1,279 Special Trains On C. G. Railways

Up to March 1st 757,400 Troops have travelled over Government Railways.

Thousands arrive each week at Halifax and are sent forward to Dispersal Areas.

Since the war began in 1914 up to March 1st when S.S. Belgio disembarked her returned soldier passengers at Halifax 757,400 troops have been carried on special trains over the Canadian Government Railways.

The first train which carried troops over the Government Railways the year the war was declared was numbered one and all special troop trains to and from Halifax since that time have been numbered consecutively. The last train from the Belgio on Saturday was No. 1279. Each train averages about twelve cars with an average of 50 men to a car, which figures up a total of 767,400 men carried. Of course in addition to this thousands of soldiers have journeyed between Montreal and Halifax by regular trains during the past four years.

The movement of troops back to Canada is now approaching its greatest activity. Last Sunday 5000 arrived at Halifax by the transports Lapland and Belgio, and fifteen special trains were despatched westward inside of fourteen hours.

S. S. Megantic with soldiers and dependents arrived Wednesday and S.S. Adriatic is due Sunday. The movement of returning men is to be kept up actively all summer.

The process of disembarkation at Halifax is being carried on without a hitch, and there is a fine system of co-operation between the Military and the Railway officials.

Look! Read! Realize!

We cater to the men's trade, and no other. If you were sick you wouldn't call to see a Tailor, or a Blacksmith, about the condition of your health. Of course not; you would call to see a Doctor!

If you wanted a Suit or an Overcoat would you go to see a Doctor, or a Shoemaker? Not at all. You would go to see a First Class Tailor.

WELL, there's where we shine!!!
We study the business. We know what suits a young man

we know what suits a middle-aged man, and we know what suits the old gentleman—both in goods and in style. It does not make any difference whether you want your clothes Ready-to-Wear, or Made-to-Order. We are equally in a position to suit you. We do not let a suit or overcoat leave our establishment until it suits and fits the man who is buying. Our prices are always right when you take the quality into consideration.

Do not forget that we are sole agents for the famous W. H. Leishman & Co., Wholesale Custom Tailors. We have an elegant stock of Overcoats to show you at the present time.

ADVERTISE IN THE HERALD

Dominion Parliament

The week ending May 17th, was so far as the House of Commons is concerned, devoid of any sensational incidents. At the same time, it may be truly said that it was a working week. A great amount of public business was quietly put through the house. The first, and possibly only event of unusual character during the week occurred on May 12th, when Sir Edward Kemp, Minister of Overseas Militia Forces, took his place in Parliament for the first time since the election. He had just returned from London, and after the routine proceedings at the opening of the House, at the same time laying on the table a report of the Overseas Militia Forces for 1918. He then stated that for personal reasons he would be absent for about ten days, but on his return he would be prepared to make a full statement regarding military operations overseas during the year 1918. It will be remembered that a good deal of criticism has been indulged in one way or another relative to this service, but now it is a matter of extreme satisfaction to know that the Minister in charge and responsible for whatever manner of conduct has been employed is present and prepared to make a full report and meet all inquiries.

Among other legislative measures that were discussed and passed upon during the week, was the Bankruptcy Bill which was in charge of the Solicitor-General. This is intended to be a very exhaustive act, and is quite lengthy, containing almost one hundred sections, which has had a great amount of consideration from all the best legal minds in all the provinces of Canada. It has been exhaustively discussed and considered from every possible point of view, and it is now held for third reading. Another matter of Dominion wide interest is the prohibition resolution, introduced by the Acting Prime Minister. This resolution is for the purpose of continuing for one year from the official declaration of the closing of the war, the prohibition regulations enforced by order-in-council over a year ago. The present resolution calls for some amendments of last years order-in-council. These are especially intended to meet the requirements of prohibition enactments in the respective provinces of the Dominion. The resolution passed through the committee stage and was reported. The bill founded thereon was introduced and read the first time. When the bill comes up for second reading the amendments will be better understood, and will no doubt be thoroughly discussed before the bill passes through the committee stage.

Other matters of more than ordinary importance were the legislation regarding the Royal North West Mounted Police, and the resolution providing the loan of twenty-five million dollars to the provincial governments for improved housing schemes. Regarding the North West Mounted Police, when the question was before the House, much interesting information was furnished with respect to the wonderful service this body of picked, trained men rendered to the Dominion in the far west in the early stages of Canadian history.

MINARD'S LINIMENT LUNBERMAN'S FRIEND.

It has always been understood that the service rendered on the outposts of civilization, so to speak, by these wonderful mounted police was of a nature that could scarcely be improved upon. Notwithstanding the sparsely settled state of these far western regions of Canada and the absence of any fixed institutions of civil government, it is a matter of history that no serious crime was ever permitted to go unpunished, and that the activity and thoroughness of these mounted police inspired such a wholesome regard for the law, and such fear in the hearts of criminals, that the whole country there was comparatively free from any serious breaches of proper regulations. Then again, when the war broke out, these brave and trained men showed the spirit with which they were imbued. Without exception, the whole force, officers and men, volunteered for service overseas. Several hundreds of them were accepted, and at once proceeded to the battle front where they rendered unsurpassed service, and distinguished themselves by the greatest possible bravery. Numbers of them gave up their lives, and of those remaining, a very great proportion received decorations for unusual bravery.

