

From these facts, however, it is not to be inferred that the Order is in any danger of being destroyed. On the contrary, the Order is in a position to meet the challenges of the future with confidence and courage. The Order is a great and noble institution, and it is our duty to preserve it for the benefit of the world.

But not only as we have already said, but also on the display of our strength, we have still fallen short of our goal. The great reform in the government of the country it is our mission to bring about, and we cannot yet bring about the reform. The Order is a great and noble institution, and it is our duty to preserve it for the benefit of the world. The Order is a great and noble institution, and it is our duty to preserve it for the benefit of the world.

Tell brothers, tell, till the work is done,
Till bondage is o'er and freedom is won.

The time shall come when the thinking man
Shall recognize the truth of the Bible mine.

By Pope's decrees no more shall pine;
Toll, brothers, toll, till the work is done.

The time shall come when the thinking man
Shall recognize the truth of the Bible mine.

Toll, brothers, toll, till the work is done,
Till Justice and Love hold jubilee.
