

INSPECTED THE PLACE.

Aldermen Look Over T. H. & B. Railway's Proposition.

Rumored Changes in City Hall Create Quite a Stir.

Very Few Dogs Now Running About the Streets.

The Toronto, Hamilton & Buffalo Railway has evidently not given up hope of getting permission to cross Gibson avenue with the proposed switch to the Westinghouse works...

The report of the changes talked of in the waterworks department created quite a stir in civic circles.

The fire brigade of Saskatoon, over which Chief Gilbert, recently of the Central station, presides, consists of three fire halls, adequately equipped.

The following building permits were issued this morning:

Hancock Bros., two brick houses on Locke street, between Nelson and Main street, for E. Board, $2,900.

The Harbor Committee will meet tomorrow afternoon at 4.30.

The dog catchers have made all arrangements to begin work tomorrow.

The shacks formerly used as smallpox isolation houses in the west end of the city will be burned to-morrow morning.

CHIEF MAKES APPOINTMENTS

New Captains and Lieutenants For Fire Department.

This morning Chief Ten Eyck gave out a list of the men who have been appointed to the positions of captains and lieutenants of the Fire Department.

Captain Broadbent will be moved from Victoria avenue station to Bay street, and will have A. Kappel as lieutenant.

The following is a list of proposed transfers:

- R. Berryman, Sophia street, to Central. H. Derry, Bay street to Central. J. Spink, Central to King William street. J. Canary, Annex to King William street. A. Stinson, King William street to Bay street. W. Wheaton, Sophia street to Bay street. W. Swain, Central to Bay street. W. Stonehouse, Central to Bay street. J. Craig, Annex to Sophia street. W. Murdoch, Central to Sophia street. J. Woods, Central to John street. M. O'Rourke, Bay street to John street. A. Whitney, Central to John street. A. Roth, Central to Victoria avenue. T. Wilson, Annex to Victoria avenue. W. Aitchison, John street to Victoria avenue. W. Henderson, Central to Sanford avenue. J. O'Donnan, Annex to Sanford avenue. B. Britain, Victoria avenue to Sanford avenue. E. Ladd, Victoria avenue to Sanford avenue. A. Theyer, Victoria avenue to Sanford avenue. H. Gillespie, John street to Sanford avenue. R. Weaver, Central to Sanford avenue. B. Mcweeney, Central to Sanford avenue.

GREATER HAMILTON ADOPTS A SLOGAN.

Publicity Committee Arranges to Supply Cuts For Stationery For Business Houses.

The Publicity Committee of the Greater Hamilton Association is doing yeoman service in booming the movement for a larger city.

This is the slogan and the Publicity Committee has arranged to supply every printing shop in the city with electros of it...

FOUR CANDIDATES FOR MODERATOR

Two Prominent Missionaries Named--Dr. Duval's Bereavement Universally Regretted.

The Moderator Will Be Here

(Special Despatch to the Times.) Winnipeg, June 2.—Rev. Dr. Duval and Rev. C. W. Gordon (Ralph Connor) leave to-morrow night for the general assembly at Hamilton, especially to take part in church union debate.

Central Church presented a scene of activity this morning. The church publications are being displayed under the direction of Dr. R. D. Fraser, the energetic editor and manager.

DISMISSED POLICEMAN.

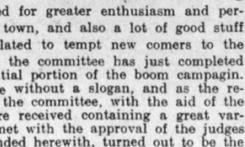

Commissioners Have Had Enough Trouble With R. Duncan.

At a meeting of the Police Commissioners, held in the City Hall at noon today, P. C. Robert Duncan, one of the late appointees to the police force, was discharged, for causing a prisoner in the hands of P. C. Campaign, junior, to be given his liberty.

George Campbell, who saw part of the incident, said that the prisoner had turned round after getting free, and addressing Duncan, said: "I'll see you again."

Two Drowned

Providence, R. I., June 2.—While rowing from this city to Crescent Park yesterday, William Carpenter and James Humphrey were drowned by the capsizing of their boat near Stargato Island.

THE MAN IN OVERALLS Got your dog yet? The false alarm fiend should get a jail sentence. No fine.

Look pleasant, please, while the fathers and brethren are in the city.

