Wolfville Boy Married in Michigan

The Battle Creek (Mich.) Moon-Journal of August 10th, 1922, gives the following interesting account of the marriage of Mr. Joseph Ernest Barss, of this town and Miss Helen Kolb, daughter of Mrs. Charles Ellsworth Kolb, of that city, which took place on Wednesday the 9th inst.:

Before an altar artistically banked with rose and orchid gladioli, zinnias, marigolds and cybodium ferns, Miss Helen Kolb, daughter of Mrs. Charles Ellsworth Kolb, and Joseph Ernest Barss, son of J. Howard Barss, of Nova Scotia, spoke their marriage vows Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Kolb residence, 31 Garrison avenue. The wedding was one of the most charming of the summer season, but was small and informal, the guest list numbering seventy relatives and intimate friends, owing to the recent death of the bride's father and the groom's mother.

The impressive nuptial service was performed by Dr. Erenst D. Burton, uncle of the groom, from Chicago. Dr. Burton is head of the University of Chicago library. A pretty sentiment connected with the officiating minister is that he performed the same rites many years ago for the groom's parents.

The bride was radiant in her gown of ivory satin crepe, fashioned on simple straight lines, the only adornments being two ropes of pearls, which were suspended from rosettes on either side of the bodice. The train, which fell from the shoulders, was caught at the long waist line, falling from there.

She wore a beautiful tulle wedding veil, which was caught to the coiffure with a band of pearls across the forehead, and a high tulle ruffle in back. The veil train was held in place with silver leaves. She carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses, valley lilies and white orchids.

The bride's younger sister, Miss Marian Kolb, was her maid of honor and the groom was attended by his cousin, Dr. Harold Barss, of Ypsilanti.

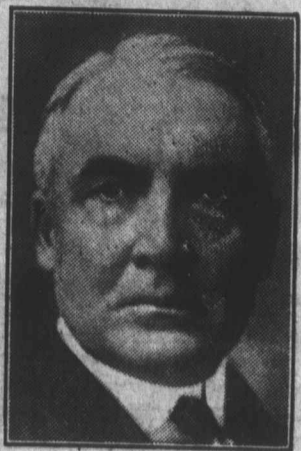

The Lohengrin Wedding March was played by the Venetian Trio, the orchestra playing throughout the reception and supper which followed.

The wedding supper was served in the dining room and living room. The bride's table was centered with a beautiful low floral piece of gladioli and vari-colored garden blossoms, the bride's and groom's cake also adorning the table. The serving was done by several of the bride's girl friends.

A profusion of pretty garden flowers in tall wicker baskets and vases adorned the remainder of the home and the large veranda.

The bride is one of Battle Creek's well known young women and graduated in '21 from Michigan University, besides having one and one-half years at Chicago University. She is a member of Collegiate Sorosis at Ann Arbor. During the early part of last year she was a member of the local high school faculty, teaching domestic

YESTERDAY MORNING'S FIRE

Mr. C. A. Brown, manager of the telephone exchange came very near losing his life as well as his home yesterday morning. Mr. Brown, who was alone in the house at the time—his wife and little son being out of town—was awakened shortly before six o'clock and discovered that the building was on fire and full of smoke. On opening the door of his room he was met with an overpowering volume of heat and smoke which prevented his exit. Through a window he made his way to the ground and was able to give an alarm before falling unconscious. Neighbors carried him to a place of safety and a doctor was summoned and the firemen soon responding to the alarm proceeded to locate the fire. The building was so full of smoke this was done with difficulty but it was finally discovered near the kitchen stove and had apparently been burning for hours. The fire was soon extinguished, not, however before considerable damage had been done.

A swimming meet for the girls and boys of the town will be held on Labor Day, Sept. 4th, at 3 p.m., in the swimming pool of the Acadia Memorial Gymnasium. The events will include 20 and 40 yard dashes, plunge for distance, swimming under water, and candle races; and the competitors will be divided into classes according to weight. It is hoped the parents and friends of the children will show their interest by being present to witness the meet.

A distressing accident occurred at the home of Mrs. Miles, at the Wallbrook Mountain, on Wednesday morning of last week. Mrs. Martha Schofield, aged 79 years, who had been an occupant of the home for some months and was pretty nearly helpless, while lighting her pipe dropped a match and ignited her night-dress. Before the fire could be extinguished the aged lady was severely burned and died on Sunday. The funeral took place on Monday, the interment being at Black River, the old home of the deceased. Mrs. Schofield was formerly Miss Martha Wier, and was a sister of Mr. John Wier, of this place.

Mr. Barss and his bride left immediately on an extended honeymoon trip, and will be at home after September first on Washington street, Ann Arbor, where they have an apartment in readiness.

BEST CAMP YET

Is Verdict of Girl Guides and Boy Scouts

In spite of unfavorable weather the Girl Guides and Boy Scouts had a great time at Camp, and all voted it "the best yet".

