

- Q. Then after going to the front of the parked vehicle and not seeing McIntyre, where did you go next?
- A. I went up the road in the direction that the staff car had disappeared.
- Q. What did you see there?
- A. The first I saw was the body on the sidewalk to my right which I thought was McIntyre, so I ran over to see.
- Q. Were you the first soldier to arrive?
- A. Yes, sir.
- Q. When what did you do?
- A. When I got over there I found Cpl. McIntyre lying on his back with his legs crossed. One shoe was missing and the wrist watch was missing and his hat was missing off his head.
- Q. Did you observe whether he was alive or dead?
- A. He was dead.
- Q. What did you see in regards to wounds?
- A. His face was misshaped and the blood ran out of the back of his head.
- Q. Who came up immediately afterwards?
- A. Lowe and Tryansky. Both at approximately the same time.
- Q. Now, have you ever seen McIntyre wearing a wrist watch?
- A. Yes, sir.
- Q. Can you identify the watch?
- A. I could not, sir. I did not have a close look at it.
- Q. What did you do next?
- A. I asked Pte. Tryansky and Cpl. Lowe, one of them to get a doctor and an ambulance and the other to go for the police.
- Q. And, I believe, you remained with the body?
- A. Yes, sir.
- Q. And what did Lowe and Tryansky do?
- A. Tryansky took off up the road towards the direction of the vehicle in the direction the vehicle had disappeared.
- Q. Then what?
- A. He tried to telephone the Sgt's Mess.
- Q. Did you know what Lowe did?