Local manager of the Hydro-Electric is said to be the job for ex-Mayor Stewart. What will he want next?

They say that City Engineer Macallum is to have a "clean-up day" in the department. He will use a new broom.

It will be a happy day for the ladies when the Y. W. C. A. corner stone is laid.

Perhaps Andrew Carnegie might endow a few supervised playgrounds if the promoters would approach him in the right way.

Oh, just judge! I agree with Judge Snider when he says that the hotel man who gives his customers too much drink should be prepared to take the consequences.

What's the speed limit for a bicycle? If you don't know how to manage a boat keep out of it.

No profanity this week. Let your conversation be yes and nay.

Now, the city can't afford to let Lansdowne Park slip out of its hands. We need it.

The yellow journals are still chasing around and interviewing Mr. Kinrade. Don't you think this thing needs a rest?

Well, a half holiday is better than none, the jewellers must think.

Now Mr. Macallum's troubles have begun. Pollywogs are coming through the water pipes.

And will the Hamilton civil servants have to work all that time too? What does the union say?

If Mr. Stewart expects to be an official of the Hydro-Electric Commission, of course, that explains it all. But what excuse has Mr. Studholme?

Judge Snider's dictum that hotel men who give their customers too much booze need not kick if the boozers get ugly will strike a responsive chord in the breast of the Citizens' League.

I believe the General Assembly will be open to the public. Drop in and have a look at some of the men who are helping to keep Canada Canadian.

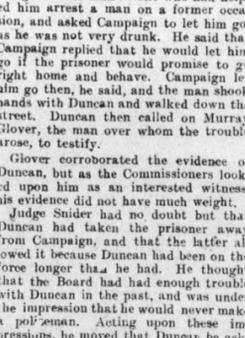

In the Ontario public accounts there is an item for the pay of one Stewart, for buying rights of way for the Hydro-Electric Commission. Wonder has that anything to do with the guff that one T. J. Stewart has been talking?

"Hamilton, Canada, is the spot for you."

I wouldn't like to say that the boy who wantonly kills a bird is a murderer at heart.

T. J. Stewart is just the kind of a man to make that kind of an attack on Mayor McLaren.

How Allan does like to shake hands with the Hon. J. S.

THE NEW LABOR MINISTER. (Weekly Sun.)

Mr. MacKenzie King is young as a politician, but he has shown decided capacity in dealing with the labor question, and we may look to his appointment with hope of a carefully devised plan for closing the angry and costly breach between Capital and Labor.

PERSONAL ABUSE BUT NO ARGUMENTS

That Was Ex-Mayor Stewart's Whole Speech at the Anti-Hamilton Meeting.

Replying to the attack made on him last night by T. J. Stewart, M. P., at the meeting in the Twentieth Century Club, Mayor McLaren this morning handed out some hot shot.

Although furnished with a verbatim report of the proceedings his Worship declared he was unable to see where any arguments were advanced by Mr. Stewart, whose address appeared to consist mostly of abuse.

In regard to the speech last night of the member for West Hamilton, it would not be becoming for me to answer in the same strain.

Death came with terrible suddenness and in a cruel form to Roy Strong, son of Mr. Joseph Strong, Mountain top, near the East End Incline, this morning.

He wheeled down King street. When passing Steven street, and even as far west as Tisdale, he was seen to waver on the wheel, as if he was going to fall off.

When he fell from the wheel, he broke his neck.

Death came with terrible suddenness and in a cruel form to Roy Strong, son of Mr. Joseph Strong, Mountain top, near the East End Incline, this morning.

Deceased left his home early in the morning and during the day had been at the office, where he and his father have been carrying on a real estate business at 36 James street south.

He was in his usual health this morning, and his tragic death was a terrible shock to the family, the members of which were waiting his arrival for dinner when word of the accident reached them.

At first it was supposed that he had been smitten with heart failure and that that had caused him to fall from the bicycle and break his neck, but the doctor found no symptoms of heart trouble.

It is possible that death may have been caused by suffocation from the accumulation of blood in his throat, and that this may have caused the fall, or the injury to the spine may have caused death.

