Fredericton, Nov. 2—Miss Ida McLeod, daughter of the Rev. Dr. McLeod, left this evening for Montreal, en route to South Africa, where upon her arrival she will be married at Cape Town to Mr. Maurice White, inspector of schools in the Transvaal. Rev. Dr. McLeod accompanied his daughter as far as Montreal, whence she will sail for England on Saturday, and will visit Mr. White's relatives for a few days before sailing for South Africa. On Saturday evening Miss McLeod was banquetted by a number of her girl friends, when the entertainment took a most unique form; in story and song the charming web of her romance was given. A story was read in which the guest of honor was the heroine, pauses in the story were filled in by musical descriptions, some thing in this style:—

'Twas the memorable night—

(Musical selection)—After the Ball.

A number of friends had gathered for the sake of (M. S.) Auld Lang Syne.

The one who had the most correct numbers of the songs won the prize; the story included thirteen songs. Miss McLeod was the winner of the prize and was presented with a beautiful souvenir of the evening. The toast to the bride-elect was all in verse, and was a really wonderful production.
