SUFFRAGETTES AT MARTYR'S FUNERAL

Elaborate Preparations For Funeral of Miss Davison To-Day.

First Martyr of the Cause Receives Honor From Fellow Workers

[Canadian Press Dispatch] LONDON, June 14.—The suffragette militant as well as non-militant made elaborate preparations for the funeral to-day of Miss Emily Davison, who met her death interfering with the King's car when it was running at full gallop in the Derby on June 4.

Miss Davison was carried to Victoria station, where a train composed of between 5000 and 6000 women was organized to cross the city through the streets to St. George's Hall, Bloomsbury, where the service will be held. The women gathered early in the morning in the vicinity of militant headquarters, where the blinds were drawn and a huge banner hung from the roof. Many detachments of women arrived from the provinces to take part in the parade. Most of them were dressed in white with purple sashes, and wore black bands on their arms, while they carried wreaths of white flowers.

After midday twenty bands were to furnish the music for the procession assembled at the Victoria station, where there was a great number of wreaths bound with the motto colors and banners to be used in the procession. One of these was the legend, "Fight On; God Will the Victory," and another, "Unconquerable and not Afraid."

BRANTFORD CORDAGE COMPANY WILL MAKE BIG ENLARGEMENT

The Brantford Cordage Company have decided to make a large addition to their plant, including the installation of at least 100 additional spinners and other preparation machines. There will be a large expenditure of money on the most modern machinery and devices, and the capacity will be increased over 3000 tons of binder twine annually.

This, of course, will involve the employment of a large number of additional hands. The popularity of the company's products and a fine organization are responsible for this increase in the factory facilities, as under present conditions it has been found impossible to handle the increasing home and export business, and many large orders have had to be refused.

This is the last strictly Canadian Cordage Company in existence out of some nine companies organized at about the same time, and both prison plants are also closed.

The placing of binder twine on the free list has made this particular line of business in Canada most difficult, but this individual plant is now three times as large as originally and in splendid condition. The concern has been unusually fortunate in buying raw materials, and were in shape for large profits had it not been for the fire in January, two months before prices were fixed at several cents higher per pound than last year. Manila fibre advanced no less than 90 per cent, in four months.

The new warehouse is about completed. It is a fine building, and capable of taking care of the increased output. The new machinery has been ordered and will be ready for shipment in a few weeks, and building operations will be started shortly.

THE INFORMER RECEIVES STAB

"Budgie" Webber Attacked By Gunmen But Refuses to Talk.

[Canadian Press Dispatch] NEW YORK, June 14.—"Bridgie" Webber, one of the four gamblers who testified against Police Lieutenant Becker and the gunman convicted of the murder of Herman Rosenthal, another gambler, was stabbed in the shoulder shortly after midnight this morning under circumstances which he seemed loath to explain.

He was in the St. Vincent's Hospital this morning suffering from pain and weak from loss of blood, but his wound will have no serious result unless blood poisoning sets in. Although branded by some of his former associates in the underworld as a "squealer" in the Rosenthal case, the "informer" closed up tight when detectives tried to pry from him at the hospital this morning the story of the attack upon him.

At first, Webber tried to hide even his own identity, and the fact that he had been wounded. The stabbing occurred on East Eighth street. Webber tried to walk away on the arm of a friend, hiding the wound, but on Broadway in front of Grace church he sank exhausted and admitted to a policeman that he had been stabbed. An ambulance carried him to the hospital, where the flow of blood was stopped and where later Webber's identity was discovered.

ODDS FAVOR AMERICAN TEAM

Another Big Polo Match is Scheduled For To-Day At New York.

[Canadian Press Dispatch] NEW YORK, June 14.—All conditions were favorable to-day for another thrilling battle in the international polo cup series. The ideal weather for the game, such as the first contest was favored with on Tuesday has continued all the week, and under fair skies to-day, the green at Meadowbrook, on Long Island, was in a fine shape for fast work.