Deceased was in his usual health this morning, and his tragic death was a terrible shock to the family, the members of which were waiting his arrival for dinner when word of the accident reached them.

At first it was supposed that he had been smitten with heart failure and that that had caused him to fall from the bicycle and break his neck, but the doctor found no symptoms of heart trouble.

It is possible that death may have been caused by suffocation from the accumulation of blood in his throat, and that this may have caused the fall, or the injury to the spine may have caused death.

Deceased was in his usual health this morning, and his tragic death was a terrible shock to the family, the members of which were waiting his arrival for dinner when word of the accident reached them.

At first it was supposed that he had been smitten with heart failure and that that had caused him to fall from the bicycle and break his neck, but the doctor found no symptoms of heart trouble.

It is possible that death may have been caused by suffocation from the accumulation of blood in his throat, and that this may have caused the fall, or the injury to the spine may have caused death.

Deceased was in his usual health this morning, and his tragic death was a terrible shock to the family, the members of which were waiting his arrival for dinner when word of the accident reached them.

At first it was supposed that he had been smitten with heart failure and that that had caused him to fall from the bicycle and break his neck, but the doctor found no symptoms of heart trouble.

It is possible that death may have been caused by suffocation from the accumulation of blood in his throat, and that this may have caused the fall, or the injury to the spine may have caused death.

Deceased was in his usual health this morning, and his tragic death was a terrible shock to the family, the members of which were waiting his arrival for dinner when word of the accident reached them.

At first it was supposed that he had been smitten with heart failure and that that had caused him to fall from the bicycle and break his neck, but the doctor found no symptoms of heart trouble.

It is possible that death may have been caused by suffocation from the accumulation of blood in his throat, and that this may have caused the fall, or the injury to the spine may have caused death.

Deceased was in his usual health this morning, and his tragic death was a terrible shock to the family, the members of which were waiting his arrival for dinner when word of the accident reached them.

At first it was supposed that he had been smitten with heart failure and that that had caused him to fall from the bicycle and break his neck, but the doctor found no symptoms of heart trouble.

It is possible that death may have been caused by suffocation from the accumulation of blood in his throat, and that this may have caused the fall, or the injury to the spine may have caused death.

Deceased was in his usual health this morning, and his tragic death was a terrible shock to the family, the members of which were waiting his arrival for dinner when word of the accident reached them.

At first it was supposed that he had been smitten with heart failure and that that had caused him to fall from the bicycle and break his neck, but the doctor found no symptoms of heart trouble.

It is possible that death may have been caused by suffocation from the accumulation of blood in his throat, and that this may have caused the fall, or the injury to the spine may have caused death.

Deceased was in his usual health this morning, and his tragic death was a terrible shock to the family, the members of which were waiting his arrival for dinner when word of the accident reached them.

FOOLED THE POLICEMAN

Who Caught Him Driving on Wrong Side of Street.

Percy Carey Ordered to Pay His Wife's Board.

Another Truancy Case in Police Court This Morning.

On Monday night P. C. Campaign, jun., stopped a man who was driving his wagon on the wrong side of the street, and after taking his address allowed him to go.

"No," answered the defendant; "I have never been stopped in my life by a policeman."

"No," answered the defendant; "I have never been stopped in my life by a policeman."

"No," answered the defendant; "I have never been stopped in my life by a policeman."

"No," answered the defendant; "I have never been stopped in my life by a policeman."

"No," answered the defendant; "I have never been stopped in my life by a policeman."

"No," answered the defendant; "I have never been stopped in my life by a policeman."

"No," answered the defendant; "I have never been stopped in my life by a policeman."

"No," answered the defendant; "I have never been stopped in my life by a policeman."

"No," answered the defendant; "I have never been stopped in my life by a policeman."

"No," answered the defendant; "I have never been stopped in my life by a policeman."

"No," answered the defendant; "I have never been stopped in my life by a policeman."

"No," answered the defendant; "I have never been stopped in my life by a policeman."

"No," answered the defendant; "I have never been stopped in my life by a policeman."

"No," answered the defendant; "I have never been stopped in my life by a policeman."

"No," answered the defendant; "I have never been stopped in my life by a policeman."

"No," answered the defendant; "I have never been stopped in my life by a policeman."

