Blighting Effect of Bowing at the Shrine of the Modern Calf of Gold-Temple of This Mighty God of Modern Times -How Its Worship Blights a Man's Whole Being.

Washington, Oct. 28 .- In this discourse Dr. Talmage shows how the spirit of greed destroys when it takes possession of a man and that money got in wrong ways is a curse. Text: Exodus, xxxii, 20, "And he took the calf which they had made and burnt it in the fire, and ground it to powder, and strewed it upon the water, and made the children of Israel drink of it People will have a god of some People will have a got of some kind, and they prefer one of their own making. He.e come the Israelites oreaking off their golden earrings, the men as well as the women, for in those times there was masculine as well as feminine decoration. Where as well as feminine decoration. Where did they get these beautiful gold ear-rings, coming up as they did from the desert? Oh, they borrowed them of the Egyptians when they left Egypt. These carrings are pied up into a pyramid of gittering beauty. "Any more earrings to tring?" says Aaron. None. Fire is kindled, the Aaron. None. Fire is kindled. the earrings are melted, and poured into a mold, not of an eagle or a war charger, but of a silly calf. The gold cools down, the mold is taken away, and the idol is set up on its four shriek and dance vigorously and vorship.

Moses has been six weeks on Mount Sinai, and he comes back and hears the howling and sees the dancing of these golden calf fanatics, and he coses his patience, and he takes the two plates of stone on which were written the Ten Commandments and ings them so hard against a rock that they split all to pieces .. a man gets angry, he is apt to breal all the Ten Commandments! Moses rush s in, and he takes this call god and throws it into a hot fire until t is melted all out of shape and then pulverizes it, not by the modern appl'ance of n tromuriatic acid, but by the ancient appliance of niter o by the old fashioned file. He stirfor the people a most nauseating draft. He takes this pulverized golder valf and throws it in the only broot

MODERN IDOLATERS WORSHIP GOLDEN CALF OF FINAN-CIAL EXCITEMENT AND STRUGGLE. The physical health of a great multi-tude is flung on to this sacrifical al-take chloral and morphine and in-toxicants. Some of them struggle in a nightmare of stocks and at 1 o'clock in the morphing suddenly rise o'clock in the morning suddenly rise up, shouting, "A thousand shares of New York Central-108½-take it!" until the whole family is affrighted, and the speculators fall back on their pillow and sleep until they are awakened again by a "corner" in Pa-cific Mail or a sudden "rise" of Rock Island. Their nerves gone, their di-grstion gone, their brain gone, they die. The gowned ecclesiastic comes in and reads the funeral service, "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord!" Mistake. They did not ""die in the Lord." The golden calf kicked

The trouble is when men sacrifice themselves on this altar suggested in the text they not only sacrifice themselves, but they sacrifice their families. If a man by a wrong course is determined to go to perdition, I sup-pose you will have to let him go. But he puts his wife and children in an uipage that is the amazement equipage that is the amazement the avenues and the driver lashes the horses into two whirlwinds, and the spokes flash in the sun, and the gold-en headgear of the harness gleams until black calamity takes the bits of the horses and stops them and shouts to the luxuriant occupants of the equipage, "Get out!" They get out. They get down. That husband and father flung his family so hard they never got up. There was the mark an them for life-the mark of a split hoof-the death-dealing hoof of the golden calf. Still the degrading worship goes egs. An altar is built in front of he shining calf. Then the people throw up their arms and gyrate and bridden between the people the dust and cross themselves with the the dust and count their golden heads and cross themselves with the blood of their own sacrifice The music rolls on under the arches. It is made of clinking silver and clink-ing gold and the rattling specie of the banks and brokers' shops and the voices of all the exchanges. The soprano of the worship is carried by the timid voices of men who have just begun to speculate, while the deep bass rolls out from those who for ten years have been steeped in for ten years have been steeped in the seething caldres. Chorus of voices reloicing over what they have made; chorus of voices wailing over what they have lost. This temple of which I speak stands open day and night, I speak stands open day and high, and there is the glittering god with his four feet on broken hearts, and there is the snoking altar of sacri-fice, new victims every moment on palatial city residence when there are only $30,000 income will not pay, that the appropriation of trust funds to our own private speculation will not pay.