The Guides, about 25 in number went to camp on August 7th. Those in charge were Mr. E. Percy Brown, Miss Parry, Miss Harry, Mr. Patriquin and the Scoutmaster.

Perhaps the most pleasing feature of the camp was the evening camp fire, with songs, stories and readings. The leaders, two of them in particular, entered into the fun of the crowd and became as young as the youngest of the Guides.

One evening was "Stunt" night and an entertainment was presented in the Shanty that would not have disgraced the Opera House.

The Scouts, about 60 strong, started camp on the 14th. Thirteen tents were in use. Part of these were borrowed, the remainder are Scout property.

Those in charge were Rev. G. W. Miller, Dr. Clarence Hemmeon, Karl Mason, Arthur Brown, Wallace Barteaux, Cecil Thompson, Leicester Coit and the Scoutmaster.

Mr. Burgess, of Waterville, again took charge of the cooking and excelled himself. Meal time was eagerly anticipated and the most sanguine hopes were always fulfilled. The older boys could not help comparing the present camp with that of the early days at Black River when all cooking was done over an open fire and the fare was of the most simple nature.

The new canoes belonging to the Anglican and Presbyterian patrols proved a great success.

The swimming, rowing and paddling races on Wednesday brought out keen competitors. Those winning the greatest number of points were Colin Munroe, Alex. Andrews, Ken. Murphy, Lawrence Robinson, Hugh Boate and James Northover.

The prize for best tent went to No. 9 in charge of Claire McKenna, second prize going to the Crusaders, Sam Cook in charge.

The prizes for Bible Story telling on Sunday evening were awarded as follows: 1st, Sam Cook; 2nd, Robert Herbin; 3rd, Wallace Barteaux.

Large Audience Enjoys Provandie Recital

The esteem in which Wadsworth Provandie and Marion Tufts Provandie are held by the music lovers of Wolfville and vicinity was clearly shown by the large and enthusiastic audience that greeted them at the Opera House on Monday evening. The recital was one of the best musical performances ever heard in Wolfville. Every number of the program was splendidly rendered and the loud applause which greeted each selection plainly indicated the appreciation of the audience. Both artists were forced to respond to numerous encores.

Mr. Provandie has been heard in Wolfville several times but never did he sing so well as he did on Monday evening. His voice is a marvellous baritone of great power and dramatic quality, and throughout his entire performance not a break or a false register was noticeable. He is also an actor born which was shown in his operatic selections.

Mrs. Provandie, always a favorite with Wolfville audiences, again delighted her hearers with her artistic rendering of her several selections. She possesses a touch that combines beauty and eloquence in every respect, and her interpretation is most artistic. She is also a splendid accompanist.

The news that Mr. and Mrs. Provandie may not again visit Wolfville for some years has been received with universal regret, and they can be assured that when they do visit us again they will receive a warm welcome.

WOLFVILLE WINS AT TENNIS

Threatening weather, followed by rain, interfered with the league tennis match between Wolfville and Windsor on the latter's courts on Saturday last. When the playing was interrupted the Wolfville team were in the lead, the scores of the completed games being as follows:

Men's Singles.—Dr. L. Eaton, Wolfville, defeated F. G. O'Brien, 6-4, 6-4.

Mixed Doubles.—K. Tremaine and Miss I. Clift, Windsor, defeated R. Tufts and Miss Keirstead, 7-5, 2-6, 6-3. A. Chute and Miss Chute, Wolfville, defeated G. Morris and Mrs. Christie, 2-6, 6-3, 6-3. L. Eaton and Miss Coit, Wolfville, defeated J. R. Harrison and Mrs. Kendall, 6-4, 6-4. M. Beardsley and Miss Freeman, Wolfville, defeated C. N. Bissett and Miss I. Dimock, 5-7, 10-8, 6-2.

The remaining events, men's doubles, ladies' doubles and ladies' singles were interrupted by the rain. Windsor was leading in the two ladies' events and Wolfville in the men's.

The managers and directors of the Port Williams Fruit Co. on Aug. 8th presented Mr. Robert F. R. Newcombe with two very handsome verandah chairs. The gift was much appreciated.

LIEUT.-COL. W. G. BARKER, V.C., D.S.O., M.C.

The famous aviator who has just returned to Canada after a visit to England says that the British plans for building a fleet of 500 aeroplanes are inadequate and that 5,000 would be a more suitable number. He says that the wars of the future will largely be decided in the air, and that the great speed of the latest types of aeroplanes is such as no range-finder could follow them and they would be immune from gunfire.

ACADIA SUMMER SCHOOL FOR MINISTERS

The Summer School for Ministers opened yesterday in the Acadia Seminary Chapel and will continue until next Tuesday. The programme of lectures each morning is as follows:

8.30—9.15 a.m.—"Religious Education", by Rev. W. C. Machum, B. D.

