

the Department has expended all the money that has been spent, but, on the other hand, a rental has been derived from this property, which has gone to the credit of the Indians and helps to increase the amount distributable among them.

4. With regard to the apprehensions entertained by the Petitioners that the money sent them annually is not fairly distributed and that therefore they wish in future that each Head Chief should have a list showing the amount his Band is to receive, I beg to inform you that the pay-lists sent to the Department are carefully scrutinized both by this Department
