THE PROBS

Toronto, June 16.—The low pressure which was over Ontario yesterday morning has disappeared north of the St. Lawrence and the great lakes from the west. The weather continues cool and showery in the western provinces and frost occurred almost generally this morning in Saskatchewan and more locally in Manitoba, while over most of Alberta the minimum temperature was well above the freezing point.

FORECASTS

Moderate to fresh south, veering to west winds, fair and warmer to-day.
Showers during the night and on Thursday.

INSPECTED BOARDING
City Engineer Jones this morning paid a visit to the scene of the Crompton fire where he inspected the new eight foot boarding which has been erected at the site of the new building. He found it satisfactory.

PECULIAR CASE

A Peculiar case 1C-78908 A peculiar case came before the local authorities for which there was no legal remedy, inasmuch as the criminal law of the Dominion does not cover the offence against the morals of the community.

Mrs. Laura Welch, early in April left her home and husband in Peterboro to take up her residence here with another man named Albert Powell.

With him she lived with her three children at 6 Nelson street until the Children's Aid Society got on to their track. They were found to be known as Mr. and Mrs. Pierce and he was working for the city. The facts of the case became known and the man's employment was taken from him. The atmosphere for the children aged between eleven and three, was decidedly immoral, so the C.A.S. took charge of them and subsequently turned them over to the Peterboro Shelter, in which they had been previously cared for.

Powell was given transportation to Peterboro and cleared out, and later Mrs. Welch did likewise, going to Toronto.

Thus did the city get rid of a rather unwelcome set of visitors, for Mrs. Welch gave signs of being very much aggrieved at the intervention of the Children's Aid Society and threatened dire calamity upon those who had interrupted her plans for a stay in the city.

Laid at Rest

ROBERT MOORE
The obituary was laid over the remains of the late Robert Moore yesterday morning in Greenwood Cemetery by the Rev. Mr. Hodgins of Stratford.

On the arrival of the train from Stratford the funeral procession formed up and proceeded to the graveside.
A large number of friends and relatives were present. The Doric Lodge was well represented and took part in the service.

A large number of beautiful flowers showed how large was his circle of friends.

FIVE GRANDSONS

Rome, June 16.—Five grandsons of Garibaldi, the patriot, left for the front to-day. In addition to General Ricciotti Garibaldi, their father, and their mother, a large crowd gathered at the station to wish the departing soldiers success. Several short addresses were made at the station and as the train pulled out there were cries of "Long live Trent," "Long live Trieste" and "Long live the Garibaldi brothers."

TURKISH OFFENSIVE WEAKENING

Bomb Has No Terrors—British Tenaciously Hold the Positions.

LONDON, June 15.—The following announcement concerning operations at the Dardanelles was given out officially to-day.

"The situation on the Gallipoli Peninsula has developed into trench warfare. After our success on the 4th inst. the Turks have evinced a great respect for our offensive, and by day and night they have to submit to captures of trenches.

"On the night of the 11th-12th of June two regiments of a British regular brigade made a simultaneous attack on the advanced Turkish trenches, and after severe fighting, which included the killing of many snipers, succeeded in maintaining themselves, in spite of bombs, in the captured position.

"According to reports received by the Italian general staff, Austria is indirectly encouraging Serbia in her Albanian plan, the nature of which is indicated by the recent incursion of Serbian troops into that country. It is reported here that Serbia and Greece have reached an agreement respecting the partition of Albania, trusting once it is accomplished that it will be ratified by the peace conference.

"What appears unusual in the situation is that Austria, whose ultimatum to Serbia resulted in the war, instead of seizing the present opportunity to resume the offensive against Belgrade, now that part of the Serbian troops are engaged in Albania, has removed some of her forces from the Serbian front to face the Italians.

"The witness replied he did not know what schedule time meant, but Captain Turner had the entire discretion.

Mr. Booth said he received no word from Captain Turner during the voyage. On the morning of the day the Lusitania was torpedoed, the Cunard company asked the admiralty to communicate with the ship concerning threats against it.

The attorney for the survivors asked Mr. Booth why he had stated the Lusitania was being run for reasons of economy, merely to pay expenses.
The witness said the bookings of first and second class passengers were nearly normal, but that the number of steerage passengers was only one-third the normal, which occasioned a loss.

