Dutch Quarrel With Venezuela

WILLEMSTAD, Thursday.—The serious situation that has arisen between the Netherlands and Venezuela was emphasized today by the issuance of orders to the Dutch cruiser Gelderland to proceed at once to protect Dutch interests there.
The Gelderland arrived late here with Mr. De Reus the Netherlands minister resident at Caracas on board. M. De Reus was dismissed from Venezuela by President Castro.
It was only a few hours after the cruiser's arrival that the orders for the immediate return to Venezuela were received.
The departure of the Venezuelan consul Senator Lopez has resulted in a cessation of the riots which grew out of the anti-Venezuelan sentiment here on Saturday and Sunday.

TO HELP CHATHAM EXHIBITION

Speaking with a reporter for The Sun a prominent director of the exhibition said that he could not understand the action of the Safety Board in giving the firemen permission to leave the city just at the time the John show would take place. "Why," said he, "they will be absent when we need them most." He stated further that the men will be away helping to make the Chatham Exhibition a success. He declared the city granted a sum of money to the exhibition and now they turn right around and give the firemen permission to leave the city when they are needed most. —Sun