The gossip among the 20,000 or more enthusiasts who began looking to the course this morning, was considerably more hopeful, from an American viewpoint, than when the crowds turned out on Tuesday, dubious over the prospect of a successful defense of the cup from the challengers. The assurance given by the defeat of the British team however, by a score of 5 1/2 goals to 10 to 7 in favor of the British to an event thing, and to just to explain sport loving majority, regardless of bets, there seemed a certainty of a close and exciting struggle, with the chances slightly in favor of the home men.

Twin Colts. Mr. Ross Swartout of Newport formerly of Brantford, is the proud possessor of twin mare colts, a recent addition to his stable. Both are dot under control before it reached the main building. The gas plant, however is completely gutted.

Crazy Man At Large

Bridge which crosses the Grand River and that he had shot at a train which was crossing the bridge and also that he was undressing and acting like a crazy man. P. C's. Feller and Blanchard responded with the patrol. When they arrived there they found a man there but he did not prove to be the right one. The Willows were searched but the "desperado" could not be located. One of the policemen said that probably the woman had seen a man with his hand up and at the same time a torpedo on the track was exploded.

Rails Arrived.

NO STRIKE ON MONDAY

OFFICIAL announcement was made this morning that there will be no strike of the carpenters on Monday. There is no reason to believe that any agreement has been reached yet satisfactory to both parties. The men will continue to work nine hours a day, which is the bone of contention.

I.O.D.E. Look Scouts Over

Last night the Headquarters Patrol was presented with the Brant Chapter I. O. D. E. rifle won in the recent marksmanship competition. The patrol was drawn up in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium, and as the ladies of the chapter took their seats on the platform it came sharply to the salute. A display of scoutcraft was then given. Messages in Morse and semaphore were quickly transmitted, the messages being given and checked by the ladies. The vice regent of the chapter, Mrs. G. J. Smith complimented the instructors on their Royal Life Saving Society work and expressed deep interest in the various badges which they wore. All members of the patrol wore their swimming and life saving badges and can carry out the practical work of life saving in the water as smartly as they illustrate the work on land.

The rifle team was then lined up in front and before the rifle was presented, the vice-regent on behalf of the Brant Chapter, gave a brief address. Mrs. G. J. Smith congratulated the team on its all round efficiency and expressed the appreciation of the Daughters of the Empire for the fine work which the scout movement is carrying out. "I have much pleasure in presenting this rifle on behalf of the Brant Chapter to a patrol which is living up to the high ideals of the movement, and wish to assure you that the Daughters of the Empire will be pleased to help you at any time," the vice-regent said, as Instructor James G. Matthews received the splendid rifle on behalf of the team.

Accident at Ayr.

The fire was not under control before it reached the main building. The gas plant, however is completely gutted.

LIBERALS DO NOT SEEM TO LIKE WHITEWASH

Complete Exoneration of Ministers is Distasteful to Many.

Criticism is Directed in The Liberal Press Against Committee.

[Canadian Press Dispatch] NEW YORK, June 14.—A cable to The Tribune from London says: The opinions on the report of the Marconi committee on the whole follow party lines, but even in Liberal quarters the feeling is pretty general that the majority report should not have so completely exonerated the ministers involved. "The Nation" a leading Liberal weekly says: "The view of a section of the party is that Lord Murray should be repudiated, that Sir Rufus Isaac should resign and that Mr. Lloyd George should express his regrets. As to the future a good many Liberals consider that much depends on Mr. Lloyd George's speech in the forthcoming debate in the House. It is certain that the debate will have a powerful influence either for good or ill on the fortunes of the party."

Regret is expressed that the report of the Liberal chairman should have been thrown over by what was in effect a party vote, and all the more so because many of the rank and file of Liberals consider Sir Albert Spicer a good report and in accordance with the evidence, and think that the report which has been carried against him by Mr. Falconer, Mr. Booth and the other Liberal members of the committee and their allies has a too obviously whitewashing character. Even as a matter of policy or strategy, there are Liberals to be found who deem the attitude adopted by the chairman was far better for the Liberal party. It may be added that friends of the Prime Minister believe his views to be that it is his duty to carry out the operation of the parliament act in respect to the bills now before parliament and not to be deflected from that course by any personal issues. There was a scene of much animation yesterday when the report and the minutes of the proceedings were issued from the vote office, and members for some time studied and discussed the documents in the lobby.
