Offer to Weak Men!

I make this offer to weak men, particularly those men who have spent their earnings for years on dope (the drugs that make them feel like a young colt one day and like an old, broken-down hack the day after), those men who have tried so many things, that they are tired of fooling and want a cure. These are the men I appeal to, and to any man who will give me reasonable security I am willing to give my

Electric Belton Trial Until You Are Cured

I claim that I can cure weak men; that I can pump new life into worn-out bodies; that I can cure your pains and aches, limber up your joints and make you feel as frisky and vigorous as you ever did in your life. That's claiming a good deal, but I have got a good remedy, and know it well enough to take all the risk if you will pay me when you are cured.

No man can lose on this. If the cure is worth the price you don't have to pay for it until you get it. When you are ready to say you are a big, husky and frisky specimen of vigorous manhood; that you haven't got an ache or pain in your whole body and that you feel better than you ever did in your life, I get paid. If you can't say it after using my Belt for three months, then give me back my old Belt and I won't ask a cent.

A short time ago I took a case that I couldn't cure, and I didn't see why, as I had cured hundreds like it. Anyway, my patient returned the Belt and said I hadn't done him any good. He said he thought I had treated him honestly and wanted to pay me the cost of the Belt, because it could not be used again. I refused, and told him that I had made a contract to cure him or get nothing, and I wouldn't take a dollar I hadn't earned.

I don't charge much for a cure. My Belts are as low as $5. That will cure some cases, and it won't cost you a cent if it doesn't. Did you ever see a doctor who would agree to cure you for $5 and wait for his money till you were cured?

I've cured lots of men who had paid over a thousand dollars to doctors before they came to me.

Get Some Life Into You

What's the use of dragging your legs about like a wooden man? Feel like a man of spirit. Away with the pains and aches; off with this wretched feeling as if you were seventy years old and had one foot in the grave. Come and let me put life into your nerves; let me give you a new supply of youthful energy. Let me make you feel like throwing your chest out, and your head up, and saying to yourself, "I'M A MAN!" Let me give you back that old feeling of youthful fire, vim and courage. I can do it, so that in two months you will wonder that you ever felt so slow and poky as you do now. Act to-day. Life is sweet, so enjoy every minute.

This is the Way They Feel

The men who had given up hope, who thought there was no cure for them, until they came upon Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt. Now they are full of life and overflowing with joyous spirits. Pains are gone, weakness has gone, and full vigor is in every action.

Do you want to feel like that? Then wear the grand life-giving appliance for two months at night. It will charge every nerve with electric life, and you will feel rejuvenated and invigorated. It puts steam into your run-down body, drives away pain, and renews youth.

Tell me where you are and I'll give you the name of a man in your town that I've cured. I've got cures in every town. That's enough. You need the cure. I've got it. You want it. I'll give it to you or you need not pay me a cent. Come and get it now. The pleasurable moments of this life are too few, so don't throw any away. While there is a chance to be husky and strong, to throw out your chest and look at yourself in the glass and say, "I'm a man," do it, and don't waste time thinking about it.

Dear Sir,—I like your Belt fine. I am well satisfied with it. I feel stronger than I have for a long time, and I can do more work. It has already proved itself to be all that you recommended it to be. Wishing you every success in your good work.
MELVIN WOODWARD, Belmont, Ont.

Dear Sir,—I am going to tell you how things are with me now. I do not remember when I felt so well as I do now. I have not had an ache or a pain since I began using the Belt. I sleep well and when I awake in the morning I am ready to spring out of bed. I feel so happy and well that I can hardly believe that I am the same person. Thanking you very much for your kindness, and for your Belt.

Dr. McLaughlin:
Dear Sir,—Your Belt has cured me of rheumatism and sore back. Your Belt is all right and anything I can do for you I am willing to do so. This is my statement: Your Belt is just as good as when started, and I can state truthfully that your Belt is the best thing going for sore back and rheumatism and sluggish feeling. It rouses up the blood and drives sloth away. Yours very truly,
