PLEASANT EVENING AT OWENS.

On Friday evening last R. B.
Owens entertained at dinner the young men and boys who acted as waiters at the Carvell banquet. There were present Sandy Hayward, Howard Kennedy, Burnette Miller, Bird McMullin, Clara McMullin, Hal Sipprell, Ray Rideout, Tom Pankhurst, Arthur Thornton, Archie Stevens and others. Other invited guests were Mrs. S. S. Miller, of whose Sunday school class most of the boys were members, Mrs. Henry Bradley, Mrs. Scott Sipprell, S.
S. Miller and Fred H. Stevens.
A most delightful repast was served, almost the counterpart of the banquet of the week previous and which fully sustained the reputation of the house of Owens.

The after dinner speaking was informal and a pleasing feature.
Mrs. Miller, in a neat speech, chided the young fellows for their backwardness in speaking, telling them that they should learn to discuss matters freely in public, for very soon the affairs of the world will be theirs to deal with. Mrs. Miller also declared herself an anti-suffragette and won applause from everyone present. It seemed to be the prevailing opinion that our women are on a higher plane than that of the ballot box.

Messrs. Miller and Stevens vied with each other in spinning yarns and Hal Sipprell operated a phonograph with good effect. In response to a toast to the ladies Mr. Owens paid a high and worthy tribute to his mother and sisters.

The event closed with the singing of Auld Lang Syne. He's a Jolly Good Fellow, and the National Anthem.
