To the Reverend Peter L Heureux, P. P.
Reverend and dear Father—In the administration of the work in the diocese of London, His Lordenip, our beloved Bishop McEvay, conveys through you to us, dear Father, the announcement of your removal from Simcose to another field in God 8 vineyand.

Knowing of your sincere developes in the task of saving souls: having experienced from day to day and from year to year your loving self-sacrificing, interest in our spiritual and temporal well doing; thus endeavoring to lead us on in the paths of virtue and perseverance: it is a moral discharge of our duty to express in this manner, heartfile gratitude and to return thanks for such blessings.

There is no need of emphasizing the sadness and scrrow sfilleding us in the separation of a priest from the people who love him as a father, but we do state that you have been to us a true friend and confessor in every trial and trouble and you have rejoiced with us in our joys.

Payment in full of our church debt; vast improvements in our church building; able and elequent discourses preached for our edification and for the honor and glory of God; these are some of the good works in this parish during the years you have been here that testify to your ability and to sound manage ment in the choice of your vocation. We ask you, dear Father, to neep this purse and convenced that God only can justiy reward His anothed.

ANNUAL PLAY BY THE STUDENTS IN AID OF ST. AGATHA ORPHANAGE.

The students of St. Jerome's College gave their annual play for the St. Agatha Orphanage fund, at the opera house on Tuesday evening. The house was sold out, and the three hours entertainment left a most favorable impression upon the audience. The production this year was Pizatro. It is a five act drama and its story and plot, laid in Peru, is a strong one, abounding in effective dramatic climaxes and in deep heart interest. It tells of the adventures of Pizatro, a Spanish leader of a rebellion against Athaliba, the King of Peru. King Athaliba's two generals. Alonzo and Roile and Elvira and Cora, the respective wives of Pizatro and Alonzo, form the leading characters in the unfolding of the story. The devotion of Cora to her soldier husband and the sification between Alonzo and Rollo, was the foundation of two especially strong scenes. One recalls the Damon and Pythias story. Alonzo had fallen into the hands of the insurgent Spaniards, and was cast into prison to await his execution. During the night Rollo secures an entrance and sends his friend out to freedem. Rollo successfully regaine his liberty, through the heart of Pizatro being touched by such a display of affection. But this was not the only sacrifice of Rollo's. But this was not the only sacrifice of Rollo's. The characters were well cast, and the fin-

OBITUARIES.

MR H, B. QUARRY, PARKINIL.

Seldem are we called upon to chronicle a death so universally regretted as that of Mr, Henry B. Quarry. The Angel of Death stole in to his happy home when least expected and he passed very peacefully to his eternal reward on Saturday morning, April 16th, as the age of sixty eight years. Mr. Quarry always enjoyed good health until a few months ago, when he had a severe attack of la grippe which seemed to leave a fatal effect on the heart. His sufferings were borne with the same patience which characterized his whole life. During his ilhess he was frequently life. During his illness he was frequently visited by his zealous pastor, Rev. Duna and fortified by the rites of Holy Church of which he was a firm true member. The decess d was of a most cheerful and kind disposition, one who had many friends, an exemplary husband, a loving father and a highly respected citizen. He was for a number of years well and favorably known as a business man, and at one time held the position of inspector of Fisheries. The largely attended funeral took place on Monday, April 18:h, to the Church of the Sacred Heart, Parkhil, where High Mass of Requiem was celebrated by Rev. Father Dunn. The Gregorian Mass was well suog by a full choir. At the conclusion of the solemn service Rev. Father Dunn preached an effective and appropriate sermon, in which he spoke of the many virtues and steadfast faith of the departed one. A large concourse of inchsfollowed the funeral cortege to pay a last tribute of respect to one they loved on earth, He leaves to mourn his loss a wife, three sons—John M., Silverton, B. C.; Frank, Chicago; Jas. J. Ann Arbor; and two daughters—Miss Madelree, organist at Parkhill, and Mass May, teacher at Chatham. He also leaves three brothers—I and Dr. W. B. Quarry of Sandwich. His many filends extend their warmeet and an oerest sympathy to his boul rest in peace!

