 Until She Took "Fruit-a-tives"

PALMISTON, June 20th, 1914.
 "Stomach Trouble and Distressing Headaches nearly drove me wild. Some time ago, I got a box of 'Fruit-a-tives,' your famous fruit medicine, and they completely relieved me. To-day I am feeling fine and a physician, meeting me on the street, asked the reason for my improved appearance. I said, 'I am taking Fruit-a-tives.' He said, 'If Fruit-a-tives make you look so well, go ahead and take them. They are doing more for you than I can.'"
 Mrs. H. S. WILLIAMS.

The Transcript enjoyed a dish of large and luscious red raspberries picked from the bushes and handed in by Mrs. A. Burchiel, Mosa, on Monday. They are about the finest October berries we have seen, and Mrs. Burchiel tells us they have been frequently taken on the table quite frequently this fall. They are of the Everbearing variety and grew on this season's wood.

Mrs. Stuart, widow of the late James Stuart and formerly of Glencoe, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Webber, Windsor Mills, Ohio, on Monday last in her 88th year. Word has been received at St. Thomas of the death of Dr. Lorne Graham on board a transport that was torpedoed by the enemy in the Aegean Sea on August 17. Dr. Graham was a native of Wallacetown and a son of Moses W. Graham of that place. He went to Los Angeles, Cal., several years ago to study with his uncle, Dr. Neil C. Gunn, who was later killed by an explosion while making some experiments. Dr. Graham was a cousin of Mrs. Neil Graham and J. C. Elliott, M. P., Glencoe. Later—the report of Dr. Graham's death has not been confirmed, and his friends feel certain that it is a mistake, as his mother had a letter from him dated Sept. 2nd.

Long Standing Asthma. Many have suffered so long from asthma and have tried so many so-called remedies they think that there is no real help for them. They should read the letters received by the manufacturer of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy from hundreds of cases once as desperate as their own. Even in long-neglected cases this famous preparation brings prompt help.