9.15—10 a.m.—"Practical Theology", by Rev. A. C. Chute, D. D.

10—10.45 a.m.—"The New Testament Doctrine of God", by Rev. E. M. Keirstead, D.D., LL.D., of the McMaster University.

10.45—11.30 a.m.—"Five Epochs of Christian History", by Rev. H. C. Vedder, D.D., LL.D., of Crozer Theological Seminary.

11.30—12.15 a.m.—"Modern Theological Movements", by Rev. George E. Horr, D.D., LL.D., of Newton Theological Institution.

On Thursday evening Dr. Horr was the speaker, his subject being "The Baptist Outlook".

Friday evening Dr. Cutten will discuss "Psychology and the Preacher".

Saturday evening Dr. E. M. Keirstead will lecture on "Literature and the Preacher".

On Monday evening "The Social Message of the Gospel" will be the theme of Dr. Vedder's address.

The closing address of the School will be on "Personality and Progress" by Dr. F. W. Patterson, of Winnipeg.

The morning lectures will be given in the Seminary Chapel. The evening addresses will be in the vestry of the Baptist church and will be open to the public.

FAREWELL

RECEPTION

To Dr. and Mrs. Cutten, Who Leave Wolfville Next Month.

A farewell reception for Dr. and Mrs. G. B. Cutten was given by the Social and Benevolent Society of the Baptist church on Tuesday evening. The function was held in the school-room of the church and was largely attended and most enjoyable. Dr. and Mrs. MacDonald, with Mrs. G. K. Prescott, president of the society, received the guests, and a pleasant hour was spent in social intercourse. The chair was then taken by Dr. MacDonald and a most pleasing program was carried out. This included a piano solo by Miss Vivian Duncanson; a vocal solo by Miss Evelyn Duncanson; an address by Rev. Dr. Manning representing the University; a vocal solo by Miss Eunice Curry; an address by Mayor Sutherland representing the Town Council; a violin solo by Mrs. (Dr.) Thompson; an address by Rev. R. F. Dixon representing the ministerial institute; a vocal solo by Miss Ruth B. MacDonald.

A pleasing feature was the presentation to Mrs. Cutten by little Helen Perry, of a handsome basket of snapdragons, accompanied by a short address by Mrs. Prescott which was gracefully and feelingly responded to by the recipient.

Dr. Cutten made a brief and fitting address in which he expressed his appreciation and thanks for the many kindnesses extended to himself and family during their residence in Wolfville and especially for the large attendance of citizens on this occasion and the evidences of goodwill which pervaded the gathering.

Dainty refreshments were served followed by the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" which brought to a fitting close an exceedingly enjoyable occasion.

UNION SERVICES

Notwithstanding the downpour of rain which prevailed practically all day on Sunday, the joint services at the Presbyterian and Methodist churches were well attended. The speaker both morning and evening was Rev. D. B. Hemmeon, who gave practical and helpful addresses. At the morning service in the Presbyterian church the theme was "The Well Within", the text being John 4:14. Mr. A. J. Mason, who rendered such splendid service as choir-leader during the winter, which had to be discontinued owing to the departure of himself and family to take up their residence in Parrsboro, was present and rendered a delightful solo which was much enjoyed. In the Methodist church, where the evening service was held, Rev. Mr. Hemmeon delivered an interesting address from the story of the healing of the lepers in Luke 17. Mr. Mason again favored the congregation with a beautifully rendered solo.

500 BLIND IN NOVA SCOTIA

You can bring these blind fellow citizens into the light of day.

THE increased cost of everything since the war period came upon us has made it impossible for this work which is being done to help the blind in Nova Scotia to be carried on without a public appeal for funds.

The School for the Blind is urgently in need of money, and money is needed at once to finance the instruction organization of the Canadian National Institute, which beside the workshop already mentioned has extensive courses in home instruction which must not be permitted to lapse.

ONE of two things must now happen. Either the people of Nova Scotia will rally to the support of their blind fellow citizens, or the splendid work which is being done for the blind in Nova Scotia must halt in its tracks.

The failure of the public to support the effort which is now being made to raise funds to carry on this valuable work will mean that there must be fewer blind people in Nova Scotia educated to the point of self-reliance and more of them condemned to suffer life long misery in blind helplessness to whom Death will come as a welcome release.

THE responsibility rests upon every citizen of Nova Scotia to help this cause in some way. We expect with confidence that the wealthy men and women of our Province will support us to the utmost extent of their ability.

But this responsibility is not to be carried by the wealthy men and women alone. Citizens who are not so well blessed with worldly goods can help us, too. No contribution can be too large, and none is too small. Even those who cannot give money can give their friendship, their sympathy and their verbal support.

"In as much as ye did it not unto one of the least of these, ye did it not unto me."
