WITH THE FUNNY MEN

Uncertain.
"Well, Mr. Pedagogue, does my boy show any special aptitude for work?" asked the proud father.
"I think so, Mr. Bronson," answered the schoolmaster. "I am not certain as yet whether John will make a sculptor or a baseball player. He is entering in his aim with paper wads, but the condition of his desk top convinces me that he can carve with considerable facility."

No Facilities.
"Rather a husky looking individual," "Yes, Th's Prof. Sampson Grapleigh. He gives physical culture lessons by mail."
"I see, a correspondence school. But suppose one of his clients applied for instruction in person?"
"The professor would be in a most embarrassing predicament. He might have to hire a gymnasium."

Competent at Last.
"How long has this reporter been on the staff?"
"Oh, long enough to become really useful as a news gatherer."
"What do you mean?"
"He has passed through the period of aspiring to write the 'Great American Novel,' or the 'Great American Play' and is now able to concentrate his mind on a police court item."

Through With Honesty.
"I'm never going to return a lost article to any one again," said a Kansas City man the other day.
"Why?" he was asked.
"Well, this fellow advertised a reward for the return of his dog, and no questions asked. And then when I took the dog and went up and rang the bell his wife answered the door."

How We Need One!
"I've an invention at last that will mean a fortune!"
"What is it this time?"
"Why, it's an extra key for a typewriter. When you don't know how to spell a word, you hit the key and it makes a blur that might be an e, an a, or most anything else."

Not Qualified for Golf.
"Will you come and make a four at bridge, sir?"
"I'm exceedingly sorry, sir, but I don't play bridge."
"You don't play bridge, sir? Then what the devil did you join a golf club for?"—The Tattler.

GIVE IT TIME.
"Bell my egg three minutes."
"Excuse me. Dat egg is jes' out o' cold storage an' three minutes won't sump more dan jes' thaw it."

Friendly Bill.
The man I like is Bill McGuire. He sweeps and helps me change a tire.

One Better.
Manager—This magnet will draw three pounds of iron from a distance of ten feet.
Bube—That's not much. I know something that draws me every Sunday over three miles of plowed fields, and I weigh 125 pounds.

Needless Labor.
"John," said the nervous woman, "I think there is a burglar in the house!"
"Nonsense! Why should a predatory person take the trouble to break into a dwelling when he can walk around a few blocks and gather up gallons of priceless milk?"

Following Instructions.
Father—And when you quarreled with the boy did you follow your Sunday school principle and give him a soft answer?
Bobbie—No, not exactly; I made an old soft tomato do the answering.

Smart, at That.
"I guess my wife thinks I'm a pretty smart man."
"Why?"
"She admits that I am half as smart as she thought I was the day we were married."

Fairly So.
"Did you follow the diet I advised?"
"Yes, doctor."
"Religiously?"
"Why, tolerably so. I said grace about three times out of five, I should guess."

A Painful Matter.
"Pat, it's lookin' seedy ye are. A shave wouldn't hurt you a bit."
"Faith, Mollie, if ye could see me razor gas wouldn't say that."