"No," answered the defendant; "I have never been stopped in my life by a policeman."

"No," answered the defendant; "I have never been stopped in my life by a policeman."

"No," answered the defendant; "I have never been stopped in my life by a policeman."

"No," answered the defendant; "I have never been stopped in my life by a policeman."

"No," answered the defendant; "I have never been stopped in my life by a policeman."

"No," answered the defendant; "I have never been stopped in my life by a policeman."

"No," answered the defendant; "I have never been stopped in my life by a policeman."

FELL FROM WHEEL; BROKE HIS NECK.

Shocking Death of a Respected Young Real Estate Agent This Morning.

Death came with terrible suddenness and in a cruel form to Roy Strong, son of Mr. Joseph Strong, Mountain top, near the East End Incline, this morning.

He wheeled down King street. When passing Steven street, and even as far west as Tisdale, he was seen to waver on the wheel, as if he was going to fall off.

When he fell from the wheel, he broke his neck.

Death came with terrible suddenness and in a cruel form to Roy Strong, son of Mr. Joseph Strong, Mountain top, near the East End Incline, this morning.

Deceased left his home early in the morning and during the day had been at the office, where he and his father have been carrying on a real estate business at 36 James street south.

He was in his usual health this morning, and his tragic death was a terrible shock to the family, the members of which were waiting his arrival for dinner when word of the accident reached them.

At first it was supposed that he had been smitten with heart failure and that that had caused him to fall from the bicycle and break his neck, but the doctor found no symptoms of heart trouble.

It is possible that death may have been caused by suffocation from the accumulation of blood in his throat, and that this may have caused the fall, or the injury to the spine may have caused death.

Deceased was in his usual health this morning, and his tragic death was a terrible shock to the family, the members of which were waiting his arrival for dinner when word of the accident reached them.

At first it was supposed that he had been smitten with heart failure and that that had caused him to fall from the bicycle and break his neck, but the doctor found no symptoms of heart trouble.

It is possible that death may have been caused by suffocation from the accumulation of blood in his throat, and that this may have caused the fall, or the injury to the spine may have caused death.

Deceased was in his usual health this morning, and his tragic death was a terrible shock to the family, the members of which were waiting his arrival for dinner when word of the accident reached them.

At first it was supposed that he had been smitten with heart failure and that that had caused him to fall from the bicycle and break his neck, but the doctor found no symptoms of heart trouble.

It is possible that death may have been caused by suffocation from the accumulation of blood in his throat, and that this may have caused the fall, or the injury to the spine may have caused death.

Deceased was in his usual health this morning, and his tragic death was a terrible shock to the family, the members of which were waiting his arrival for dinner when word of the accident reached them.

At first it was supposed that he had been smitten with heart failure and that that had caused him to fall from the bicycle and break his neck, but the doctor found no symptoms of heart trouble.

It is possible that death may have been caused by suffocation from the accumulation of blood in his throat, and that this may have caused the fall, or the injury to the spine may have caused death.

Deceased was in his usual health this morning, and his tragic death was a terrible shock to the family, the members of which were waiting his arrival for dinner when word of the accident reached them.

At first it was supposed that he had been smitten with heart failure and that that had caused him to fall from the bicycle and break his neck, but the doctor found no symptoms of heart trouble.

It is possible that death may have been caused by suffocation from the accumulation of blood in his throat, and that this may have caused the fall, or the injury to the spine may have caused death.

Deceased was in his usual health this morning, and his tragic death was a terrible shock to the family, the members of which were waiting his arrival for dinner when word of the accident reached them.

At first it was supposed that he had been smitten with heart failure and that that had caused him to fall from the bicycle and break his neck, but the doctor found no symptoms of heart trouble.

It is possible that death may have been caused by suffocation from the accumulation of blood in his throat, and that this may have caused the fall, or the injury to the spine may have caused death.

Deceased was in his usual health this morning, and his tragic death was a terrible shock to the family, the members of which were waiting his arrival for dinner when word of the accident reached them.

At first it was supposed that he had been smitten with heart failure and that that had caused him to fall from the bicycle and break his neck, but the doctor found no symptoms of heart trouble.

