

CEREMONIES AT ST. MARY'S

The ceremonies at St. Mary's whurch on Sunday last in connection with the blessing of the interior decorations by His Grace the Archbishop, were impressive and appropriate In . character, and altogether in keep-1 ing with the fine church within which They took place. The "blessing' was performed before the solemn bigh mass at 11 a.m., when a proces sion headed by the young men of the parish, followed by cross-bearer, acolvtes, and the members of the sanctuary preceded the Archbishop, who, making a tour of the church, blessed with holy water and the prescribed prayers the newly adorn-Mass immediately followed, the pupils of Bro. At the Throne the Arch bishop was attended by Very Rev. Vicar-General McCann, pastor of the schurch, and by Very Rev. Father Barret, Rector of St. Patrick's; the Brothers of the Schools and a large body of the boys of the sanctuary. were also present. The object of the «celebration-that of emphasizing the existence of the decorations-was sustained throughout the entire edisice, the walls, windows, statuary and chancel presenting a harmoni-ous and striking display of color and design. The chancel was par ticularly brilliant, the scarlet, gold white and purple of the magnificent westments making a spot of vivid and attractive coloring. The new work on the walls and arches filled the one want that had been so long evident, the old time greyness being replaced by artistic figures and scrolls, all suggestive of the place in which God is honored and worshipped. The well rendered music of the choir was Plain Chant with the Ave Verum by Gunoud at the offertory. After the Gospel the Archbishop, standing at the altar-rail, dedivered what was probably one of the most explanatory and interesting sermons ever delivered in Toronto, on the church edifice and its decorations. Taking the words "Holicless becometh Thy house, O Lord unto length of days," the last ; art of whe 92nd Psalm, His Grace addressed the people of St. Mary's, telling them What they had been actuated by the spirit of the text. They had built a holy place and destined it as the House of God. Its exterior, its shape, its spire, its cross, all were

VILLAGE OF KEARNEY

Towards evening I came to a somewhat older settlement and to me much more enchanting. Taking my value and leave of the conductor, 1 sallied forth to explore, when lo! of the Magnetawan river. This is the village of Kearney, and it was to me a real discovery.

This is really Kearney; I had heard little of it before. I found it a neat little village, possessing two good hotels, two good stores, a hardware store, a physician, a barber, a livery, two butchers, a baker, a tailor, a shoemaker, a post office, a railway station, three churches, two public schools and one of the largest chair factories in America, and a first-class baseball club. To say I was surprised is putting it mildly. I found it difficult to get lodgings here, as the hotels were crowded. There was nothing unusual but this is simply the going on, daily business routine.

Our Angel Guardians

would be well for us to ask ourselvesl says the Irish Messenger, how we stand as regards the good angel whom God has appointed to be our faithful companion and friend through all the chances and changes of our pilgrimage. It is an act of great delicacy and kindness on the part of our Heavenly Father to give us such a friend as this, at once beautiful and powerful and loving. It is true indeed, that even were there no guardian angels at all, no true child of God need ever feel lonely-for God's presence is all about us, the Sacred Humanity with Heart consumed with love is present in every tabernacle before which burns the censoling flame of the sanctuary lamp. Mary and Joseph and the saints are never out of earshot; but it is an added consolation to every Catholic heart to know that in addition to all that, we have each of us, a personal friend and guide appointed specially for ourselves individually. What then is our devotion towards our faithful angel? Do we remember his presence often? Do we remember him in our ordinary prayers? Do we say morning and night some little pravers in his hon For instance: "My good angel or I thank you from my heart for your love and protection," or "My holy angelf pray for me," or "Angel of God to whose holy care God hath committed me, enlighten and direct, defend and govern me.