The modern golden calf, like the Israelites of the text borrowed the earrings of the Egyptians and then melted them into a god. That is the way the golden calf is made nowadays. A great many housekeep-ers not paying for the articles they get borrow of the grocer and the baker and the butcher and the dry goods seller. Then the retailer bor-rows of the wholesale dealer. Then rows of the wholesale dealer. Then the wholesale dealer borrows of the capitalist, and we borrow and borrow and borrow until the communi-ty is divided into two classes, those who borrow and those who are bor-rowed of, and after awhile the capitalist wants his money, and he rush es upon the wholesale dealer, and the whalesale dealer wants his money, and he rushes upon the retailer, ail the retailer wants his money, and he rushes on the customer, and we all go down together. There is many a man in this day who rides in a carriage and owes the black-smith for the tire and the wheelwright for the wheel and the trimmer for the curtain and the driver for unpaid wages and the harness maker for the bridle and the furrier for the robe, while from the tip of the carriage tongue clear back the tip of the camel's hair shawl fluttering out of the back of the the carriage tongue that show has drafted and is circulating a potential of the tip of the back of the fluttering out of the back of the vehicle everything is paid for by notes that have been three times renewed. renewed. I tell you that in this country we renewed. I tell you that in this country we shall never get things right until we stop borrowing ard pay as we go. It is this temptation to borrow and borrow and borrow that keeps the people everlastingly praying to the golden calf for help, and just at the minute they expect the help the golden calf treads on them. The judgment of God, like Moses in the text, will rush in and break up this worship, and I say let the work go on until every man shall bearn to speak truth with his neighbor, and those who make engagements shall feel themselves bound to keep them, and when a man who will not re-pent of his business iniquity, but goes on wishing to satiate his cami-hal arpetite by devouring widows' houses, shall, by the law of the land, be compelled to exchange the herewrestore front, for the peniterland, be compelled to exchange the brownstone front for the peniten-tiary. Let the golden calf perish! your casket with bonds and mortgages and certificates of stock? Ah, tiary. Let the golden calf perish! But, if we have made this world our god, when we come to die we shall see our idol demolished. How Unit of the second demolished we come to die we but, if we have made this world our god, when we come to die we shall see our idol demolished. How Curr tte, Chis. Miler, John Collins, R v and the forther that crosses this Jo dan takes no baggage-nothing heavier than an immaterial spirit. 2500 Between the state of the Victoria 2510 Between the state of the Victoria Order of Nurses acknowledges receipt of $25 f om Judge Barker; $10 each from John You may, p rhaps, take $500 D. It would not be sufe tor you to lie down there with a gold watch or a diamond ring. It would le a temptation to the pillagers. If we have made this world our god, we shall see our idol when we die ground to pieces by our pillow, and we shall see our idol when we die ground to pieces by our pillow, and we shall have to drink it in bitter regrets for the wasted opportunities of a lifetime. Soon we will be gone. Gone! Oh, this is a fleeting world! It is a dying world. A man who had worshiped it all his days in his dy-ing moment described himself when

Still Playing Draws

Boston, Oct. 30-On Monday two game were drawn and two more drawn games resulted in the Barker-Jordan champion ship checker match today, both in th "Switcher," closing the second section of he match. The third section of 12 games, beginning today, throws the weight of responsibility on white, who may reply as he likes to the six moves to be made by black, but may not repeat his own move as made in the first section. The gross score is now: Jordan, 2; Barker, 1 drawn, 25. The day's play was tame on the whole though the games got out of the book early and the strategy was novel.

In the afternoon game there was n triking note, however, in the manoeuvre In the evening game Jordan varied from familiar play as early as the ninth move Barker adopting the 24-19 defence. Joi dan continuing with 5-9 after the er change which led promptly to a con plicated position in which the whites a peared to be in a bad way. Barker r duced it, however, to very simple term without difficulty, one wholesale exchang clearing out one side of the board. 'nancial eveltement and struggle al th se things are melted together, any while we st nd looking and wonder ing what will come of it, lo, we fin-that the golden calf of Israelitist worship has become the golden cal of European and American worship Pull aside this curtain, and you se the golden call of modern idolarry It is not, like other idols, made ou of stocks or stone, but it has an ea so sensitive that it can lear the whispers on Wall street, and Thire street, and State street, and the foot-fals in the Bank of Fagland, and the fails in the Bank of ragiand, and the futter of a Frenchman's heart on the Bourse. It has an eye so keen that it can see the rust on the farm o Michigan wheat and the insect in the Maryland peach orchard and the transpled grain under the hoof of the Borgian was charger. It is so might lessian war charger. It is so might, that it swings any way it will the world's shipping. It has its foot of all the metchantmen and the steam ers. It started the American civi war and, under God, stopped it, an it decided the Turko-Russian contest One broker in September, 1869, in New York, should, "One hundred and sitty for a million!" and the whole continent shivered. The golder "alf of the text has, as far as Ameri a is concerned, its right front foo n New York, its left front foot in Chicago, its right back foot in Char-leston, its left back foot in New Or ears, and when it shakes itself it shakes the world. Oh, this is a mighty god-the go'den calf of the vorid's worship. But every god must have its tem ple, and this golden calf of the text is no exception. Its temple is vaste than St. Paul's cathedral in England. and St. Peter's in Italy, and the Al-hambra of the Spaniar's, and the Parthenon of the Greeks, and the Taj Mehal of the Hindoos and all th cathedrals put together. Its pillars are grooved and fitted with gold, and its ribbed arches are hovering gold, and its chandeliers are descending: gold, and its floors are tessellated gold, and its vaults are crowded hears of gold, and its spires and domes are soaring gold, and its spires and gan pipes are resounding gold, and sail pipes are tramping gold, and its its pedals are tramping gold, and its stops pulled out are flashing gold while standing at the head of the temple, as the presiding deity, are the hoofs and shoulders and eyes and ears and nostrils of the calf of gold. Further, every god must have not only its temple, but its altar of sac-rifice, and this golden calf of the text is no exception. Its altar, is not is no exception. Its altar, is not $\mathbf{m} \cdot \mathbf{d}^*$ out of stone as other altars but out of counting room desks and fire-proof safes, and it is a broad, a long. The victims sacrificed a high altar. The victims sacrificed on it are the Swartouts and the Ketchams and the Fisks and 10,000 chains and the risks and 10,000 other people who are s'ain before this gwlden calf. What does this god care about the groans and struggles of the victims before it? With cold, metallic eve it looks on and yet lets them suffer. What an altar! What sacrifice of mind, body and soul!

