MEXICO CITY, Feb. 9. General Bernardo Reyes, ex-Secretary of War, was shot through the head to-day and killed in front of the National Palace.

HALIFAX, Feb. 9. The s.s. Corsican, now due, has Governor Davidson aboard. He leaves on arrival for North Sydney by special train supplied by the Canadian Government.

DUBLIN, Feb. 9. Three suffragettes, sentenced to a month's hard labor for smashing windows in Dublin Castle, are on a hunger strike. One of them, Mrs. Hopkins, is in so serious a condition that she was released to-day and sent to hospital.

MANCHESTER, Eng., Feb. 9. Thirteen pit sinkers were killed and a number injured at Bolton colliery by the snapping of a chain which suspended a bucket, containing 800 gallons of water. The bucket crashed down a shaft 500 feet deep, at the bottom of which the men were working. The workers were crushed into an unrecognizable mass. Only a few who happened to be in shelter holes on the sides of the shaft, escaped death.

LONDON, Feb. 9. A sensational report that the Turks suffered a crushing defeat at the hands of the Bulgarian troops on the Peninsula of Gallipoli, losing 15,000 killed and 10,000 prisoners, published in Berlin this morning, receives no confirmation or support from any other source. It is pointed out here as incredible that such a battle could have taken place without the Bulgarian headquarters hastening telegraphically to notify the world. A telegram received here from Sofia this afternoon does not refer to any fighting, merely mentioning the departure of King Ferdinand for the army headquarters in the field.

SOFIA, Feb. 9. All attempts by the Turks to assume the offensive at the Tchatalja lines have been repulsed. A semi-official despatch says that yesterday the Turks advanced in three columns. The first, consisting of six battalions, supported by the guns of Fort Gaurain and warships moored in Bizuk Obzha Bay, attacked the Bulgarian positions but were driven back by a counter attack. The second column of two battalions were obliged to retire. A column of one regiment was routed with great slaughter by a bayonet charge. In the Derkos district attempts by the Turks were also repulsed, and they withdrew to their original positions. The bombardment of Adrianople continues.

LONDON, Feb. 9. The Suffragettes destroyed many valuable plants, and did other damage to the hot house in Kew Horticultural Gardens this morning. It is believed that a number of them hid in the gardens over night. Many rare orchids were uprooted and scattered in all directions, and thirty panes of glass in the orchid houses were beaten in. The total damage is from $4,000 to $5,000. Window smashing raids in London continue. Two immense windows in an Oxford Street establishment, which heretofore had been immune because the proprietors contributed to the Suffrage funds, were broken during the night. The postal authorities issued a notice that there would be a delay in all telegrams despatched from the South to the North of England, owing to the cutting of telegraph wires by the suffragettes.

BERLIN, Feb. 9. Declaring that the Prussians were an oppressed and dismembered folk in 1806, as a consequence of God's judgment, because they had lost faith in Him, the German Emperor at a Memorial Service in Berlin University, to-day, delivered a characteristic speech, warning the present generation not to forget the faith of their fathers. He emphasized his words by pounding his right fist on the desk and was often interrupted by applause. He asserted that Germans of to-day were inclined to believe only in tangible things, and to place difficulties in the way of religion. They should study history and see how the Prussians regained their old faith and fought the war of liberation whose glorious result was not the work of men but of God. So, continued the Emperor, we have in the history of the past, certain proof of God's guidance, and He is still with us, and with this teaching of the past the youth of Germany can forge in its fire the tried shield of faith, which must never be lacking in the armoury of Germans and Prussians. With such weapons, looking neither to the right nor the left, we will go our direct way, with eyes and hearts uplifted, and with trust in God. Then we can all repeat the great Chancellor's words: "We Germans, fear God, and nothing else in the world."

Wedding Bells.

HENNELLY-BROTHERS.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—Kindly publish in next issue of your paper about a pretty wedding, which took place here on the 28th of January, 1913. The groom, Mr. Owen Brothers was joined in wedlock to Miss Annie Hennelly. The groom being neatly dressed and wore a white rose. The bride wore a white hat trimmed with silk (white), and wore a suit of white silk and in her bosom a white rose. The best men were Mr. Michael Hennelly, a brother of the bride, and Mr. Frank O'Neill, a cousin of the groom. They also were neatly dressed and wore a temperance badge mounted with a white rose. The bridesmaids were Miss Lizzie Hennelly, a sister of the bride, who wore a white satin waist and a blue silk skirt and a white hat trimmed with blue, and Miss Fannie Brothers, a sister of the groom, who wore a white silk waist and a brown silk skirt and a white hat trimmed with brown silk and feathers. They drove to Renewers and Rev. Father Sheehan celebrated the ceremony, after which they left for the bride's residence. On arriving there all flags from friends around were flying and some forty or fifty guns were fired. Some 90 or 100 people enjoyed themselves heartily until the next day, 29th. At about 10 o'clock all felt sleepy after the night and went home. The bride and groom remained at Mr. Hennelly's residence until Thursday evening at 7 o'clock. The groom had a new house of his own and on reaching it about forty or fifty people had assembled to welcome the bride and groom to their new home. An enjoyable time was spent there and all enjoyed themselves heartily. Mr. John Duggan, a cousin of the groom, who lived in Maynard, U.S.A., for twenty years and who came to Newfoundland two years ago and lived with his uncle, was their musician at Mr. Hennelly's and the groom's residence. The bride received many costly presents some of which came from the city from relatives and friends. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Brothers many happy years of wedded life.

