

and C. F. McGregor.—The Sisters of Charity, Duluth, have decided to build a hospital here.

OTTAWA, ONT.—The Council intend constructing an asphalt and stone sett pavement on Nicholas street, from Wilbrod street to Laurier ave., estimated cost $8,435.90.—Mr. Morse, general manager of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, states that the construction of the Lake Superior branch will be commenced as soon as specifications are printed.

GUELPH, ONT.—The by-law to raise $55,000 for extension and improvement of the gas plant was carried by the ratepayers on Saturday last.—Dr. Smith, Ontario Inspector of Public Institutions, last week visited St. Joseph's Hospital to inspect the site selected for the new buildings to be erected this summer. It is expected that tenders will be asked for shortly.—Architect Mahoney is preparing plans for remodelling the city hall.

OWEN SOUND, ONT.—George Menzies, Chairman School Property Committee, will receive tenders up to July 3rd for re-tubing the boiler at the Collegiate Institute, also for piping required in connection with the steam heating and drainage of the chemistry room.—The Georgian Bay Power Co. are asking for tenders up to Saturday, July 15th, for cutting down and removing of the face of the mountain on the north side of Beaver river at Eugenia Falls. This is the first work to be undertaken in connection with the proposed development of electric power.

MONTREAL, QUE.—George W. Stephens, acting for the Church of the Messiah, has purchased property on north-east corner of Simpson and Sherbrooke streets on which a new church will be built. Plans will be called for at once.—The Fire and Light Committee are looking for a suitable site on which to build a fire station in the vicinity of St. Catharine street.—E. P. Charlton will build a brick and stone block on St. Catherine street, from plans by Saxe & Archibald. Finley & Sence, architects, have in hand a wing to the Boys' Home on Mountain street, to cost about $20,000.

ST. JOHN, N.B.—D. Pottinger, manager Intercolonial Railway, Moncton, will receive tenders up to July 3rd for construction of extension of train house and baggage room in this city.—G. Brown, C. E., is making an inspection of the Central Railway for the New Brunswick Government. He will probably recommend that at least three of the wooden bridges be replaced by steel structures.—The C. P. R. have acquired a controlling interest in the St. John Bridge and Railway Extension Co., and will commence as soon as possible the rebuilding of the cantilever bridge.

HAMILTON, ONT.—The Council will advertise the paving of York street, from Dundurn street to the Market, with brick, at cost of $27,000.—Frank Crawford will build a brick residence on Queen street, between Margaret and Garth streets.—The Leamington Steel Co. have bought 400 feet of land on Arthur street as a site for their plant.—W. G. E. Boyd is building a $54,000 residence on Bay street, south of Aberdeen ave., from plans by A. W. Peene.—W. J. Jackson intends building a $3,000 brick residence corner Wentworth street and Aikman ave.

VICTORIA, B.C.—W. S. Gore, Deputy Commissioner of Lands and Works, will receive tenders up to 30th inst. for supply of 170 school desks.—A by-law will likely be submitted to the ratepayers to provide $30,000 for erection of a school building in Victoria West.—Thomas D. Sedger, architect, is preparing plans for a bungalow residence to be built on Carr street for A. E. Allen.—The Victoria Fire Department, at a meeting on June 16th, decided to install a storage battery system of fire alarms to replace the present gravity system.—The City Council have decided to call for tenders for construction of new bridge at Rock Bay.

LONDON, ONT.—Plans are being prepared for bitulithic pavement on Richmond street, between Horton street and the G. T. R. and between Fullarton street and Oxford street, also for an asphalt pavement on Dundas street, from Lyle to Queen's park.—Building permits were issued last weeks as follows: R. C. Edgcombe, two-storey brick dwelling, Colborne street, near Centre ave.; F. J. Stone, brick-veneered residence, William street; W. R. McKay, four brick veneer residences, corner William and Hill streets.—W. Fletcher Shepherd, architect, is this week taking tenders on a pair of houses on Ridout street.—William G. Murray requests tenders by 4th inst. for alterations and additions to Adelaide street Baptist church.

