Ottawa, June 11, 1918

Sir,-

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 1st instant, in regard to the complaint as to cancellation of leases and increase in rental charge. I reply to say that the whole question of leasing land for the purpose of greater production is in the hands of W.M. Graham, Commissioner for the Department of Indian Affairs, Regina, with whom you should communicate in regard to this matter.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary

The Manager,

Canadian Bank of Commerce,

Fonoka, Alberta.