LOUISE DANTZER STRATFORD.

Seldom have there been evinced such expressions of grouner regret and heartfelt serrow as were expressed at the news of the death of Louise Dantzer, on the morning of April 20th; and indeed we do not wonder that such was the case when we remember her bright and winsome disposition. It truly seems as though our Queen of Heaven specially selved the fairs. flower to grace her heavenly courf. The deceased lady was at work as usual on Thursday, but took ill with appendicties on Friday morning, and was removed to the city hospital on Saturday evening. She gradually grew worse there, till she died on Wednesday morning. Miss Dantzer came to Stratford eleven years ago where she was embloyed as book-keeper for Mr. J. A Duggan. Her home was in Berlin, where her mother re sided, her father having died eighb years ago. Three sisters—Mrs. Deltrich, Emma, Britin: Sister Eulalia, St. Joseph's Convent, Toronto, and five brothers—Peter. Charles, Alexander, Herbert and Harry, survive. During her liness she was patient in the extreme, ever displaying a thoughtfulness for her devoted mother and brothers and sisters, but at all times reconciled to the will of her Creator and ready to comply with His will whatever it should be, always buoyant with hope in the mercies of her Redeemer, The dear young girl by her genial manner made for herself a host of friends and admirers, whose friendly feelings follow her beyond the grave and whose warmest sympathies are now with the sorrow-stricken family. The hearts of all go out to the bereaved ones who are now weeping for the loss of a devoted daughter and sister; but we trust the prospect of another meeting and greeting in the hareafter will assuage their grief and afford consolation to their sorrowing hearts. The remains lay at the home of Mrs. Grabre, Caledonia street, until Thursday morning, and was then tak

In peace."

Mrs Nicholas Bibby, Camprellford,
One of the old residents of this parish, in the person of Mrs. Nicholas Bibby of Seymour, departed this life on Tuesday, the 5th of April, after a few days' illness. For many years her health had not been good, but she was no worse than usual until the Saturday previous to her death, when she was stricken with pneumonia, and from the first there was no hope of her recovery. Her maiden name was Mary, daughter of the late Samuel Gibson of the Township of Percy. Besides her husband, who is in feeble health, she leaves to lament her loss one son and three daughters, viz. Mrs. John Madigan of Deseronto. Mrs. Patrick O'Conner of Seymour, and Samuel and Mary, who are unmartied and reside at home. The deceased had the many virtues so notable in the Irish race, being hospitable to the stranger, charlable to the needy, a faithful and kind wifs and mother a true friend and a good neighbor. Ever a faithful and attaining the charlable of the needy, a faithful and kind wifs and mother a true friend and a good neighbor. The characters were well cast, and the finished manner of the work bespoke much conscientious work of proparation, as well as the possession of clever historic taient. Mr. Harry Zinger, as Pizarro, made an able Spanish leader. His make up and actions were excellent. G. J. Kloepfer in the double role of the Peruvian King and as a monk, gave evidence of versatile ability. J. C. Droste as Rollo was the strongest member of the cast. His acting was a genuine treat. He was actly supported in the most touching and difficult passages by J. M. Walsh as Alonzo The other members of the cast were L. E. Walsh. Mr. A. Schumacher, R. J. Lynder, J. Gles P. Polubicki, E. Becchie, F. McCardle and J. Hurley. The latter two had the difficult passages by J. M. Walsh as Alonzo The two lady characters, and made good.

Before the curtain rang up, two fittle girls from the S. Agatha orphanaze, welcomed the visitors, thanked them for their kied cherity in supporting the Home and fayited them all to come and vieit them.

ENTHUSIASM DIES NOT.

