America, Japan and the Pacific

(continued from page 3.) playing the star role, would outshine them both. For after all is said and done, the military over-lord of the earth of to-day is Russia.

Clinging to the jumping off edge of the extreme East is a string of not very fertile islands called Nippon. She has succeeded in winning the enmity of both Russia and Germany and also of China. She is straining her every effort to patch up her armor as well as she might. The United States—fourteen times as big as she in area and twice in number of people and prospering as no other people on the face of the globe, and heaven only knows how many times richer than Japan—sitting six thousand miles away thinks that the little heathen is spilling for a fight with her. Japan would certainly laugh, if it were not so downright heartrending.—Adachi Kinnosuke in "Harper's Weekly."

Practical Tribute To Our Reservists

(Editor Mail and Advocate) Sir,—I see in the papers that five or six hundred Newfoundland have volunteered for the Navy. After the expiration of the war I am willing to take on deck crews for all our Atlantic mail ships, six or eight in number, permanently under two years agreement paying them sea wages plus a bonus of £5 per annum for good behaviour, etc. These men will be constantly employed. If you care to put this before them I beg that you will do so.

I am, Sir, Your obedient servant, (Sg.) A. MAITLAND KERSEY, Manager-in-Chief Services.

Obituary

MR. W. J. RYALL

"Cheery and kind, liked and admired by all, a friend to each, and a citizen of unblemished name"—would be a sufficient obituary to the memory of Mr. Wm. J. Ryall who died last night at the General Hospital. On Monday afternoon last, seeing the seriousness of his patient's case, Dr. Fraser decided on an immediate operation, and the deceased was hurried from his home to the Hospital, where a very serious operation was performed on the head, the sufferer having an abscess on the brain.

It was hoped that after the ordeal all might be well, but alas for human skill. Mr. Ryall gradually sank, and death followed last evening. Deceased was one of our best known and respected citizens, he had a host of friends of all creeds, and classes. As a musician he shone in our local circles, having from early years evinced a great inclination towards the profession of music. He also had considerable skill as an artist and some of his paintings and drawings deserve a place among the best amateur production. His every latest portrait was that of His Grace-Elect Monsignor Roache, which was executed in color.

Mr. Ryall was a nephew of the late Dean Born of loving memory, and to whom was very much attached. A widow and seven children, two brothers (Thomas and Valentine) and a mother are left to mourn the loss of this good husband, son and brother. To them the Mail and Advocate offers sympathy—May his soul rest in peace.

MRS PHILIP MALONE

Many friends in the city and elsewhere will be sincerely sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Philip Malone, which occurred at family home (Quidi Vidi Road) yesterday afternoon.

The deceased was loved by all who knew her, she had many endearing qualities, and homely virtues, but first and foremost amongst all, was a winning and pleasing disposition that was insuperable in its happy effects. Those who called her friend, truly found her so in the more substantial and tangible proofs of a sincere and loyal friendship.

Mrs. Malone was indeed a good and exemplary mother, a faithful wife and a true friend. In deeds of charity and benevolence she was always a foremost though unobtrusive patron, and no work undertaken on behalf of charity or the church was forgotten by her aid. She has done her duty well, her years were not immune from those cares and anxieties which is the common lot of all, but ever faithful to life's duties, to her love of home and its demands, and with her soul left into merciful hands of God. She passed into the, fortified and gladdened by the last sacrament of Mother Church.

A large family (a husband, two sons and six daughters) are left to mourn this good parent's loss, and to them this writer offers sincere condolence, and in which the Mail and Advocate joins.

Precipitant Needed

When it became known at New York yesterday that the Lusitania had been sunk by a German torpedo, there was great excitement, and on Wall Street—the great money—a small panic followed.

A message to Messrs. McCurdy and Co. reads:—"News that the passengers of the Lusitania were saved caused a sharp rally, as the market had feared otherwise, in which case the United States would certainly have been involved with Germany. The market is likely to be unsettled for the immediate future," as Uncle Sam has been in the immediate past.

A Record Contest

Last night there was a record house at Rossley's. The high-class and talented artists, Mr. Ballard Brown and Miss Madge Locke, are the finest artists ever seen here, and as for their voices, well they are singers that really sing.

The contest was a huge success, and there were many competitions. Mr. Rossley intends to show the audience another novelty sooner, that for pure originality has never been equaled. One thing, the Rossleys always have something new to put forward. The 1st. prize was won by an elderly gentleman who was a first-class dancer, the gentleman's name, Taylor.

2nd prize won by Miss Perry, 3rd prize by Miss Georgina Squires, there were so many competitors all could not take part. The children's contest takes place today at the matinee. Humdreds turned away last night.

"Ours in the West End"

There was as usual a good house at the popular little theatre last night. The pictures are all new and of the very best, and the two singers were loudly applauded.

At the Nickel

The bill at the Nickel to-day is for the children. True, but the big children too may see it to their advantage, and enjoy it equally as well as the little ones. Gohest Parker's great story "The going of the White Swan" is a most charming film, whilst that very funny comedy drama "An Embarassing Predicament," which really is embarrassing, is just going to make you throw off that serious face. See the Nickel to-night.

The Lion and the Mouse

Commencing with a 3 o'clock matinee and concluding with to-night's performances, patrons of the Casino will bid farewell to the beautiful photo-play "The Lion and the Mouse."

On Monday next two exceptional features are to be offered to the picture-loving public. Firstly, the splendid drama "The Daughters of Men" in five parts, and secondly by the extremely funny farce comedy, entitled "The Billionaire" in three acts. These attractions conjointly making the most excellent evening's entertainment of its kind ever offered anywhere.

A preliminary meeting of the Council of the Alumni of St. Bonaventure's College, was held recently at the College, to arrange matters for the annual meeting. The Association extended an invitation to His Grace the Archbishop-Elect to become their guest on the morning after his consecration. His Grace, for himself and his distinguished guests, the Delegate Apostolic to Canada and Newfoundland, the Bishops of Harbour Grace and St. George's as well as those from the Maritime Provinces who may be able to attend, has accepted the Alumni's invitation, and will be their guests at the annual re-union.

The Archbishop has signified his intention to celebrate his first Arch-Episcopal Mass in the College Chapel for the Association. After breakfast the President will extend greetings to the new Archbishop and his distinguished visitors, and then Archbishop and Delegate will make short replies.

A very artistic souvenir of the event has been prepared, and everything points to the fact that the Association will establish a record this year that will be hard to beat in future.

A CORDIAL INVITATION

When getting your supplies this spring, look for the Bear on your Rubber Boots. Demand "Bear Brand" Patent Process Boots. You may see plenty of rubber boots that LOOK as good, but if you want to see how much better Patent Process boots are, call in to our sample rooms in New Martin Bldg., and we will be most happy to show you. We have the boots there cut open, so that you can see what the inside of the sole is like and how strong the uppers are.

Remember, you must not judge the cost of a pair of Rubber Boots by the amount of money you pay, but by the price as compared with the number of months' wear. By that test, our boots prove cheapest.
