CRICKET TOO

Touring English Footballers May be Asked to Play Chatham and Detroit Cricketers

The proposal has been made that on the occasion of the visit of the Kent County football team to Detroit to play the touring English Pilgrims, a cricket team comprising Chatham and Detroit players should simultaneously meet them at the wickets.

The English footballers comprise such well-known cricketers as C. B. Fry, the well-known batsman, J. D. Barnes, and W. B. Wainesley, who recently distinguished himself by scoring 293 not out in a cup tie, Baron Von Reiffenstein, who travels with the footballers as referee, is a splendid cricketer and a magnificent exhibition match could be arranged.

Speaking of the proposal W. B. Wells, of the local cricket club, said it would have the enthusiastic support and co-operation of Maple City cricketers.

RICH REWARD

Substantial Recognition Assured to the Happy Individual Who Can Straighten Out the Banner's Editorial Jumble

"The tendency to-day is toward simplicity, and this is true not only where one's manner of living or style of dress is concerned, but likewise as to things of a commercial, governmental and educational nature."

This is an extract from an editorial in the Banner, headed "A Board of Education Best." The sentiment here set forth is excellent. Let us have simplicity of all things!

Later on, in the same article the following paragraph appears: "Things are different now to a greater or lesser degree than in direct ratio to the exactitude of comprehension obtained by electors concerning the actions of their representatives as the year they were in office passed, together with their judgment."

HELP!

We append directions to restore consciousness to one not possessing a rugged constitution, and having read this in frothing at the mouth. Place the patient on his back, rub his eyebrows briskly with bathwick and apply hot irons to the soles of his feet. Perhaps, though, if he is a constant reader of the Banner it would be more charitable to allow him to remain in his state of coma.

This journal offers a reward to the massive intellect who can offer the best suggestion as to what is meant in this finished product of the editorial column of the Banner. For the guidance of contestants we append the following suggestions as to what it might be:—A new receipt for lemon pie, directions for getting out a skirt pattern, an extract from a railway time table, or a Dutchman's first attempt to speak English.

Perhaps this journalistic Mont Blanc was written with the left leg when the author was standing on his head and his foot had gone to sleep.

JUDGE ROBERTSON DIES.

Passes Away Unexpectedly at Hamilton, Sept. 8.—Judge Thomas Robertson died unexpectedly yesterday afternoon at his residence on Arden avenue. He was 80 years of age. In 1876 he was elected to represent

THE LATE JUDGE ROBERTSON. Hamilton in the Dominion Parliament with F. E. Kilvert, and after serving two terms was called to the Chancery Division of the High Court of Ontario. He was superannuated about two years ago on account of ill-health. He was called to the bar in 1848, and practiced in Dundas with A. B. Wardell. He afterwards formed a partnership with the late Judge Miller, of Waterloo. His only surviving son, H. H. Robertson, is away on a trip to Parry Sound.

IMPROVEMENTS

The cemetery is being greatly improved this summer. To begin with, a new brick residence and office combined for the use of the caretaker has been almost completed. This adds materially to the appearance of the grounds. In addition to this the bridge over the creek is being shortened fifty feet, and the approaches graded with dirt taken from the creek bank. The bank will be smoothed and seeded and will present a very fine appearance.

RIOT OVER THE TREATY

Tokio Shows Anger—Two Killed and 500 Wounded.

Culmination in Japan of Dissatisfaction With the Portsmouth Peace Treaty Which is Shown in Disorderly Meetings and Very Outspoken Criticism From the Radicals, Including Count Okuma (Progressive).

Tokio, Sept. 7.—Rioting broke out here Tuesday night in connection with the dissatisfaction over the results of the peace settlement.

There were several clashes with the police and it is estimated that two were killed and 500 wounded.

The rioting ceased at midnight.

The police stations were the only property destroyed.

