

ispatch.) | any one. He must be an all around spe-cialist, and there is probably no admiral became more alive to the in the British service who fulfils this all and as the campaign against important condition to the same extent in spy grew one heard a great as Prince Louis. deal of talk about the First Sea Lord be- As naval adviser to the Military Ining a "German Prince." Everywhere one spector General of Fortifications (1892-1894), went the same cry was heard. Why was Prince Louis acquired valuable experience was he not dismissed? And yet when coastal defence and gunnery. Seeing also Prince Louis of Battenberg resigned it that he was twice connected with the Britcame like something of a shock to those ish Naval Intelligence Department, the who recognized his worth and understood first time as assistant director in 1899how much he had done for the British 1901, when the enemy presumptive was navy. But England, or rather the "man France, and subsequently as director, in

GHURKAS ARRIVING AT THE FRONT

ng a "German Prince." Everywhere one vent the same cry was heard. Why was German chief of the Admiralty? Why the east bank of the river they endangered but brought tears of delight to the eyes. not believe that Shantung has been Ja- attention to the gentle task of "saving The faces of the soldiers fairly glowed. panned even more effectively than Man- their face' that they, like the ostrich, when (Special Dispatch.) VILNA, Nov. 21. The flank of our column. "Our commander immediately decided There was not a sign of fatigue, not a churia. To tell the average Chinaman it believes it is out of sight, leave the bulk Three wounded soldiers with the St. "Our commander immediately decided incre was not a sign of fundation of their anatomy available to be k;cked!"

navy. But England, or rather the man France, and sussequences of their anatomy available to be ket in the street," clamored for his dismissal, 1902-1904, when Russia in a similar capacity in the street," clamored for his dismissal, 1902-1904, when Russia in a similar capacity that she will abide by the terms of the Hear Threats of Conquest. who have been brought into hospitals here, vanced. In a few minutes a pitched bat- whose bravery the soldiers had compli- Anglo-Japanese alliance and preserve the And while the officials in Peking, con through the accident of birth, no doubt realm, there is little which he does not the commenced. Our infantry defield in a mented with their rousing cheers, stopped integrity of China is to provoke ironical fronted with their knowledge of the true long chain, and regardless of losses went at a small group of men. and his fellow admirals, decided to satisfy the public demand and quit. The public demand and quit demand and quit. The public demand and quit demand quit forward on the run. Under a terrible "What party is this? asked the gen-"Humiliation!" shricked an American come to an amicable arrangement with the Then, and only then, did England real-Ise that it had lost the services of one of inaval officer. Prince Louis when afloat how the Russians fight and their devotion soldiers, but one of these wounded men rifle and machine gun fire our men at a eral. The remains of the Third battalion educated Chinese at me the other day with Japanese for the occupation of the railise that it had lost the services of one of naval officer, Prince Louis when atioat the greatest naval strategists it ever had a served on of the battalion that made the charge on the the greatest naval strategists it ever had a served on commander he became a most to their officers, which I was the battalion that made the charge on the the greatest naval strategists it ever had a served on commander he became a most to their officers, which I was the battalion that made the charge on the the greatest naval strategists it ever had a served on commander he became a most to their officers, which I was the battalion that made the charge on the the provide the services of one of the battalion that made the charge on the to their officers, which I was the battalion that made the charge on the to their officers, which I was the battalion that made the charge on the to their officers, which I was the battalion that made the charge on the to their officers, which I was the battalion that made the charge on the to their officers, which I was the battalion that made the charge on the to their officers, which I was the battalion that made the charge on the to their officers, which I was the battalion that made the charge on the to their officers, which I was the battalion that made the charge on the to their officers which I was the battalion that made the charge on the to their officers which I was the battalion that made the charge on the to their officers which I was the battalion that made the charge on the to their officers which I was the battalion that made the charge on the second to the ise that it had lost the services of one of the most loyal subjects of the of the province of Shantung.

by the war, and further, that of its industries are now fe beneficial effects of the order ed in Canada for war supp Lomer concludes his mess

