As a young man he learned the confectionery business and worked for years in the employ of the late J. I. He was about the city in his usual good health yesterday. He attended to his business, and during the latter part of the afternoon, was out driving in his car.

After eating his supper, Mr. Brewer worked in his garden until about 8 o'clock, after which he started to put his car in the garage. TWO LIQUOR CASES IN POLICE COURT

Soldiers Patronized North End Boot-Legger—A Castle Street Case.

A soldier appeared in the police court Saturday charged with being drunk. He pleaded guilty and was warned that he was liable to a fine of $200. The prisoner stated he procured the liquor from a North End boot legger, and had paid $4 a bottle for the juice. He added he had become enlisted in the States with the intention of getting overseas. At present he was not allowed to go over, to his discharge granted him, so as to allow him to return home.

Robert Anderson, a Swede, of Chapel street, was before the court on a double charge, that of selling liquor and having liquor in his possession. He pleaded guilty to both charges and was told he was liable to a fine of $400, or an optional six months in jail. The case was then postponed until Monday. Anderson was remanded to jail.

The prisoner's residence had been visited lately by Detective Biddlecombe and Policeman Jones and eight gallons of Demerara rum found on the premises, which was seized.

ST. JOHN MILITARY TAKEN INTO CAMP BY DEPOT CROWD

The "Enemy" Was Trimmed To Tune of Six To Two—Few Men Struck Out—How It Happened.

Special to The Standard. Camp Sussex, July 14.—The enemy otherwise rejoicing under the protection of headquarters M. D. 7, attempted to play ball with those who could teach others what the ball game really is. The scene was laid in the precincts of Sussex Camp and the massacre rivalled the famous Custer's. There was nothing to it. H. Q. as they are affectionately called were lead as lambs to the slaughter, and they were slaughtered. Out of compassion to the enemy St. John stalwarts so further remarks will be made—they were trimmed 6 to 2.

The medical branch of the service had the ambulance on hand—it was needed for H. Q. The 1st Depot Battalion justifiably are prepared to negotiate with the National League.

A board of officers will be convened by order of the camp commandant to enquire into and report upon the awful catastrophe incident to the demise of H. Q. This is the latest look at the digest and prepare for the worst for real soldiers we are it.

Depot Battalion—Gibbons, ss.; Thomas, 1st b.; McAleese, cf.; Kelley, c.; Vendot, 3rd b.; McKenna, rf.; Riley, 2nd b.; Myshrahl, lf.; Coffee, p. —Doc Donnelly replaced Myshrahl in 2nd inning.

Emery—Myers, 2nd b.; Stegmann, ss.; Pugsley, 1st b.; Tree, c.; Hanson, p.; Arnesen, 3rd b.; McLean, lf.; McDonald, rf.; Wade, cf.

Probably the best play of the game was when McAleese threw from centre field, catching Arnesen at home. McAleese also featured in a double play.

Hanson of H. Q. pitched a very good game but lacked support.

Myers led at bat for H. Q. and secured three out hits.

Coffey with bases full in fourth and fifth innings struck out six men.

Minute 1—Why not?

2—The commandant objects to further games being played with H. Q. because he can ill-afford to spare his officers to inquire into the death of the enemy.

HUSBAND SAVES WIFE

From Suffering by Getting Her Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Pittsburgh, Pa.—"For many months I was not able to do my work owing to a weakness which caused backache and headaches. A friend called my attention to one of your newspaper advertisements and immediately my husband bought three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for me. After taking two bottles I felt fine and my troubles caused by that weakness are a thing of the past. All women who suffer as I did should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Mrs. J. A. Romsberg, 620 Knapp St., N. S., Pittsburgh, Pa.

Women who suffer from any form of weakness, as indicated by displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, backache, headaches, nervousness or "the blues," should accept Mrs. Romsberg's suggestion and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a thorough trial.

For over forty years it has been correcting such ailments. If you have mysterious complications write for advice to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

5—The remains will be buried according to strict military honors. There will be a firing party and pallbearers.

6—For fair information and necessary action, please.

7—What's the use?

Note—Suggested to H. Q. that the lambs be kept within H. Q. compound or a gas barrage or calvary screen be thrown out when they are allowed to live.

If Myers had not been hurt the score would have been 100 to — Well, we hate to say more than two above zero.

Further Note—The New York papers and London Times have asked for the photographs of the victorious team, but being patriotically inclined, through the church.

St. John papers and other religious journals may have same upon request.

"Hold on there. Two of ye step back! Four's enough for that job!"

Handsome Rotogravure Pictures of John McCormack

In Pictorial Review for August are two pages of handsome rotogravure pictures of John McCormack ready to be removed and framed. They're in the softest tints imaginable and would cost 50 cents in an art store.

TWENTY-FIVE thousand dollars for one concert! A hundred thousand dollars for one song!

Big figures—but no bigger than the big heart of this much-loved Irish singer.

Read the story of the wonderful ways in which John McCormack is helping to win the war. It reveals an entirely new side of the world-famous singer.

Feel for yourself something of the throb that fathers, mothers, sweethearts, feel when this golden-voiced tenor sings.

From New York to California and back again, John McCormack has been singing his way for the Red Cross, for the Knights of Columbus, for the soldiers and the sailors and for their families. The whole wonderful story is told in Pictorial Review for August.

Don't miss Dorothy Canfield's appealing story of the little Kansas girl who gave her all to go to France.

A little sorrowful, homely thing—what brought her from a small town in Kansas to France? She went alone to do her simple bit.

Read "A Little Kansas Leaven." It will touch you and bring home to you an entirely new sense of the help that even the humblest of us can give.

This story of the Great War is a true story, based on actual facts. It has brought the tears to the eyes of everyone who has read it.