But they did not drink all the glit Some people are very much rrised at the actions of people in the Stock Exchange, New York, Indeed, it is a scere sometimes that para-lyzes description and is beyond the imagination of any one who has never looked in. What snapping of never looked in. What snapping of inger and think and wild gesticula-tion and raving like hyenas and stamping like buffalos and swaying to and fro and jostling and running one upon another and dealening up roar, until the president of the change strikes with his mallet four or five times, crying, "Order, or-der!" and the astonished spectator roes out into the fresh air that he has escaped from pandemon-ium. What does it all mean? I will tell you what it means. The devo tees of every heathen temple cut themselves to pieces and yell and gyrate. This vociferation and gyration of the Stoc': Exchange is all ap propriate. This is the worship of the golden calf.

But my text suggests that this worship has to be broken up, as the behavior of Moses on this occasion ndicated. There are those who say that this golden call spoken of in the text was hollow and neerly plated with gold, otherwise Moses could not have carried it. I do not know that, but somehow, perhaps by the assistance of his friends, he takes up this golden calf, which is an infernal insult to God and man, and threws it into the pre and it is melted, and then it comes out and is cooled off, and by some chemical ap-pliance or by an old fashioned file it s pulverized, and it is thrown into the brook, and as a punishment the people are compelled to drink the nauseating stuff. So you may depend flame kindle upon thee. upon it that God will burn and he will grind to pieces the golden calf of modern idolatry, and he will compel the people in their agony to drink it. If not before, it will be so on the last day. I know not where the fire will begin, whether at the "Battery" or Lombard street, whe ther at Shoreditch or West End, but it will be a very hot blaze. All the Government securities of the United States and Great Britain will curl miter for the formation of the states and the formation of the forma up in the first blaze. All the money up in the first blaze. All the money safes and denosit vaults will melt under the first touch. The sea will burn like tinder, and the shipping will be abandoned forever. The melting gold in the broker's window will burst through the melted win-dem class into the streat. but the will burst through the melted win-dow glass into the street, but the fiving population will not stop to scoop it up. The cry of "Fire!" from the mountain will be answered by the cry of "Fire!" in the plain. The configuration will hum out from the earth will wrap itself around and round in shroud of flame and lie down to perish. What then will be come of your golden calf? Who then so poor as to worship it? Melted or between the upper and the nether millstone of falling mountains ground to powder. Dagon down. Moloch down, Juggernaut down, golden calf down! But every day is a day of judgment, and God is all the time grind-ing to pieces the golden calf. Some years ago in a time of panic we learned as never before that forger es will not nay, that the watering of stock will not pay that the spending ing moment described himself when he said, "Fool, fool, fool!" ing moment described himsen when he said, "Fool, fool, fool!" I want you to change temples and to give up the worship of this un-totigive grade and for the one of the one one of the one of the one satisfying and cruel god for the ser-vice of the Lord Jesus Christ. Here is the gold that will never crumble. Here are the securities that will ne er fail. Here are the ban's that will never break. Here is ban's that will never break. Here is an altar on which there has been one sacrifice that does for all, for "by one sacrifice hath Christ perfected for-ever them that are sanctified." Here is a God who will comfort you when you are in trouble and soothe you when you are sick and soothe you you are in trouble and soothe you when you are sick and save you when you die. For he has said: "When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee, and through the rivers they shall not overflow thee; when thou walkest through the fire, thou shelt not be burred, neither shall the figure kindle upon thee."

When your parents have breathed their last and the old, wrinkled and trembling hands can no more be put upon your head for a blessing, he will be to you a father and mother bo h, giving you the defense of one and the comfort of the other. For For have we not Paul's blessed hope that 'even as Josus d cd and rose again, "even so them also which sleep in Jesus shall God bring with him." And when your children go away from you, the sweet darlings, you will not you, the sweet darings, you will not kiss them and say goodby forever. He only wants to hold them for you a little while. He will give them hack to you again, and he will have them all waiting for you at the conflagration will burn out from the continent toward the sea and then burn in from the sea toward the land. New York and London with one cut of the red scythe of destruc-tion will go down. Twenty-five thousand miles of conflagration! The earth will wrap itself eround and turned to ashes,
