AYRSHIRES FOR CANADA.

After a visit of six weeks in Scotland, says the Scottish Farmer, Mr. Wm. Hunter, of Robert Hunter & Sons, Maxwell, Ontario, sailed on April 29th with one of the very best shipments of Ayrshires that ever left Scotland, numbering forty-five head, all of which were bought from or under the guidance of Mr. A. W. Montgomerie, Lessnessock, Ochiltree, Ayrshire, who has a thorough knowledge of the class of Ayrshires wanted in Canada, and where they are to be found, and is admitted to be one of the most discriminating judges of the breed.

Mr. Geo. M. Smith, Haysville, Ont., writes: "Our Yorkshires have come through the winter in good shape. Our imported sow, Dalmeny Lassie, has just farrowed a litter of fifteen pigs, and twelve of them are doing well. Our young sow, Northcot Lassie, has just farrowed a litter of fifteen, and is raising ten fine pigs. We give our brood sows plenty of exercise during the winter. We have two or three young boars about six months old, ready for shipment, also a few young sows just bred and safe in pig. Our shipping stations are New Hamburg (on main line, G. T. R.) and Bright (on Buffalo and Lake Huron branch)."

Mr. H. G. Boag, Barrie, Ont., writes: "I have had a very successful winter with my imported Clydesdale fillies and stallions. Of the fillies I have sold two to John Barton, Beeton, Ont.; one each to John Sinclair, Bradford; H. J. Barnhardt, Mitchell Square; James Duncan, Oro; Geo. Crawford, Gilchrist, and Geo. Raikes, Barrie; two to H. W. Boag, Queensville; one to John Lombard, Bradford, and one to John Miller, Glassville, N. B. Of the stallions, the big, stylish Sir Everard horse, Sir Lachlan, went to the Oro & Vespra Clydesdale Horse Association. He is a grand big horse, and should do lots of good in this country. The well-known show and stock horse, Lyon Stewart, has gone to Lavery & Currie, Elmville, Ont., and his stock will soon be giving a good account of themselves in that vicinity. McKinley 2nd goes to H. J. Barnhardt, Mitchell Square; he is an A1 stock horse, and will be greatly missed in the part he has left."

Situated thirty miles west of London, Ont., on the G. T. R., C. P. R. and Wabash Railroads, is the thriving town of Glencoe. Adjoining the town is the Elm Park Stock Farm, the property of John M. Beckett, successor to Thos. Beckett & Son, who has a choice selection of Shorthorns, Clydesdales and Berkshires. The herd is headed by the Choicely-bred Campbell - Claret bull, British Flag (imp.) =50016=, by Golden Fame, bred by Duthie, a bull of the deep, thick sort, and a grand sire. The breeding females comprise such well-known families as Marr Missies, Bruce Mayflowers, Beautys, Rose of Autumn and a number of dual-purpose sorts, tracing to Beauty, by Snowball, and Lily (imp.). Among the cows, special mention might be made of Pineapple of Sylvan 2nd, out of Pineapple 12th (imp.), and sired by Chief of Stars (imp.). This is an extra good cow, and a splendid breeder. Mayflower 2nd (36663) belongs to a good old family, and is nursing a splendid bull calf, sired by Hot Scotch, champion at London in 1905. Elm Park Beauty has a bull calf, sired by the herd bull. This calf is eight months old, red, with some white, and is the making of a show bull. This bull's dam was sired by Palermo (imp.), by Prince of Rettie. Myrtle Red Rose, of the Rose of Autumn family, is nursing an extra good heifer calf, by Hot Scotch. This cow is a splendid milker. There are a number of cows and heifers in the herd, sired by British Flag, and any or all are for sale. The Clydesdales are the get of such horses as Craigevar (imp.), Marquis of Salisbury (imp.), Lord Armadale (imp.), Farmer's Pride (imp.), and are a good lot. The Berkshires are descended from Green's and Teasdale's breeding stock, and are sold off pretty close at present, but will have some fit to wean in a few weeks, sired by Concord Top Gallant. Anyone wanting anything in Shorthorns, Clydesdales or Berkshires will find it to their advantage to correspond or inspect this stock.
