10<sup>6</sup> projects

The AIESEC sponsored seminar on Mega-Projects is inviting all clubs and association to send delegates to their event at the Terrace Inn on Saturday, November 28. The days will include a brunch and a Wine and Cheese in the evening.

Effects of the Mega-Projects on the Canadian society and economy will be debated by a series of guest speakers. So if you have anything to say or are just interested in the situation and how it affects you, come on out and sign up at CAB 305 (AIESEC Office).

Animal Crackers

The bears may be hibernating, but the Zoology Students Association (ZSA) is just getting started. An Zoologists, Biologists or interested parties (or individuals) are welcome to BS-Z-106 (the ZSA office) to find out whats happening or to get what you want happening.

Finding the Light (and Fun)

Now that the midterms are over, we can get back on the right track, so lets find out where all the social functions are and enjoy them! Any Club that is holding an event or something, let us know and we'll let everyone else know.

Ghostchuks and Goblinskis

It's this Friday, October 30, that the fun loving people will put on their costumes and head on over to Narodni Dim (9620-109 ave.). Why! Because the U. of A. Ukrainian Students Club is holding their Hallowe'en Dance there. You remember? Also a note to add: rumor has it that the liquid refreshments will be better than borscht.

Hallowe'en II

For those of you'se not going to the Uke's polka, come on in and grow at the ho-down the Forest Society and Rodeo Club is holding. All you have to do is show up at the Duggan Community Centre, (3728-106 st.), at 8:30 prepare for a good time.

P.M. will be playing while you are having some moonshine and eating some fine food. Don't forget to dress-up and you will have a chance to win the prize for the best costume.

Hop in your pick-up truck

Can't wait for the Aggie's Bar None, or could you? Well if you can't, it'll only be another month. That's right, this year's Western Dance will be held on November 28, at the Kingsmen Fieldhouse (there will even be a shuttle bus).

The week prior to the dance with Showdown, will be filled with a whole lot hoot-hollarin' Aggie events. There'll even be a pancake breakfast and a parade for you all to come on over to. Join on in the square dancing and all the other events. Aggie's said they (or was that you) would lose country-style.
