KANE'S RED SOX COME TO LIFE AND BEAT GUELPH

After Losing Seven Straight Games, Dame Fortune Smiles
on Luckless Red Sox Once More and They Walloped
Their Old Hoodoo 5-0.

The Red Sox sprang a surprise on Guelph Saturday when they won the last game of the series from the Blue Jays and shut them out 5-0. It was the first game they had captured since they defeated Peterboro last in the previous week. The win came just at the time when most people expected Louis Cook's aggregation to make it 6 in a row.

The victory of the Red Sox over the Royal City team is due to the splendid pitching of Gero, and the excellent support which his team mates gave him. This, coupled with the fact that the Sox got hits when they needed them, enabled Gero to pitch out a win. Gero had the visitors completely at his mercy. He struck out seven and allowed seven hits.

Jo Keenan got himself into the twilight and won himself into the hearts of the fans when he cracked out a home run; he had three hits in four times up. Duff Slemm and Chubby Coose too shone with the Sox.

The Sox played like a ball team and showed that they have the goods if they will only deliver them. When the Brants took the field they presented a changed line-up. Powell played first base and Ivers was sent out to right field. Whether this change was responsible for the spurt the team took or not, the fact remains that they played like pennant winners. Powell is certainly an improvement on Ivers at first base, and his plays in the next game like he did on Saturday should be kept in mind. It cannot be said that Ivers is a huge success in the field, as he is too low on his feet. In big grounds like Hamilton, he would be lost. Keenan seems to fill the gap at shortstop which has been playing havoc with the team all season. With "Joe" at short, Powell at first and Pitchers Coose, Clermont, Lill and Gero going along smoothly, a fast hard-hitting outfield would put the team in good shape, and with over a month yet to play the Sox should be able at least to lead the second division teams or drop into fourth place.

The usual large Saturday afternoon crowd was missing, due probably to the fact that the team is going down hill and also on account of the large excursion which left the city for Niagara Falls and Buffalo. The Brants scored 1 in the fourth, 2 in the sixth, and one each in the seventh and eighth. The score:

WIFE AND TWO CHILDREN were found dead hanging by a rope from an iron bedstead by Robert Baxter, coal hewer, employed at Dawham Colliery, Seaham Harbor, Durham, England. The mother, it appears, told the two eldest boys to play outside, as she was going to visit a friend at Sunderland. The house was locked up and when the husband reached home he found in the kitchen a note written by his wife saying she was unhappy, but did not blame him. The woman was a native of Southwick, and had been heard to say she wished to return there. The bodies, when discovered, had been dead about three hours. Deceased woman was quite cheerful when her husband left for work.

SNAPSHOTS of the Queen Mother as she re-entered her carriage were taken by several of the girl students at Queen Alexandra's House, Kensington Gore, London, England. Queen Alexandra and the Dowager Empress of Russia, on leaving the Horse Show at Olympia the other day, paid a visit to an exhibition of past and present students' work. The Queen Mother showed her appreciation of the exhibits by making several purchases of bronzes and needlework. As she re-entered her carriage, several of the girls expressed a desire to take photographs of her, and her Majesty smilingly ordered the carriage to remain until quite a number of snapshots had been taken.

Marquard is some pitcher. He won his ninth straight on Sunday.

The winners at Hamilton on Saturday were mostly at short odds.

Though an Archer but in name.
We will wager all the same.
That no archer of old could take your place
And send arrow from his bow
Truer than the ball you throw
When you catch a runner napping off his base.
Find an old-time archer.

Three cheers a couple of times for Saturday's victory.

Hamilton opens a three-day clash here this afternoon.

It is wonderful when a Guelph player doesn't hit the ball over the fence.

It was worth one whole quarter to watch Gabby Ivers cavorting in right field.

"Hitting in the Pinches," a new play, in which Duff Slemm is starring.

If the Brantford club gets good pitching it can be depended upon to give a good argument.

Matty Lamond has three fingers on his throwing hand which he can't bend. A mere bagatelle for Lammy.

Over 3,000 people went out of the city Saturday, and yet there was a fair crowd to watch the trail-enders play. What would this town be like with a winner?

The title of the latest novelette, "The Rejuvenation of Joe Joe Keenan." It is a complete contradiction to the theory that ball players at 60 years old should be Oslerized.

There is certainly a merry battle for first place in the league, Ottawa's two victories over London make the Senators look formidable, while Guelph must be reckoned with.

Down in Ottawa they put iced on the ball to stop Bobby Heck's effectiveness. Opposing pitchers at Brantford put smoke on the spheroid and do it quite effectively.

Chubby Coose allowed no stolen bases on Saturday, which makes Coose and the Second gold watch better friends. The grand work of Chubby is one of the bright spots of an otherwise dismal season.