Tokio, Sept. 6.—(Delayed in transmission.)—The first turbulence attendant upon the popular anger over the terms of peace arranged with Russia took place to-day. A mass meeting to protest against the action of the Government was called to take place at Hibuya Park, but the metropolitan police closed the gates and attempted to prevent the assembling of the people. The municipality protested against the action of the police and finally the gates were thrown open and a large crowd gathered and voted in favor of resolutions declaring the nation humiliated and denouncing the terms upon which the treaty of peace was arranged. The crowd was serious in its conduct rather than angry and the police handled it discreetly. The gathering eventually dispersed in an orderly manner.

Later on, however, a crowd attempted to hold a meeting in the Shintomi Theatre and the police dispersed it. A portion of the crowd then proceeded to the office of the Kokumin, Shinbun, the Government organ, and a portion of the crowd made a rush at the building, hurled stones and damaged some of the machinery. Several persons were injured during the attack, but the police eventually cleared the streets and arrested a number of rioters.

The disorder is not general and the situation is not serious. Similar meetings have been held at Osaka and Nagoya which in round terms denounced the Government and asked them to resign.

Count Okuma's Opinion.

Count Okuma, leader of the Progressive party, in discussing the settlement, said he was unable to reconcile himself to the result, because the conditions preventing Russian aggression in Korea and Manchuria were insufficient. "They leave," he said, "a ample room for Russian ambition in the future. The conditions prevailing before the war were liable to repetition at any time."

"Both nations agree to evacuate Manchuria, but if China is unable to maintain order there, Russia will have an opportunity to sow seeds of war instead of removing causes for a future dispute. It leaves them exactly as before hostilities began."

BIG GRANTS

Provincial Government Send Cheques to Kent County for Good Work of Rural Schools

That Kent County schools are doing splendid work is evidenced from the returns just received by County Treasurer Fleming from the Provincial Government. This morning Mr. Fleming received a cheque from the Education Department for $1,045 for continuation class work done in the Public Schools of Kent. In addition the following Government cheques were separately received: Blenheim $100, Bothwell $100, Thamesville $100, Wallaceburg $200, Dresden $200 and Tilbury $50.

The Government also forwards a cheque for $251.25 to the credit of the rural school libraries of Kent. The County supplements the Government grant by a like amount and also bestows a money bonus for every student successful in the continuation class examinations.

NEW ENGINE

The small "pony" engine purchased by the Wallaceburg & Lake Erie electric road is being shipped back to Detroit, where it was made. The engine weighs only eight tons and was found to be too light for the work for which it was required. Its place will be taken by one weighing about twenty tons.

The discarded engine could not pull a flat car loaded with steel. The other day several men from the city thought they would ride out to the scene of operations upon a loaded car of steel drawn by the engine but found they had to get off and shove.

BUILDING PERMITS

Chief Pritchard is issuing a great number of permits these days, giving the requisite permission to those building or repairing. Among the latest is one issued to John Gilbert, for the erection of a one-story frame residence on lot 16, Pine St., one to Mary Busha, to repair the building on lot 17, the same street, and one to same person to erect a one-story frame building, 22x26 feet on lot 18, Pine St.

Charity covereth a multitude of sins, especially when it begins at home.

WON HONORS

Splendid Kennel of W. B. Wells Carries off Prizes at Toronto Exposition—Best in Canada

Seven firsts, five seconds and four thirds! Such was the record established at the big Toronto Exposition by W. B. Wells, of this city, in the kennels' competition. The Maple City dogs distanced all Canadian competition and in but two events were they headed by New York canines. Mr. Wells also took first money for the finest kennel of four dogs shown.

All the dogs were English setters and the judges were enthusiastic in their praises of them. The result is a tribute to Mr. Wells and a splendid advertisement for the Maple City. It is probably that several of the prize-winning canines will figure in the International Field Trials this Fall.

HUSSARS MAKE HIT

One of the Most Picturesque and Well Executed Drills of Parade Gaining Well Deserved Renown

Last night was the third night of the Hussars' drill, and if possible the production is put on in better style each succeeding night. Monday night it was thought the crest of the wave had been reached, but Tuesday evening's performance surpassed it just as this, in turn, was outdone by that of the night. The members of the different choruses and drills are gaining an easy and graceful stage bearing which comes only with experience.