Donald MacMaster, representing the Canadian Government, asked Mr.
Booth whether there had been installed on the Lusitania an apparatus for the detection of submarines. The witness responded he had no knowledge of any workable devices of this sort being installed. Mr. Mac-Master then asked whether by calling out both watches all the boilers could have been worked as it was admitted the Lusitania had sufficient supply of coal. Baron Mersey, president of court of inquiry, interrupted:
"Whatever difference would the speed make?" He pointed out that the result of the inquiry indicated that a speed of 18 knots might have been regarded as ample to escape a submarine. Mr. Booth said no instructions had been sent to the Lusitania to run at full speed through the danger zone. He also said that on account of the war there were many poorly trained men in the crew.

The attorney for the stewards' Generation, asked whether there were Germans working on the Cunard Goods New York. Mr. Booth replied that perhaps German-Americans or Americans of German descent were employed there. The attorney then asked whether it would have been possible for a spy to board the Lusitania for the purpose of signalling submarines.
Mr. Booth answered that he was not prepared to say this would have been impossible, but the company took all necessary steps to prevent such action.

Baron Mersey elicited from Mr.
Booth that the Lusitania had neither coal nor firemen enough on board to make the trip across under full boiler power. Addressing Sir Edward Carson, Baron Mersey said he desired to know where the danger zone began and whether arrangements could not have been made for the ship to traverse this zone in the danger zone. The attorney-general promised to endeavor to supply this information.

Able Seaman Quinn, who was in the crew's nest of the Lusitania, when she was struck then took the stand.
He said he saw the torpedo coming and he expressed the opinion that the Lusitania could not have escaped, even if she had been "going a hundred knots an hour."

Naval Commander Anderson, who followed Quinn, dwelling upon the importance of speed to avoid submarines, declared that if the Lusitania had made 21 knots and taken a zig-zag course she could still have reached Liverpool at the earliest possible moment for crossing the bar, and that she would have had a much greater chance to escape the submarine.

GREATEST IN HISTORY

Washington, June 16.—Former Secretary of State Bryan, in the first section of his statement on "The causelessness of war" to-day prophesied that the greatest peace-making opportunity in all history was certain to come to the United States and declared there should be a demand for an international conference with the return of peace to change the rules of international law "which seem to war rather than for the nations at peace."

Since the recruiting office was opened at the Technical College, Guelph, nearly 200 recruits have been enlisted.

SERBIANS INTEND TO SEIZE IT

New Army is on the March to Durazzo and Hope to Retain the City.

Rome, June 16.—Serbian forces are reported to be advancing south along the Albanian coast from Durazzo and Alessio, while a Montenegrin army is preparing to attack Scutari. The forces are armed with rifles and guns captured from the Austrian forces which are in disastrous retreat.

It is reported here that Serbia has delayed the occupation of Durazzo because of an understanding that Greece was to move on Berat, farther south in Albania, at the same time. If such a programme has been prepared between Greece and Serbia it is thought likely that complications may arise, although the allies have agreed to consider Albania as a side issue for the present, expecting to reach a solution of the Albanian question at the end of the war.

According to reports received by
the Italian general staff, Austria is in-
directly encouraging Serbia in her Al-
indicated by the recent incursion of

BARON MERSEY CONDUCTS AN ABLE ENQUIRY

Alligation is Made That Spy May Have Travelled on the Lusitania.

London, June 16.—The inquiry into the sinking of the Steamship Lusitania was resumed to-day with the examination of Alfred A. Booth, chairman of the board of the Cunard Steamship Company. The attorney-general, Sir Edward Carson, asked Mr. Booth why it was that the Lusitania was economizing by using only 19 of her 25 boilers at the time she was torpedoed.

"So far as submarines are concerned, there is no difference between 18 and 24 1/2 knots," Mr. Booth replied.

Mr. Carson then asked whether there was any difference between 18 knots, the speed at which the Lusitania was proceeding when attacked, and 21 knots. Mr. Booth replied that no steamer making more than 14 knots was known to have been struck by a torpedo from a submarine until the Lusitania was hit.

The witness said the Cunard Company was unable to communicate with the vessel by wireless except through the Admiralty, and therefore had given no wireless instructions to Captain Turner. General instructions were given previously covered the closing of the watertight compartments, the swinging out of boats on entering the danger zone, and an order not to slow down to take on a pilot or to lie off Liverpool for the Admiralty to communicate with the vessel's arrival. He said that all he knew relative to warnings issued to intending passengers was what he had read in the English newspapers, having received no despatch on this subject from the New York office of the company. Mr.
Booth was cross-examined by an attorney representing survivors as to whether the company "took any steps to prevent the Lusitania from doing what she did do, namely, entering the war zone on schedule."

know what schedule time meant, but
cretion.

Mr. Booth said he received no word
from Captain Turner during the voy-