Lomer concludes his messa this striking passage: "We all have confidence in of the war favorable to the right and justice; and there in the trust of 'Dieu et mo We are doing 'Dusiness as u our farms and in our shop mines, warehouses, factories hees, looking confidently for the dawn of a brighter era of long continued peace and of long continued peace and ity-in our province and Don well as in the Empire at lan MANITOBA HEAR Sir Rodmond Roblin, I Manitoba, says that new large an acreage prepared time, nor ever was it so t done as in 1914. With an done as in 1914. With an crop for the year 1915, he to ited in saying that Manitob crease its products most sub The outlook from an all point of view, is much the in Manitoba's history. Sir also refers to the afct that son's Bay Railway, every which is within the boun Manitoba, wil be completed

Nelson in 1916. "Manitoba," he adds, "like provinces of the Domin keenly the position in whic, pire is placed at the presen is ready, yea anxious, not her part, but to make such sacrifices as will insure a c of the advantages that she a part of the great British SASKATCHEWAN'S M

The people of Saskatchi Hon. Walter Scott, prem been heart, and soul and po been heart, and soul and po all British in the policy and of the terrible war, eager t and any sactifices to help British arms, principles a tions. In common with t the world, the commerce trice of the province hav caped inconvenience from the outbreak of such a gift dict has seen out of this flict, but even out of.

alfairs, strengthened co gained, so well have our withstood the disturbing The general feeling of care

The general feeling of carry versais, that we shall emerg condition and surer found before. One and all reco the concentrated efforts ments and businss bodis must be devoted towards conjulture and production riculture and product er natural resources w newan, as throughout mitless—and the rec ignal of what will be king of his lengthy (Continued on Pa

King. It is indeed, a remarkable fact that ficers and "tars" who served in the Medi-the official organ of the Russian army, mander, though losing men by the dozen, mander asked the Ninth company to step

It is indeed, a remarkable fact that while every one in England is familiar who served in the late nineties, under the tranaman of the size of the leading british generals, very little is known outs side naval ports of the heads of the size ide naval ports of the heads of the size ide naval ports of the heads of the size ide naval ports of the heads of the size ide naval ports of the heads of the size ide naval ports of the heads of the size ide naval ports of the heads of the size ide naval ports of the heads of the size ide naval ports of the heads of the size ide naval ports of the heads of the size ide naval ports of the heads of the size ide naval ports of the heads of the size ide naval ports of the heads of the size ide naval ports of the heads of the size ide naval ports of the heads of the size ide naval ports of the heads of the size ide naval ports of the heads of the size ide naval ports of the heads of the size ide naval ports of the heads of the size ide naval ports of the heads of the size idea British generals, very little is known of the sis-side naval ports of the heads of the sis-ter service. There have been a few ex-small squadrop operating at manoeuvres side naval ports of the heads of the sis-ter service. There have been a few ex-ceptions, but the general public knows lit-tile of Prince Louis of Battenberg. They only knew that "a German" was directing by wireless from Whitehead the move-ments of every ship and sailor.

by wireless from Whitehead the move-ments of every ship and sailor. Prince Louis of Battenberg was born sixty years ago, not in Germany, but at Gratz, in Austria. His mother was a Polish countess. His father was Prince Alexander of Hesse, younger son of the smaller craft with huge beams of his smaller craft with huge beams of his smaller craft with huge beams

PEKING, Nov. 21. knowing that it would be folly to encoureign official in the Salt department re-

This is a land of lamentations.' China age Japan to an act of hostility against-eds tears of bitter regret because she China at this time of stress in the world.

ar footing and because the lack in those all they can do, but it recalls a very strik-vo directions has contributed to the loss ing ejaculation made by a prominent for-

There is not a Chinese native who does cently, that "the Chinese devote so much no efficient army, because she has no hustle around the diplomatic table and try to put what army she has upon a to save their "face" -- and Shantung. It is <text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text> and the state of the second of the