

- Ile aux Coudres, proposed to fortify, 312.
 Incarnation, Mother of the, 107, 499.
 "Inconstant," H.M.S., carries off Wolfe's statue, 113; address of Quebec ladies to officers of, 177; reply of officers, 178.
 Indians, their fort at Quebec, 141, 155; expedition of DeCourcelles against, 283; their customs, dress, etc., in 1730, 460; allies of the French, 463; the part they took in battles, 463; serve under English, 464; receive presents from Government, 464.
 Intendant, nature of the office, 220; first named, 221; first to come to Canada, 221. See Bégon, Bigot, DeMeules, Robert, Talon.
 Intendant's Palace, situation of, 162; destroyed, 162; by whom built, 213; history of, 220-224; description, 222; occupied by Arnold's soldiers, 224, 454; ruins of, 454; originally a brewery, 454.
 Invasion of Canada by Americans, 122.
 Iroquois, murder of Jesuits by, 133, 289, 368; incessant incursions of, 281; carry off two Frenchmen, 281; dispute with, 282; capture Fathers Poncet and Bressani, 290; plan the capture of Nuns at Sillery, 290; defeat the Hurons, 296, 458; nations composing, 457; derivation of name, 457.
 Irving, Washington, cited, 458.
 Island of Orleans, occupied by Americans, 122; Hurons remove to, 296, 458; Hurons massacred at, 296, 459; name changed, 459.
 JACQUES CARTIER Ward, 268.
 Jail, the old, built, 117; inscription over door of, 117, 260.
 Jeffery, his description of Quebec society before the conquest, 411.
 Jesuits, their residence burnt, 132, 133; their chapels, 131, 132, 133; murdered by Iroquois, 133; aided by René de Rohault, 135; receive grant of land, 133, 135; names of, 136; captured by Indians, 289; their mission at Sillery, 289; their house at Sillery, probably oldest in Canada, 290; their missions destroyed by Iroquois, 458; martyrs, 458.
 Jesuits' Barracks. See Jesuits' College.
 Jesuits' Church, foundation stone laid, 131; noticed by Kalm, 131; site of, 131; used as place of worship for Protestants, 131; heart of Madame de la Peltrie deposited in, 132.
 Jesuits' College, built, 114, 133; history of, 133; used as barracks, 137; demolished, 137; discoveries during demolition, 137; warrant for conversion into barracks, 161.
 Johnstone, Chevalier, wrote Journal du Siège de Québec, 432; cited, 432; aide-de-camp to General de Levis, 432, 455.
 Jolliet, Louis, discoverer of Mississippi, 135.
 Jonquière, Governor de La, buried in Québec, 19, 140; epitaph, 141.
 KALM, Peter, description of Chateau St. Louis, 67; mention of Jesuits' Church, 131; mention of Recollet Convent, 139.
 Kent, Duke of, at Québec, 27, 140; arrival from Gibraltar, 151, 313; reception of 313; exercises prerogative of pardon, 260; his stay in Canada, 313-319; his lodge at Montmorency, 313, 317; his correspondence with DeSalaberry family, 318; frequent guest at Holland House, 412; at the De Salaberry homestead, 441.
 Kent Gate, 93.
 Kent House, 27.
 Kidd, Adam, his verses on Spencer Wood, 332; visits Lorette, 456.
 King's Own Borderers (25th Regt.), farewell to Québec, 166.
 Kirby, William, cited, 35, 36, 67.
 Kirke, Louis, takes Québec, 72, 108; his government, 488; names of French who remained with him, 488.
 Kirke, Henry, cited, 71.
 Knox, Captain John, describes Le Chien d'Or, 171; cited, 312, 394, 418.
 LABARRE, De, Governor, 194.
 Ladies' Protestant Home, 260.
 Laforme, Jean, fashionable hairdresser, 314.
 LaHontan, his account of administration of justice in Canada, 33.
 Laitet, a small stream near which Jacques Cartier wintered, 455.
 Lajus, Dr., brings first news of dispersion of Acadians, 114.
 Lake St. John discovered, 134.
 Lalemant, Father Charles, receives aid from M. de Sillery, 275; martyrdom of, 458.
 Lambert, John, cited, 339, 472.
 LaRue, Dr. H., cited, 152.
 Lauzon, De, Governor, 133, 176.
 Lauzon-Charny, De, 134.
 Laval, Bishop, residence of, 142; receives Marquis de Tracy, 176, 187, 188; his description of Québec, 194; quarrels with D'Argenson, 282; founds Seminary, 468.
 Laval University, charter granted to, 109; description of, 109; new building, 110; staff, 111.
 LeCaron, Frère, founder of first Huron mission on Lake Simcoe, 458.
 Legendre, Napoleon, his description of Québec streets, 20.
 LeJeune, Father, a Jesuit, 275.
 Lever, Charles, his description of Québec, 9.
 Levi, in possession of the Americans, 122; LaCorriveau hanged in iron cage at, 259.
 Levis, Marquis de, defeats General Murray, 258; at Montreal, 432; returns to France, 471.
 Library Association founded by Lord Dorchester, 389.
 Liegeois, Frère, massacred by Iroquois, 289.
 Lisgar, Lord, at Spencer Wood, 339.
 Literary and Historical Society, rooms of, in old Jail, 117; founded, 118; first meeting held in Chateau St. Louis, 118; list of names in its charter, 118; rooms successively occupied by, 118, 119.
 Literature. See Canadian writers.
 Longueuil, Baron de, title recognized by England, 112.
 Lorette, Ancienne, occupied by Americans, 122; Hurons remove to, 296, 459; French retreat towards, 434; origin of name, 459.
 Lorette, Indian, remnants of Huron tribe at, 296; a visit to, 453, also called Jeune Lorette, 459; population, 460; Chapel and Old Mill built, 460; extent of village reserve, 461; how governed, 463.
 Lorne, Marquis of, inaugurates Dufferin Terrace, 96.
 Lossing, B. J., cited, 144, 146.
 Louisbourg, Bigot Intendant at, 469; surrenders to the English, 469.
 Louisiana, Bigot Intendant of, 469.
 Lower Town, 170; great fire in, 188; bombarded and destroyed by English, 193, 308.