

withholding some months ago on account of ill-health I no longer have anything to say regarding the pleasing of articles.
The
The
I should have chosen to place
the article in question
earlier in the volume.
However, I hope you will appreciate the manner in which I have performed a work which I considered it

a privilege to accomplish.
Many years ago I used to meet you often at the residence of the late Mr. Goodwin Silver and the memory of those meetings is frequent.

With best wishes,
I remain,

Dear Sir,
