Charlottetown Woolen Mills.

HOME, SWEET HOME.

FARMERS.—If you want to save disturbance in the home, go quickly to any one of the Agencies of the Charlottetown Woolen Company and Buy a Suit of Clothes.

The good wife's time is occupied sufficiently without being annoyed and worried in mending the clothes purchased elsewhere than from us; so if you really desire peace, and have an everlasting suit, go as we advise.

We started manufacturing in 1881, and every year our business has gone on and multiplied, but in case there still be a few who have not heard the glad tidings or favored us with a visit, to all such, and to all our old customers and people generally we extend a cordial invitation to come and see us.

"What did you get?" asked one of the fishermen, as he looked out of the barn door, and found that the rain had cleared off.

"Get?" said the farmer, as he rose up and kicked the half bushel measure across the barn. "I got a fair crop of common oats, with hulls on them, which I sold from the threshing machine for twenty cents a bushel. The oats he sold me were common oats, with the hulls taken off, and I paid him five dollars a bushel for them in cash, and the contract I signed turned out to be a note for five hundred dollars, endorsed by two of the best farmers in town, and I paid it."

"Well, he spoke the truth when he said he didn't like to see one man get too rich," said one of the fishermen, "but I should have supposed he would have come round the next year and bought your crop, as he promised. But I suppose you violated your contract by selling the oats to other parties."

"Come around again," said the farmer. "He would have been lynched. Why I found that he had sold Bohemian oats to one of the farmers in this township, and in the county I don't know how many farmers took the bait. You can't imagine how I felt after hugging that secret to my heart all summer, and watching the oats grow, to see them head out just like ordinary oats, and when it came over me that
