THE POST returns thanks to some unknown donor for a copy of the Minneapolis Herald which contains a marked Thanksgiving hymn.—Also to Mr. C. E. Campbell for Boston papers.

ASSAULT.—The assault case of Silas Estabrooks against Albert Estabrooks of Midgie, was tried before Stipendiary Cahill last week. Conviction, fined $10 and costs.

THE PENITENTIARY INSPECTOR.—One of these inspectors which secured such high commendation at the late exhibition in St. John, has been placed on the roster in C. Fawcett's foundry. It sustains its reputation well, being simple in construction and very easy to operate.

REMOVAL.—Mr. Edward Read will shortly open the store lately occupied by H. Dickson with a full and fresh stock of groceries, provisions, dry and green fruit, crockery of all kinds. The new stand has been thoroughly renovated and painted inside and with increased accommodations Mr. R. hopes to keep to the front with goods in his line.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—We have again to remind correspondents that contributions sent to this office without the sender's name are consigned to the waste basket. An interesting item from Baie Verte shared this fate this week, also a report a wedding from Bayville. This is insisted upon as there are people mean enough to send bogus items to newspapers and the publisher is held responsible.

FOR TEXAS.—On Tuesday evening Mr. E. L. Ford took the western bound train for Shafter, Texas, in the hope that the change of climate will prove beneficial to his health. For some time past Mr. Ford has been unwell. His trip to Bermuda last winter brought a temporary improvement, but since his return he has lost ground. His many Sackville friends trust that he will find the change beneficial.

THE BOY ORATORS.—In the near future the boys of Sackville will have an opportunity of hearing Mr. W. A. Dunnett, the boy orator who is now on one of these provinces. Mr. Dunnett has secured very flattering press comments wherever he has gone and those who have heard him speak highly of his abilities as a lecturer. Mr. Sol B. Cutler, the advance agent was in Sackville last week arranging for his appearance.

If you are in need of SPECTACLES or EYE GLASSES I will guarantee to suit your eyes with H. Lawrence's celebrated Glasses.
