

the liquidation of the buffer stock and any stock held in producing countries in accordance with article 36 and for the supervision of the due performance of conditions imposed under this Agreement by the Council or under the Third Agreement; the Council shall have such of the powers and functions conferred on it by this Agreement as may be necessary for the purpose.

(f) On termination of this Agreement:

(i) The buffer stock shall be liquidated in accordance with the provisions of articles 30, 31 and 32;

(ii) The Council shall assess the obligations into which it has entered in respect of its staff and shall, if necessary, take steps to ensure that, by means of a supplementary estimate to the Administrative Account raised in accordance with articles 15 and 16, sufficient funds are made available to meet such obligations;

(iii) After all liabilities incurred by the Council, other than those relating to the buffer stock account, have been met, the remaining assets shall be disposed of in the manner laid down in this article.

(g) If the Council is continued or if a body is created to succeed the Council, the Council shall transfer its archives, statistical material and such other documents as the Council may determine to such successor body and may by a distributed two-thirds majority transfer all or any of its remaining assets to such successor body.

(h) If the Council is not continued and no successor body is created:

(i) The Council shall transfer its archives, statistical material and any other documents to the Secretary-General of the United Nations or to any international organisation nominated by him or, failing such nomination, as the Council may determine;

(ii) The remaining non-monetary assets of the Council shall be sold or otherwise realised in such a manner as the Council may direct; and

(iii) The proceeds of such realisation and any remaining monetary assets shall then be distributed in such a manner that each participating country shall receive a share proportionate to the total of the contributions which it has made to the Administrative Account established under article 15.