It is rather difficult how Jacobson expects to become a big league umpire. If Jake gets into Ottawa and commits the same number of crimes as he did here last week, it will be worth recording how he gets out of Ottawa.

The President of the Brantford baseball club has broken all records this year in spending money to get a ball team. It is doubtful if there is another franchise owner in the league who would not have been discouraged long before this.

OTTAWA DOWNED LEAGUE LEADERS

Rogers Twirled Great Ball
Against the London Club.

OTTAWA, July 28.—After a pitching duel against "Lefty" Rogers, Bobby Heck retired in the fifth inning of Saturday's game between Ottawa and London with the score one all. Beebe, who relieved him, passed Shaughnessy and Robertson and grooved one over to Pete Powers, who laced it to the limits for a two-bagger, scoring both runners, and making it 3 to 1. Thereafter London did not get a man past second. Beebe and Heck each allowed only one hit, but each bingle proved a score.

Rogers led the visitors to five hits, only two of which went to the outfield. In the early stages London had a man on third several times, but twice Rogers fanned the second and third out, and on another occasion he knocked down a liner and threw the ball as evidence, and refused to return it. He was banished from the grounds, and kept under police surveillance for the rest of the afternoon. The victory, coupled with Brantford's victory over Guelph, put Ottawa in second position. Only two games separate the first three teams. Score:—

London	000001000-1
Ottawa	00001200X-3

HAMILTON BEAT ST. THOMAS

Garlow Was Hit Hard, But the Bingles Well Scattered
HAMILTON, July 28.—Hamilton took the last game of the series from St. Thomas here on Saturday, making it two out of three on the series. The attendance was fairly large, despite the fact that the ponies are running here, and several other attractions are being run off. Garlow was doing the heaving for the Hamilton's and though he was hit hard he kept them well scattered, and the support that he received was of the gilt edge variety. Howick was Manager Ort's selection, and he certainly gave a good account of himself. Score:—

Hamilton	20100000X-3
St. Thomas	000020000-2

Peterboro Takes Last Game From Berlin

PETERBORO, July 28.—Peterboro took the last game of the series from the Berlin club, when Pitcher Bramble was pounded to all corners of the lot. The final score was 10 to 1. The score:—

Peterboro	00031204X-10 13 1
Berlin	010000000-1 9 3

Wet Beggers Unashamed.

The London ghetto is not yet rid of the schnorrer (beggar), and the audacity of some of the fraternity is simply amazing. In contrast to the ordinary house-to-house beggar, he assumes a gentlemanly appearance, gives evasive reasons for asking assistance, and is usually not satisfied with small favors, being quite indignant when such are offered.

His successful plea is the phrase, "All Israel are brethren," and no self-respecting Jew with anything to spare in his purse can resist his oily tongue.

Recently a well-known Jewish worker observed a poor co-religionist standing near his house. Shipping a half crown into his hand, the wealthy man made the mendicant the conventional greeting.

"Thank you, sir," said the poor fellow.

"Don't thank me; it's a pleasure to give."

"Ah!" exclaimed the schnorrer. "Why not give me half a sovereign, then both of us could enjoy ourselves thoroughly."

One of the most peculiar things about him is that he is not at all ashamed of his calling.

Next Season May See Montreal and Toronto in the Canadian League, is Latest Movement

Indications point to a changed Canadian League next season and, taking for granted that President Barrow, of the International League, will make good in securing a better location for the Montreal franchise, thereby making it possible to incorporate a Canadian League club in Montreal, and this brings about a possibility of including a team in Toronto as well.

This matter has been thoroughly gone into by the Toronto and Montreal magnates who are about to take up the matter next season.

MONTREAL, July 28.—Edward Grant Barrow, president of the International League of Baseball Clubs, admitted here Saturday that there is a possibility of Montreal's franchise being transferred to some other city better located geographically on the circuit.

"Some of the club owners in the league would like to see the franchise transferred to some point better located geographically than Montreal," he said. "A good deal of additional traveling expense is entailed by traveling here and some of the clubs might save money by a transfer."

The Montreal club is not a big club producer. The Montreal club plays to a smaller attendance than any club in the league and visiting clubs to this city barely pay their traveling expenses on the percentage of the gate receipts here.

"However, I do not think any change will occur this season. If anything at all is done in this direction it will not be until after the fall.

INDIAN TEA CROP DAMAGE.

Serious floods in South Sylhet and Cachar have affected tea prospects in both districts. The output from many gardens is very much behind hand and the reports of the damage done by hail are more amply confirmed. In some districts the bushes are absolutely riddled, and the loss is stated to be so heavy as to preclude any possibility of making it up to the normal output. Unfortunately, too, it is the fine tea gardens which have suffered most. This misfortune will tend toward raising the price of all tea.
