Burdock Blood Bitters

CURES ALL SKIN DISEASES

Any one troubled with any itching, burning, irritating skin disease can place full reliance on Burdock Blood Bitters to effect a cure, no matter what other remedies have failed.

It always builds up the health and strength on the foundation of pure, rich blood, and in consequence the cures it makes are of a permanent and lasting nature.

Mrs. Richard Coutine, White Head, Que., writes:—"I have been bothered with salt rheum on my hands for two years, and it itched so I did not know what to do. I tried three doctors and even went to Montreal to the hospital without getting any relief. I was advised to try Burdock Blood Bitters, so I got three bottles, and before I had the second used I found a big change; now to-day I am

A LITTLE DUBIOUS.

There was a new baby up at Johnny Bilkins', and everybody in the neighborhood seemed much interested, in the newcomer. On his way to school in the morning Johnny was frequently stopped by passers-by, with inquiries as to the state of things at home. The last individual of record to inquire was the clergyman, who reports the following:

"Ah, Johnny, my lad," said the reverend gentleman, "I understand that you have a bouncing boy up at your house."
"I dun'no," said Johnny. "I ain" never seen him bounce-I don't think they've throwed him down hard enough to find out yet."

The clergyman smiled broadly, and went on to the next question.

"Well, I hope he is a good baby," he suggested.

"Oh, I guess he ith," said Johnny, "He don't smoke or drink dubiously. any, but sometimes he seems to me to Please describe habits, and method of training homer pigeons. Also state value and market for them. Ans.-We are not familiar with the training of these birds. Write some pigeon fancier for the information.

BLACKBERRIES.

By what name is the blackberry known today, which I read of in the book published by Orange Judd Co., "Ten Acres Enough." It is named in this book as the Lawton Blackberry. Are they not planted now so much? If so, where can the roots be had? G. W. O.

Ans.—The variety is still known by the name you have quoted. In the bulletin, "Fruits of Ontario," obtained free from the Department of Agriculture, Toronto, you will find this reference: "A variety that has done much to popularize the blackberry as a market fruit, but now supplanted by other and better kinds," such as Agawan and Kittatinny. DISHONORED NOTE.

Over a year ago I held an auction sale of live stock and implements. I gave ten months' credit to parties providing approved joint notes. One man gave his note for $340, and it has not been paid yet. I have not taken any action to collect it.

1. What action should I take? 2. Can I collect interest on the overdue note? The maker of the note is in fairly good circumstances financially.

Ontario. Ans.-1. You should first write the man requesting payment, and warning him that unless you receive same by a date to be stated in the letter, you will place the note in suit. In the event of this failing to bring the money, you should hand the note to a lawyer with instructions to sue upon it.

2. Yes. ROADSIDE TREES.

A rural telephone company has poles erected on highway, and wires strung on them by permission of Township Council. Some ratepayers have trees planted along highway on other side of fence. The limbs are extending onto highway and interfering with wires. These ratepayers have forbidden the telephone company to interfere with their trees in any way. The wires are seven or eight feet from the line fence.

1. Has the company legal power to trim these trees?

If not, has the Township Council power to grant this privilege? 3. Some parties claim the trees can be trimmed to the line fence. Are they right in their contention?

Forester's Falls. W. R. KIRK. Ans.-1 and 2. The company may trim, reasonably. 3. Yes.

WIREWORMS.

Can you advise me regarding destruction of wireworms? I have been told by two experienced farmers that one, or at most, two crops of buckwheat, will kill them. Any information regarding this will be thankfully received.

J. H. F

Ans.-Wireworms are the larvæ of a large family of beetles known as click beetles. It takes from two to four years, according to species, for the larvae to develop into the mature form. The best known remedy, or, rather, prevention, is a short rotation of crops in which the land is not left down to sod more than two years. Fall plowing is two recommended, with frequent cultivaa. We have not heard of the insect w buckwheat and there is a posof there were me other roots to attack the larva me, aration of the
