To all Urbanites:

Mr. G. Barbour herewith presents his compliments with a few reasons why he asks for your vote. Producers and consumers have heretofore been dissatisfied one with another, because there was no mutual understanding. Politicians have taken advantage of this situation to pit one against the other for party advantage. The result is bitterness, interests divided and a much higher cost of living. Consumers and producers should unite. Their interests are common. What effects one effects both. True Canadians seek a better Canada—a united people—better social, political and economic conditions. This is Mr. Barbour's platform. As a producer he solicits the support of the consumer in the interest of all.

IN MEMORIAM. In loving memory of Urban Strub, who died October 12, 1918. He is gone, but still his memory gives a pleasant feeling, and we know he lives in a better land. Away from mortal strife. His cares and troubles all are o'er; Dear friend, kind, loving, true. Although you are gone we still remember you. His Mother, Brothers and Sisters.

IN MEMORIAM. In loving memory of our dear cousin, Mrs. Charles Lantz, of Waterloo, who crossed the Great Divide Oct. 11, 1918. Short and sudden was the call Of one so dearly loved by all. The loss was great, the shock severe, We little thought her death so near. But sweetly she sleeps while others sigh From grief and ceaseless oppression. While softly her hand doth lie Upon her Saviour's breast; The moon and stars are shining In a lone and silent grave. Beneath it lies the one we loved, The one we could not save. And only those that love can tell The pain of not saying last farewell. But her memory is as dear to-day As in the hour she passed away. Sadly missed by Cousin Elizabeth and Lonnie.