Why is it that enthusiasm never dies in the Church? It is because her enthusiasm rests on truth and on imper ishable principle; and it has an inex-haustible source of new life; for, as long as the truth of God remains, so long as will the love of God endure in the Church; and as long the Church defends the truth of God, so long will she be animated with the life of God. Therefore she can calmly look around Therefore she can calmly look around today, and see the ruins of all the great movements that once challenged her sway in the world. She can gaze around and see the remains of all the heresies. She can see the wrecks of all the great empires; she can see the scattered fragments of the great insurrections against her authority. They were like storms that rose, raged for awhile, and then ceased, leaving only a memory behind. She endures because she is planted on the rock of truth. What was true in the day of the Apostles is true to day and what made heroes in that day makes heroes to day. The saints of old are not an extinct race. We have saints to-day; we have to-day souls as filled with the fire and zeal for God as the saints of old. We have a spirit of divine loyalty in the Church to-day that would as willingly shed its blood and sacrifice its life, as did the apostles or those who succeeded on this earth so long will this enthus-iasm endure. As long as the faith of the Catholic Church lives on earth, so long will souls be found here willing to give all for God, ready to make absolute sacrifice, not only of all they love, but sacrifice, not only of all they love, but of life itself, for the greater honor and glory of God. The Catholics of this age have a mighty work before them. "No great work was ever achieved without enthusiasm." Let us gird our loins for the task. The spirit of the pontificate of Pius X is "ignis ardens." Let us take a brand from the Church's holoceute, and rushing forth set the Let us take a brand from the Church s holocaust, and rushing forth, set the world aslame. "Oh, Holy Spirit! Fill the hearts of Thy faithful with Thy sacred fire, and Thou shalt renew the face of the earth."—Father Phelan in Western Watchman.

Combes' Order Resented.

Paris, April 9.—Premier Combes' order for the removal of crucifixes and other religious emblems from court houses is causing agitation in Paris and throughout the provinces. At Havre the workmen declined to take down the sacred images, and at Lyons the refusal of the workmen to do the same thing compelled the authorities to call upon officials of the Bureau of Puc-lic Architecture for aid.

In order to prevent demonstrations on the removal of crucifixes, etc., from the Palace of Justice and other tribunals in Paris the work is being done behind closed doors.

BINDER TWINE

FARMERS' COMPANY'S RED STAR BINDER TWINE 550 FT TO THE POUND.

Co-operation

8,000 Farmers

This is the Company that brought co-operation into Canada, and has made it an unparalled success. For twelve years we have fought like demons to keep it anchored among Canadian agriculturists, in the interest of their homes and children. Some of them have been sceptical, others indifferent, disloyal, and bitter against their neighbors who hold a little of this phenomenal stock and went with us through twelve succesthis phenomenal stock and went with us through twelve successive harvests, while many others forget that oo-operation is the sheet anchor and only salvation of the Canadian farmer as against monopoly, combine, and trusts, that are rampant in this Dominion to-day. Man's first duty is to protest his own home. In 1898, when there was a binder twine famine in the land, we placed the output of our twine mill on the market at 7½ cents per pound, while our opponents secured in Ontario 14c., and in Manitoba and the North-West Territories 16c. and 18c. Our Manitoba and the North-West Territories 16c. and 18c. Our twine, without exception, every season has been sold at a profit of three-quariers of a cent a pound, year in and year out, and once our prices are set we never deviate from or altar them. With our mighty ramification of small share holders we are wholly independent of free trade, convict labor-made twine, or the never-ceasing bitter enmity of the agricultural implement manufacturers and their agents, who don't want co-operation to succeed in this land. With all their might and wily ways, however, they cannot prevent it from the Atlantic to the Pacific, if the farmers will only act intelligently and be solidly united. Cotton is a mighty combine at 17 cents per pound, united. Cotton is a mighty combine at 17 cents per pound, and hogs under the absolute control of the existing packers at $4.50 a hundred in Manitoba and the North West should set the world to thinking, while the little Kingdom of Denmark, an example to all thoughtful people, has been building up a solid empire through true co-operation, so making her people dictators instead of slaves, and placing on the market in the best form, at the highest prices, her country's output. Indifference, scepticism and ignorance of the farmers simply removes and crushes these Canadian co-operative factories out of competition. Farmers, you know the rest. We have nothing more to say. If no farmer agent in your locality, make application at once.