The matter of loaning twenty-five million dollars to the provincial governments of Canada to promote plans for better housing was discussed at very considerable length. In brief, the money is to be placed in proportion to the population, at the disposal of the different provincial governments, or rather loaned to them at a certain rate of interest, and then the provincial administrations are expected to supplement these amounts and advance them also at a reasonable rate of interest to soldiers and others for the purpose of erecting housing at a moderate rate, and according to specified conditions and plans. The loans made to those desirous of availing themselves of the opportunity will be, according to determined regulations, and will not be available for persons otherwise sufficiently well off to build houses without any assistance of this kind. In addition to the loans being made at a reasonably low rate of interest, a long term of years will be afforded for the repayment of the principal. The resolution embodying this proposed grant passed the house, after a considerable amount of discussion. The balance of the time of the House of Commons during the week was employed in the voting of supplies for different departments. Considerable progress was made, but of course, a tremendous amount of supply remains yet to be voted.

A dinner to a number of McGill University men and other Canadians was given at the Carlton Hotel recently by W. M. Birks, of Montreal, who is one of the senior governors of the University. Among those present were Mr. Bonar Law, Lord Milner, Sir R. Borden, who is Chancellor of the McGill University, Sir Eric Geddes, Sir Auckland Geddes, the new Principal of the University, Sir E. Kemp, Sir G. Parley, Mr. D. MacMaster, Lieutenant-General Sir R. E. W. Turner, Brigadier-General J. G. Ross, Col. Gerald W. Birks. Lord Milner proposed the toast of "Canada." He said it was not generally known what a great part Canada had played in the war on the industrial side.

Could Not Work ON ACCOUNT OF SEVERE HEADACHES.

Headaches are generally caused by some disturbance of the stomach, liver or bowels, and although not a serious ailment, the cause should be removed before they become habitual and make your life miserable.

You will find that Milburn's Laxative Pills will remove the cause by acting on the bowels gently, safely and surely, refreshing and strengthening the stomach, toning up the liver, and thereby assisting the head.

Mrs. J. Armstrong, 7 Harris St., St. John, N.B., writes: "I take pleasure in writing you concerning the good I have received from using Milburn's Laxative Pills. I had such severe headaches I could not do my work, but after using two vials of your pills, I can now do my work with ease and pleasure."

as a supplier of munitions. He thought this industrial development was well rooted and that we must think of Canada in future as one of the very great industrial countries of the world. (Cheers, Mr. Bonar Law, in proposing "The McGill University and its new Principal," said that closer union of the Empire would depend largely on what was done now, and one of the best omens of the future was to be found in the extent to which the statesmen of the Dominions were taking a real part in the Paris negotiations. Among them there was no one who showed greater common sense and sounder judgment and whose views were listened to with greater respect than the Canadian Prime Minister. There were more big posts in this country than there were big men to fill them, and he believed that if the new gang would make its appearance the old gang would be very glad to take a rest. Of the men without experience of political life who had been put in charge of positions of the highest importance not one had been a failure, and many had been conspicuously successful. Among the new men Sir Auckland Geddes had been one of the most useful, and he had tried to persuade him that his duty was to remain here. He might have hoped to win the highest prizes (London April 5.)

London, May 15—(Reuter)—The Empire Parliamentary Association is informed that Sir Robert Borden is leaving for Canada on Sunday next, the 18th. He will be entertained by the association at a luncheon in the Commons on Friday.

London, May 18—(Reuter)—The Daily Mail in an editorial says Sir Robert Borden will take with him the gratitude of the British people for the splendid service he has rendered at the peace conference. "We owe him so much that we shall find it difficult to discharge our debt, and we cannot at the same time forget the great Dominion for sparing him to us. Canada can look with unexampled pride on the part she played, both in war and peace, under his wise leadership."

Troubled With Kidneys For Over Three Years.

WAS CONFINED TO BED.

Mrs. George Gray, Hopewell Hill, N.B., writes:—"I had kidney trouble for over three years, and was so bad I was confined to my bed. First I contracted a bad cold and it went to my kidneys, and I suffered dreadfully. I got the doctor, but he did me very little good. I tried all kinds of kidney pills, but got very little help. One of my neighbors came in to see me and told me to get Doan's Kidney Pills and give them a good trial. I used five boxes and they have cured me so that I can sleep all night without being disturbed, and I feel better in every way. I cannot say too much in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills."

Doan's Kidney Pills are just what their name implies; a pill for the kidneys and the kidneys only. When you ask for "Doan's," see that you get them put up in an oblong grey box with our trade mark "The Maple Leaf." Price 50c. at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