By right of conquest Miss O'Hara still holds the proud position she achieved as captain of the guard in the Red Hussars. This piece still holds the leading place in the Parade menu of good things. The stage appearance of the chorus is magnificent, and the costuming of red with white piping, short skirts and be-whiskered toques adds the final swag to the triumph. To the accompaniment of inspiring music these Amazons march, never a foot far from time, all the while performing complicated drills. At the conclusion of the exhibition they are joined by the full chorus singing "Listen to the Band."

The other soloists are nightly gaining fresh encomiums. Miss Rive Slegman in the Fleur-de-lis, and her other choruses, never fails to call forth round upon round of applause. Miss May Peate in "Candy" still maintains the proud position she assumed at the start, as do Misses Boles and Hennessey in their respective songs. Harold McDonald in "Nora Clancy" and "Mandy" is without a peer in this line.

People do not realize sufficiently what a splendid thing is taking place in their midst. Last night's house was overflowing to both those in charge and the performers in point of attendance. Both are giving their best energy and their time to present Maple Cityites with a finished amateur production and their efforts should be appreciated. Much better to patronize this home production, than to bear the mere mercenary melodramatic title where the money goes into the pockets of outsiders.

In Manager Taylor, Capt. C. W. Eddy has a faithful and efficient Lieutenant. Mr. Taylor's task it is to put the way for the production and attend to the infinite number of details connected therewith. The smoothly running production of Parade put on in this city is one of the best testimonials of his fitness for the position he occupies.

CALL OF DEATH

A very sad and unexpected death occurred at nine o'clock Sunday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Smith, when their only son, Leslie, aged seven years and seven months, passed peacefully away into the Great Beyond. On Saturday he seemed so much brighter and they then looked for his immediate recovery, but before Sunday morning inflammation of the bowels set in, which took him off very suddenly, which was a very great shock to the family.

The deceased was a very bright little fellow. He was loved by all his playmates and by all who knew him. The grief-stricken parents have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community. Besides a father and mother he leaves three sisters to mourn his untimely death. Mrs. Thos. Britton, of Kirkville, N. Y., Flossie and Lillian at home.

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at 3:30 at the Maple Leaf cemetery, the services being conducted by the Rev. Rural Dean McCosh, and was well attended by the many friends of the family, with his following comrades as pall-bearers: Ted Hardwick, Glen Allen, Clayton Raymond, Raymond Thibodeau, Reg. Allen and Reginald Thibodeau. The floral gifts were many and beautiful.

Some men profess to know more than most other men ever dreamed of having had an existence.

GETTING READY

FOR BIG GAME

Kent County Footballers Preparing for International Match With English Pilgrims

Strong Team to be Chosen—Practice Match to be Held on Tecumseh Park Next Saturday

Much enthusiasm is being evidenced in the coming big football match between the Kent County players and the touring English Pilgrims, which will be played at Bennett Park, Detroit, on Monday, the 18th inst. Many devotees of the game have expressed their intention of accompanying the team and witnessing the splendid exhibition of the Englishmen.

On Saturday afternoon next, commencing at 3:30, a capital practice match will be played between two selected Kent teams, from which it is likely the international team to meet the Englishmen will be chosen. An effort is being made to get together the two strongest teams in the County and an exciting contest is assured. It is hoped that all interested in the game will turn out to witness this match and "get a line" on the players for the big game.

The Kent County team and the Englishmen are to be banqueted in Detroit and the occasion will be a memorable one in the annals of local football.

HARTRIK--RICHARDS

A very happy event took place at the residence of Mrs. Wm. Richards, King street west, yesterday afternoon at two o'clock, when her eldest daughter, Miss Louise Richards, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Wm. J. Hartrik, a valued employee of The Planet.

Rev. Robert McCosh securely tied the nuptial knot in the presence of a very few, the event being a very quiet one. After the luncheon the happy couple left on a honeymoon trip to Montreal, and they will afterwards return to the city and reside on Wellington street.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartrik were the recipients of many beautiful and costly presents, showing the esteem in which they are held by their many friends.