It is possible that death may have been caused by suffocation from the accumulation of blood in his throat, and that this may have caused the fall, or the injury to the spine may have caused death.

Deceased was in his usual health this morning, and his tragic death was a terrible shock to the family, the members of which were waiting his arrival for dinner when word of the accident reached them.

ITALIANS OUT.

Those Employed on Street Railway Struck This Morning.

The Italians who are working on the Street Railway construction on Barton street, went on strike again this morning for higher wages.

They were paid the same as the other workmen, as they were doing just as much and the same kind of work.

At the time of the strike on James street the men asked that they be given $2 per day, but were refused.

They refused to work unless granted the increase to $2 per day, and when the company would not grant more than a cent an hour increase, which would be $1.60 per day they went home without causing any trouble.

Two policemen were sent down to keep order, but they were unrequited.

HAND BURNED.

Painful Accident to a Well-Known Church Organist.

Mr. B. E. Webster, the well-known musician, who is retiring from the position of organist of St. John Presbyterian Church, met with a painful accident on Monday at the works of the Frost Wire Fence Company.

He and a workman were trying to "see a tank of acid which had sprung a leak and Mr. Webster got some of the acid upon his hand.

Three fingers of one hand and both thumbs were badly burned. The other man also got some burns.

BODY RECOVERED.

About 2.30 this afternoon the body of Harry McEwen, who was drowned on Saturday, was recovered by Mr. Ford, McEwen's brother-in-law, and Mr. Corrier. It was not far from where Miller's body was found.

Look Out For Counterfeits.

There are many counterfeits of the Special cigar, but they lack the peculiar fine quality of the genuine. The Special cigar is sold for five cents straight at peace's cigar store, 107 King street east.

$200,000 Fire

Philadelphia, June 2.—Fire today destroyed the five-story building of Schmoel & Co., milliners, at 1204 Chestnut street, and spread to the Beneficial building, next door, owned and operated in part by the Beneficial Saving Fund. The latter structure was saved, only the roof being burned. The loss is estimated at $200,000.

C. P. R. GETS NEW OUTLET.

Will Tap the G. T. R. Line Near Islington.

An order was secured to the C. P. R. from the Board of Railway Commissioners yesterday whereby the company will be enabled to send its freight through Toronto to Hamilton and Buffalo without passing through the southern portion of the city.

As the C. P. R. uses the Grand Trunk line at Hamilton, it was heretofore necessary to send through freight directly across the northern lines of Toronto to connect with the tracks to Hamilton, but an immense amount of switching will be now avoided by the construction of a branch near Islington, in the township of Etobicoke, to connect with the Grand Trunk.

The chief engineer of the board reported that there were no engineering difficulties in the way, but the chairman said the connection would impose additional operating expense on the G. T. R. and might subject that road to additional dangers in the operation of trains.

It meant a new station at the point of junction, with day and night operators and an interlocking structure. It was not a matter of public convenience, but simply a saving of four or five miles' haul for the C. P. R., and it was the expense of building and making all the payments on account of wages.

The C. P. R. must also indemnify the G. T. R. against all loss or damages in respect to the operation of G. T. traffic by reason of the increased danger. The order will be along the lines of the recent decision of the board in regard to a junior road making connections with or crossing a senior road, whereby the burden of expense and responsibility for accidents must be placed on the former.

Tempting Things.

Devonshire cream, Neufchatel cheese, squabs, sardine paste, fresh chicken, pea-fed bacon and ham, scallops, shrimps, crab meat, Little Neck clams, Cove oysters, ox tongue in glass, lobster in glass, English Stilton cheese, fresh cut mushrooms, Spyn apples, spring spinach, Grimsby tomatoes, cooked ham, cooked ox tongue.—Bain & Adams, 89, 91 King street east.

Excessive Perspiration.

Makes the feet tender and sore. British Army Foot Powder relieves and cures sore and tired feet. It stops excessive perspiration, preserves the leather in the shoes and makes walking easy. 25c per can. Parke & Clarke, druggists.

SAFETY DEPOSIT BOXES

To rent at $2 a year and upwards, for the storing of deeds, bonds, stocks, wills, silver and other valuables. TRADERS BANK OF CANADA.