WINNIPEG, MAN.—Hooper & Walker, architects, want tenders by 29th inst. for erection of frame residence on stone foundation for H. P. Hanson, Stradbroke place, Fort Rouge.—Herbert Matthews, architect, is taking tenders up to 13th inst. for erection of brick and stone building on Donald street for the William Weld Co. Same architect has just taken tenders on five houses on Norquay street for Robert Wyatt.—C. H. Newton has just sold to a syndicate, represented by E. J. Rochon, property on east side of Main street, between Notre Dame ave. and Water street. It is said to be the intention of the purchasers to have plans prepared at once for a large hotel and theatre.—It is reported that Lewis Bros., hardware merchants, Montreal, will build a warehouse in this city.—A. & W. Melville, architects, have prepared plans for an addition to the Central Congregational church on corner of Hargrave street and Qu'Appelle ave.—Plans are being prepared for a large business block, with stores and offices, to be built on the corner of Portage ave. and Smith street for J. H. Oldfield.—J. H. Cadham, architect, has prepared plans for a new building for the Manitoba Medical College.—Plans of mission building to be built at Griswold Man., may be seen at the office of S. F. & W. A. Peters, this city.—Frank R. Evans, architect, is taking tenders up to July 1st for alterations to the Tees & Perse building on Market street for W. M. Gibson.—Herbert B. Pugh, architect, is this week taking tenders on a frame residence in Crescentwood for R. G. Perse.—Tenders are invited by Charles S. Bridgman, architect, up to July 3rd, for erection of a brick and stone warehouse on Henry street for H. F. Anderson & Co.—The Dominion Bridge Co., Montreal, are said to have decided to build a plant in this city.—H. C. Stone, architect, is preparing plans for a three-storey and basement brick and stone block for Stavel Bros., to be built on corner of Smith street and Ellice ave.

TORONTO, ONT.—Thomas McLaughlin, secretary Georgian Bay Power Co., 16 King street west, is asking for tenders by Saturday, July 15th, for removal of earth in connection with the proposed development of electric power at Eugenia Falls.—The Nasmith Co. have purchased a site near the Canada Foundry Co.'s works on Davenport road, on which they will build a large bakery.—The Burgess-Powell Co. have purchased property on the corner of Trinity and Yonge street, which they will remodel.—The Board of Control are asking for tenders up to Tuesday, July 4th, for construction of asphalt, macadam and tar macadam pavements and concrete walks.—Tenders are also invited by the Board of Control up to same date for construction of a shelter at Island Park.—Plans of Methodist church to be built at North Bay, Ont., may be seen at the office of Burke & Horwood, this city. Tenders close July 21st.—Tenders for a 30-foot gasoline launch will be received by the Board of Control up to July 11th.—Building permits have been granted as follows: James Brown, four-storey factory, south side King street, near Spadina ave., cost $20,000; Trustees Wesley Methodist church, addition to Sunday school building, cost $18,000; S. Frank Wilson, six-storey office and warehouse, Front street, west of Bay, cost $50,000; The Dominion Paper Box Co., two-storey brick stable and one-storey brick factory, King street west, cost $10,000; Corporation of Toronto, new fire hall, corner Queen and Herbert streets, cost $20,000; Home for Incurables, addition to building, cost $2,000; Bank of Nova Scotia, two-storey brick and stone bank, corner Dundas street and Brock ave., cost $13,000.

CONTRACTS AWARDED.

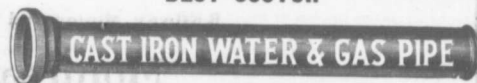

DUTTON, ONT.—Residence for C. D. Hodder E. Small, Wallacetown, contractor.

CLANDEBOYE, ONT.—Cement sidewalks: McCann & Butler, of Lucan, contractors.

OSHAWA, ONT.—Granolithic sidewalks: John Stacey, contractor, 13 cents per square foot.

L. H. GAUDRY & CO.

DIRECT IMPORTERS AND AGENTS

ALL WEIGHTS AND TESTS TO SUIT REQUIREMENTS.

Superior Quality

Large Stock

Prompt Shipments

OFFICES: HOHELAGA BANK BUILDINGS

QUEBEC, CANADA