Yours, etc.,

Councillor Mullaly's Action

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—Please allow me to say a word in congratulation to Councillor Mullaly, for the stand taken by him at the Council meeting on Friday evening last. To pay the all-ready over-paid Secretary $200 more for simply doing his duty, is certainly going to extremes.

Mr. Mullaly hits the spot when he says the taxpayers money is being "scrambled."

The Mayor is certainly a surprise! Has he lost all common sense? The question is what are the taxpayers going to do about it? It is time to call a halt!

Yours truly,

P. M. MacDONALD,

Entertain ment at Long Pond. C.B.

A very interesting concert was held in the C. of E. School at Long Pond, on Monday night, February 3. The sum of eleven dollars ($11), was raised which will go toward the fitting of the school.

The girls and boys of the school were the performers, and so well did they act their parts, that the people who attended enjoyed themselves to the full.

Two songs were well rendered by Constable Humber. These, together with a reading from Mr. C. Rendell, made the entertainment still more pleasing to the audience.

At the end of the programme, the teacher thanked the people who patronized the concert and also those who helped to make it a success.

Mr. Peter Greenslade and Mr. C. Rendell then said a few words of appreciation on the success of the entertainment. "Not only was it," they said, "a pleasing affair, but a good training for the children."

The fitting of the children in every way for the battle of life, is of the utmost importance. Now that there are so many chances to educate the young and we neglect so grave a responsibility, it may happen that some day we shall be answerable to the Almighty for it. Hence the necessity for these in charge of the little ones to do their duty by them.

A Priest Hero.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—The accompanying exchange is from the columns of the Montreal Catholic Tribune, and will prove of interest to thousands of your Catholic readers. Father Byles was one of two other Catholic Priests who went to their deaths in the "Titanic," and a late article in the "Missionary" a New York Catholic Magazine, and which was written by one of the survivors of that never-to-be-forgotten tragedy, tells in graphic language of how these noble men met the inevitable end. The Rosary and other pious prayers were being recited as the ship sunk into darkness and into death, and it is a splendid truth that not only did the Roman Catholic brethren gather around to join in the last acts of piety and faith, but others of different denominations united too in that prayer and petition to Heaven for pardon and for peace.

It has been truly said, Mr. Editor, that the Priest is always to be found, where help is to be given, where suffering is to be alleviated, and where dangers are most in evidence.

Thanking you in anticipation of publication, I remain,

Very truly yours,

P. J. KINSELLA.

MEMORIAL TO PRIEST HERO OF THE TITANIC.

(From the Catholic Universe. and Weekly, London.)

The heroic conduct of Father Byles who went down in the "Titanic" will not be forgotten by the present generation. Future generations will learn of the inspiring zeal of Father Byles from the mural plate which has been set up at St. Edmund's College, Old Hall Green. The brass, which has been erected in the college cloister, opposite the tombs of the Vicars Apostolic, tells in graphic language the story of a brave man's heroism. The following is the inscription:

Pray for the soul of
Rev. Thomas Roussel David Byles, formerly student and Professor of this College.

Who having embarked for New York on the ship Titanic
When that vessel struck an iceberg
and became a total wreck
In the midst of that midnight horror,
of April 14, 1912,

He twice refused the offered safety
of a lifeboat,
Choosing rather to comfort the Catholics and other Christians with the supreme consolation of the faith.

And so to die with them,
Too numerous to be saved from the deep.

But not to escape eternal loss.
Thus did he follow in the footsteps
of the Good Shepherd;
Thus did he lay down his life for the sheep.

Get from your Pharmacist a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no more sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, Nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or Intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapiesin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to thoroughly cure almost any case of Dyspepsia, Indigestion or any other stomach disorder.

Thomas Edison says: "The time is coming when the actors and singers will perform in phonograph studies instead of the theatre, and instead of an audience of a thousand or so the entire world will furnish the audience."
