The meeting called to discuss the South ward drain project was held at 10 a.m. on Saturday last, but less than a dozen of those interested attended the meeting, and not one of those who called the meeting was present. Engineer Pierce therefore adjourned the meeting until 8 o'clock on Friday evening next.

On Sunday last the Rev. C. J. Curtis occupied very acceptably the pulpit of the Methodist church, both morning and evening, and preached two very practical sermons. His breadth of view and liberality of thought, so earnestly expressed on Sunday, most favorably impressed the congregation.

A grand exhibition each after noon of all prize stock, Brockville Fair, one of the best features of the fair.

Rideau Record: Mr. J. B. Lillie, a native of Lyn but for some time a resident of Lodi, Cal., dropped dead on the street there on Saturday the 13th inst. He was apparently in his usual health. While walking and chatting with friends he suddenly fell on his face and expired. His death was due to heart failure. The deceased was 60 years of age. He was at one time a school teacher in Leeds county but for a great many years his home has been in California. He engaged in mining and fruit raising and amassed considerable wealth. Mr. Lillie visited his old home a year and a half ago and spent some time in Smith's Falls, the guest of his old friends Mr. and Mrs. N. Hawkins.

Miss Marie Weeks daughter of Rev. L. M. Weeks of Athens, who has been spending the past week at Mr. H. Layng's cottage Rideau Lake, sang a solo very acceptably in the Baptist church on Sunday evening.

The grants to agricultural societies next year will be based on the amount that the societies devote to purely agricultural purposes this year. In view of this, it is noteworthy that the directors of Delta, Lyndhurst and Frankville Fairs did not find it necessary to make any changes in their prize list in order to qualify for all that they should receive. The circus feature has never been given undue prominence at these fairs, and now that a testing time has come we think that their government grants will be increased rather than decreased under the new regulations.

Mrs. M. O'lds of Morristown is visiting friends in Athens this week.

Mr. L. Kelsey, late of the Merchants Bank here, has been transferred.
