mrs. Cotter.

Miss Fairweather, Mr. Shade, is giving a luncheon on Friday.

Miss Helen Thomson expects to entertain on Saturday afternoon.

Last Saturday evening a spirited debate took place at Netherwood, when the question of Conscriptio in Canada was the subject considered by girls of the second and third collegiate classes, made it difficult for the judges to decide to whom the honors should go. The three first speeches on the affirmative side of the question were by Misses Dorothy Fortier, Catherine Wilson and Phyllis Kenney, who first, second and third on negative side were Misses Christian Edwards, Jean Brankley, and Mary Armstrong. The vote was given in favor of the negative side.

On Wednesday afternoon the little day pupils of Netherwood, were delightfully entertained at a Valentine tea, at the school and went home very happy, each with souvenir in the shape of valentines.

Little Miss Margaret Peters enjoyed a birthday anniversary on Monday, with a few invited friends.

Mrs. Revere Steeves, Renforth, on Monday evening entertained in the series of "chain" parties. Cards, music, and sewing, combined in making the affair very social and enjoyable. There were twelve guests, Mrs. F. J. Nisbett, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. F. E. Garret, Mrs. Holman, Mrs. G. McCarthy, Mrs. Dean, Mrs. L. R. Morton, Miss Christie, Mrs. Humphrey, Mrs. H. J. Anderson, Mrs. J. S. Gibbon and Mrs. Hornbrook.

Guests of Miss Mabel Thomson on Monday, were Dr. W. D. Rankine and Mrs. Rankine of Woodstock.

A "chain" luncheon was given on Wednesday by Mrs. Fred Foster, cover being laid for seven as follows: Miss Ganong, Miss Pitcher, Miss Margaret Fairweather, Mrs. Harold

"I FEEL LIKE A NEW BEING"

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Brought the Health After Two Years' Suffering

MADAM LAPLANTE.

35 Rose St., Montreal, April 4th. "For over two years I was sick and miserable. I suffered from constant Headaches, and had Palpitation of the Heart so badly that I feared that I would die. There seemed to be a lump in my stomach and the Constipation was dreadful. I suffered from pain in the back and Kidney Disease. I was treated by a physician for a year and a half and he did me no good at all. I tried 'Fruit-A-Tives' as a last resort. After using three boxes, I was greatly improved and twelve boxes made me well. Now I can work all day and there are no Headaches, no Palpitation, no Heart Trouble, no Constipation, no Pain or Kidney Trouble and I feel like a new being—and it was 'Fruit-A-Tives' that gave me back my health."

MADAM ARTHUR LAPLANTE. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-A-Tives Limited, Ottawa.

Brook, Mrs. Andrew Blair, Miss Hanington and Mrs. Foster.

Among those here from the city on Monday were Miss Kate Doherty, Mrs. P. C. Beatty and Miss Blanch Beatty, who visited Mrs. Rothwell.

Owing to the indisposition of Mrs. G. H. S. Heveor, who has been suffering from grippe, Mr. W. R. Mathers took the organ at St. Paul's church, on the last two Sundays, and his playing gave great satisfaction.

On Wednesday Mrs. J. M. Robinson gave a little luncheon. The guests from St. John were Mrs. Leonard Tilly and Miss Celia Armstrong.

The Reading Club had a most interesting meeting on Monday evening in the reading room of Rothesay College. Though the weather was very cold, and the attendance below the average, Miss Evans as leader in the study of the third act of Shakespeare's play, Richard III., made those present feel more than repaid for taking the cold journey to College Hill. Among those present were Mrs. Hibbard, Miss Sophie Robertson, Miss Pitcher, Miss Muriel Fairweather, Miss Donville, Miss Hanington and others.

Now my dear kiddies, the extra valuable prizes being won each week, but I notice that a great number of you are not taking the best to get one, there are some who have not as yet tried to the composition contest how young you may grade you are in at school put your thinking cap on and time and write a story on which may be for the cup this week I see that the contest is "The subject interests you most at school, whilst that of the previous which ends on Feb. 13th, is in current history now into public."

I shall expect to have a number of entries in the tests than any of the previous to work and let me see who boys and girls will be so good which may be camera bracelets, etc.

I shall have to close the letter and tell you all the good to say in my next, so go with best wishes and hearty
