As has been usual through the course of this year, the Wednesday evening's concert at the Catholic Sailors' Club last evening was a decided success.

What was taken exception to was the clause which asked that the prohibition should not apply to certain games, amusements, sports and recreations. His Grace said he could not countenance such a by-law, as it permitted too much. He strongly disapproved of the Sunday movie picture entertainments, and he said steps would be taken if in the case of such amusement resorts being closed in the city, that the same would re-open in outside municipalities. It was urged upon His Grace that these exhibitions were in-

What I Saw in the Basement.

THE FIRST THING as you step out of the elevator is an array of fine tall ornamental lamps, fit to grace the palace of an Oriental monarch, and the price tickets reveal the amazing fact that a good mechanic can buy one with a day's pay. There are several tables of them, and it is hard to get away from this part of the basement.
