

CHAPTER V.

LIFE OF MILO A. SMITH.

PAGE

Builders as Distinguished from Tenants of the Commonwealth—Author and Subject—Smith's Early Life—Western Experiences—Successes and Characteristics	122
--	-----

CHAPTER VI.

COMMERCE—BRITISH COLUMBIA AND ALASKA.

Traffic of English and American Ships—Interior Trade and Barter—Gold Discoveries—Transportation and Tax—Divorce of Government and Monopoly—Extension of Settlement and Civilized Traffic—Coal Export—Alaska Furs—The Russian-American Company—Alaska Commercial Company—Trade, Resources, and Industries.....	132
---	-----

CHAPTER VII.

LIFE OF BERNARD GOLDSMITH.

Birth, Parentage, and Environment—His Record as an American—A Quiet Man Among the Builders—He did More for the Country than for Himself—A Character Worth Studying.....	146
---	-----

CHAPTER VIII.

COMMERCE—NEVADA.

Trapping and Fur-trading—Early Marriages in Nevada—Coming of the Americans—The Mormons Establish Trading Posts in Carson Valley—Increase of Settlements—Life of Murray D. Foley—Banker—State Senator—Characteristics.....	155
---	-----

CHAPTER IX.

COMMERCE—UTAH.

Passage of the California Pilgrims through the Wilderness—The Saints have Pity on Them and Supply their Wants—Early Mormons not Merchants—Gentiles Secure the Trade—Organization of Zion's Coöperative Mercantile Association—High Prices of Merchandise—Gold Coinage—Banking—Insurance—Imports and Exports	165
---	-----

CHAPTER X.

COMMERCE—NEW MEXICO, ARIZONA, AND TEXAS.

Spanish and Native American Barter—Caravans—Adventures of McKnight—Santa Fé Trade—Freights and Prices—Passage of the Gold-seekers—Roads and Railroads—Mining Requirements—Livestock—The Commerce of Arizona—Commercial Possibilities and Conditions of Texas—Traffic, Smuggling, and Privateering—Imports and Exports.....	172
--	-----