LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

Mr. F. W. Hodgman has ordered for two handsome calendars.

The American Hospital ship Maine sailed from London on Saturday for South Africa.

Winston Churchill, the war correspondent, has reached Delagoa Bay. There was no truth in the report that he had been recaptured.

The old house known as Clements' Corner, near St. Peter's Road, was destroyed by fire early Sunday morning. The house is said to have been standing for about 100 years.

Dr. Blanchard has been dismissed from the position of Medical Superintendent of Falconwood Asylum. Dr. V. Goodwill, who has just graduated from Queen's College, will take his place.

Gen. Hatton is said to be working hard to be allowed to command the second Canadian Contingent. All the Kingston Military College graduates, recommended by the Minister of Militia will be given Commissions.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

MAYOR Warburton, on Saturday received a batch of Christmas cards from the Soldiers' Wives League of St. John, N. B. There is a card for each family who has a soldier in South Africa.

OTTAWA advices say that another shipment of Canadian hay for the war office will be sent from St. John to South Africa early in January. Professor Robertson will have charge of the arrangements and anticipates no difficulty in securing a cargo of first rate hay in the lower provinces.

A DESPATCH from Malta says that General Lord Kitchener, chief of staff to General Lord Roberts, arrived there on Saturday from Alexandria on the British second class cruiser Isla. He went immediately on board the British cruiser Dido, which sailed for Gibraltar, where he will join Lord Roberts.

THE market was largely attended Friday and Saturday, and the sales were lively. Geese brought from 50 to 80c., fowls from 35 to 40c., turkeys 70c. to $2.00 and ducks from 50 to 70c. Eggs were selling at 20 to 21c. There was a very small market yesterday with little change in the prices.

A DESPATCH from Rome of the 23rd says that an appalling disaster took place at Amalfi on Friday afternoon. Amalfi is a popular tourist resort on the Gulf of Salerno. About two o'clock, an enormous rock upon which stood the Cappuchin hotel, slid bodily into the sea with a deafening roar, and without a moment's warning, carrying with it the hotel. The old Cappuchin monastery below the hotel sank, besides Caterina and several villas. Many people were buried in the debris which crashed for vessels to the bottom of the sea destroying their crews. The mass of earth which slipped was about 50,000 cubic yards.

The Halifax Herald reports that the brig C. R. Santos for Sydney, 56 days, put into Halifax for provisions. She had a hard passage. On the outward voyage a serious mutiny occurred on board, in which Captain Romeril almost lost his life. One of the mutineers struck the captain on the head, and knocked him insensible and would have thrown him overboard. The rebellious seamen then attempted to take charge of the ship. She was worked into Penzance and four of the crew were turned over to a British warship and were taken to England for trial. Captain Romeril had a close call and bears an ugly wound on the head. He was unarmed.

We regret to chronicle the death of Mr. John Kenny, of St. Teresa's, which took place at the Charlottetown Hospital, at 12 o'clock Christmas Eve. Mr. Kenny had been home only a few weeks from Pine Creek, Skagway, where he had been successfully engaged in mining operations. A few days previous to his death he was attacked by appendicitis when he was taken to the Hospital for treatment. An operation was performed, out of which he came all right; but some time afterwards he began to sink quite rapidly until he died as above stated. He devoutly received the last Sacraments and departed this life comforted and strengthened by all the rites of the holy church. His wife and mother-in-law, Rev. Dr. Curran were at his bedside when his spirit took its flight. We tender our sympathy to all his friends in their bereavement.
