Between Two Thieves

By Richard Dehan
AUTHOR OF "THE DOP DOCTOR,"

Net - - - $1.25

"I have no hesitation in affirming that 'Between Two Thieves' is one of the few really great prose epics of war of any age or of any country. In its more personal aspect, tracing the life struggle of a single human soul under the stress of peculiar temptation, it is one of the strongest books that I have been privileged to read during the past decade."—Frederic Taber Cooper, former editor of The Forum.

The Scout Master of Toop 5

By Mrs. I. T. Thurston
AUTHOR OF "THE BISHOP'S SHADOW,"

Illustrated, 12mo., cloth, net - - - $1.00

Mrs. Thurston demonstrated to the delight of thousands in "The Bishop's Shadow" that she knew the heart of a boy as few other writers to-day do. She has again proved her right to be considered a master interpreter of the boy mind in this Boy Scout story. It has action aplenty, is fresh, breezy and the style is straight-away and clear cut.

ALSO THE BIG BROTHER OF SABIN STREET, NET $1.00 THE BISHOP'S SHADOW, 75c.

Once Upon-a-Time Tales

By Mary Stewart

WITH "THE WAY TO ONCE-UPON-A-TIME," BY HENRY VAN DYKE.

12 mo., cloth, net $1.25

These real fairy tales by the author of "Tell Me a True Story" are fresh as mountain breezes and clear as the water of running brooks. They have that simplicity and dramatic quality which irresistibly reminds the reader of Andersen and Grimm, Carroll and Lang.

The Master of "The Oaks"

By Caroline Abbot Stanley
Illustrated, 12mo., cloth, net $1.25

Of Mrs. Stanley's literary work The San Francisco Chronicle said: "If it be high art to move the reader deeply, to grip the heart strings by a story that is without stage mannerisms, and which deals with only real people and legitimate situations, then Caroline Abbot Stanley should reach a high place among story-tellers of to-day."

PELL'S BIBLE STORIES.

The Story of Jesus FOR LITTLE PEOPLE.

Cloth, net, 35c.

A very direct appeal is made to the child soul. The purpose is to gently, winningly draw the child toward the divine lover of his kind. The book is a distinct addition to the lives of Christ for children.

The Story of Joseph THE DREAMER

Cloth, net 35c.

The Jewish shepherd lad who became the prime minister of Egypt lives in a very real way in this little story of his life. Told in a supposedly autobiographical form it presents an entirely new method of treating a Bible story.

The Story of David THE IDOL OF THE PEOPLE.

Cloth, net, 35c.

Like the "Story of Joseph," this life of the Psalmist is cast in an autobiographical form and written in language that young people will appreciate and adults will enjoy.
